This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of the Lee Company 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the disclosures (collectively, the "financial statements"), for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, we have elected for you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Principal Trust Company, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by Principal Trust Company, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated May 10, 2022, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedules referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

- For 2021, we acknowledge our election to have an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect our responsibility for the financial statements and for determining the following:
    - The circumstances permit an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit.
    - A qualified institution has prepared and certified the investment information as described in 29 CFR 2520.103-8.
    - The certification meets the 29 CFR 2520.103-5 requirements.
    - The certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
- Related-party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- We are not aware of any uncorrected financial statement misstatements that are material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or leases in default, events reportable to the PBGC, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed have been properly disclosed.
- Significant estimates and material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

- Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- The supplemental schedules or financial statements disclose the following:
    - All non-exempt party-in-interest transactions [as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations under the section].
    - Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.
    - Reportable transactions [as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section].

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
    - Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.
    - A substantially complete draft of Form 5500.
    - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
    - Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
    - Current plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.
- All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:
    - Management,
    - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
    - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have no—
    - Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
    - Intentions to terminate the plan.
- Amendments to the plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
- The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- All required amendments to and filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The plan (and the trust established under the plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan (and trust) in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.
- The plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
- The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
- We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
- We believe the form and content of the Schedule of Delinquent Participant Contributions and Schedule of Assets (held at end of year) are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- The plan obtained its latest determination letter on March 31, 2014, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the plan administrator and the plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, they believe that the plan was qualified and the related trust was tax-exempt as of the financial statement date.

- We have obtained the service auditor's (or SOC 1) report from our service organization Principal Trust Company. We have reviewed such report, including the complementary user controls. We have implemented the relevant user controls, and they were in operation for the year ended December 31, 2021.
- As part of your audit, you prepared the draft financial statements, related notes and supplementary information and prepared the Form 5500. We have -
    - Assumed all management responsibilities.
    - Designated someone within Senior Management who has suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the services.
    - Evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
    - Accepted responsibility for the results of the services.
    - Ensured that the plan's data and records are complete and received sufficient information to oversee the services.
