R&Q Solutions 401(k) Plan
Attn: Michelle Briggs, Plan Administrator
Two Logan Square, Suite 600
Philadelphia, PA 19103

To the Plan Fiduciary and Trustees:

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of R&Q Solutions 401(k) Plan (the "Plan") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Management has determined it is permissible in the circumstances and has elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Therefore, as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), the audit need not extend to any statements of information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the plan's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis. A reasonable possibility exists when the likelihood of an event occurring is either reasonably possible or probable as defined as follows:

- Reasonably possible. The chance of the future event or events occurring is more than remote but less than likely.
- Probable. The future event or events are likely to occur.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiency in the Plan's internal control to be a significant deficiency:

- 1) ERISA, under 408(B)(2) requires plan fiduciaries, when selecting and monitoring service providers and plan investments, to act prudently and solely in the interest of the plan's participants and beneficiaries. Responsible plan fiduciaries also must ensure that arrangements with their service providers are "reasonable", and that only "reasonable" compensation is paid for services. According to the Department of Labor, reasonable compensation does not mean that a plan fiduciary needs to select the cheapest provider. An unreasonable arrangement could lead to a prohibited transaction. We recommend that you monitor and document the Plan's fees and expenses throughout the year to determine whether they are reasonable and in agreement with service contracts and document this process appropriately.

- 2) It was noted that there is no plan investment committee. Also, there were no minutes of meetings of the plan administrative committee. Therefore, there was no documentation demonstrating plan managements oversight of the Plan. It is recommended that the Plan Sponsor consult the Plan's ERISA attorney to determine the proper level of oversight that is necessary to make sure the Plan Sponsor is meeting all its fiduciary duties in regard to the Plan, which includes establishing and documenting the actions of such committees.
- 3) It was noted that the administrative committee does not regularly review the reports received from ADP relating to the Plan to the underlying information supporting such reports. We recommend that these reconciliations are performed on a regular basis to ensure the information is complete and accurate.
- 4) During our audit, we noted instances in which personnel files were missing documentation. We recommend that the Plan Sponsor review the personnel files for all required documentation and ensure that the information contained within them is complete and accurate.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Trustees and others within the organization, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
