Plan Administrator
Whatever It Takes Transmission
401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust
Louisville, Kentucky

As part of our audit of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (Plan) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, we wish to communicate the following to you.

Management has elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. An audit performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) does not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Management has determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. Management has also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Audit Scope and Results

Auditor's Responsibility Under Auditing Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America

An audit performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America is designed to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about the financial statements. In performing auditing procedures, we establish scopes of audit tests in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole. Our engagement does not include a detailed audit of every transaction. Our contract more specifically describes our responsibilities.

These standards require communication of significant matters related to the financial statement audit that are relevant to the responsibilities of those charged with governance in overseeing the financial reporting process. Such matters are communicated in the remainder of this letter or have previously been communicated during other phases of the audit. The standards do not require the auditor to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to be communicated with those charged with governance.

An audit of the financial statements does not relieve management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities. Our contract more specifically describes your responsibilities.

Qualitative Aspects of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

The Plan's significant accounting policies are described in Note 2 of the audited financial statements.

Alternative Accounting Treatments

No matters are reportable.

Management Judgments and Accounting Estimates

No matters are reportable.

Financial Statement Disclosures

The following areas involve particularly sensitive financial statement disclosures for which we are prepared to discuss the issues involved and related judgments made in formulating those disclosures:

- Fair values of investments.
- Parties-in-interest transactions.

Audit Adjustments

During the course of any audit, an auditor may propose adjustments to financial statement amounts. Management evaluates our proposals and records those adjustments which, in its judgment, are required to prevent the financial statements from being materially misstated. A misstatement is a difference between the amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure of a reported financial statement item and that which is required for the item to be presented fairly in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. One adjustment proposed was not recorded because its effect is not currently material; however, it involves an area in which adjustments in the future could be material.

Proposed Audit Adjustment Not Recorded

Attached is a summary of an uncorrected misstatement we identified during the current engagement and pertaining to the latest period presented that was determined by management to be immaterial but more than trivial to the financial statements as a whole.

Reportable Findings

During the course of the audit, we have identified the following reportable findings that are considered significant and relevant to those charged with governance over the Plan:

- Eligible compensation errors – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.
- Employee census report inconsistency – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.

- Late remittance of participants' contributions – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.
- Adjustments recorded and passed on recorded – See Audit Adjustments section above.

Auditor's Judgments About the Quality of the Plan's Accounting Principles

During the course of the audit, we made the following observation regarding the Plan's application of accounting principles:

- The quality of the Plan's accounting principles appears adequate and appropriately applied.

Other Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements

The Plan's audited financial statements are included in the Form 5500, Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan, filed with the Department of Labor Employee Benefits Security Administration. As part of our procedures, we read the draft Form 5500 that is substantially complete to determine if financial information discussed in sections outside the financial statements materially contradicts the audited financial statements. If we identify any such matters, we bring them to management's attention and review subsequent revisions.

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information we believe is a material misstatement of fact. Nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements.

Other Material Communications

Listed below are other material communications between management and us related to the audit:

- Management representation letter (attached).
- We orally communicated to management other deficiencies in internal control identified during our audit that are not considered material weaknesses or significant deficiencies.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and, therefore, there can be no assurance that all deficiencies, significant deficiencies, or material weaknesses have been identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

We observed the following matters that we consider to be deficiencies.

Deficiencies

Eligible Compensation

We noted certain miscellaneous earnings processed throughout the year were excluded from eligible compensation used to calculate Plan contributions. Based on discussions with management, the respective employees provided instructions for the Company to not make 401(k) withholdings on these payments. We recommend the Plan sponsor implement processes to document instances in which employees provide instructions to make changes to 401(k) withholdings.

Employee Census Report

During the performance of contribution testing procedures, we noted an instance of an employee's gross wages per payroll records that did not agree to census gross wages. We recommend the Plan sponsor review data currently reflected on the census report and compare to employee payroll information.

Remittance of Participants' Contributions

The DOL requires participant contributions to a retirement plan to be remitted to the Plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from general assets of the employer, but in no event later than the 15th business day following the end of the month, in which the amounts are contributed by participants or withheld from their wages. Noncompliance with this requirement may be treated as a prohibited transaction under ERISA. ERISA violations can jeopardize the qualified, tax-exempt status of a Plan or subject an employer to excise taxes or civil penalties for earnings lost by participants.

We noted one instance in which the Plan did not remit contributions in accordance with the DOL's requirement. We recommend remitting contributions in a timely manner consistent with DOL's requirements.

The undersigned (We) are providing this letter in connection with FORVIS' audits of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (Plan) as of and for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, and supplemental schedule as of December 31, 2021.

Our representations are current and effective as of the date of FORVIS' report: October 12, 2022.

Our engagement with FORVIS is based on our contract for services dated: May 27, 2022.

Our Responsibility and Consideration of Material Matters

We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements subject to FORVIS' report in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedule in conformity with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies; establishing and maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, operations, and compliance; and preventing and detecting fraud.

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's 2021 financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

For the audit of the Plan's 2020 financial statements, we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified by Mid Atlantic Trust Company, the custodian, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information that you did not audit, we understand that you did not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole. We understand the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified or provided by the custodian, was audited by you in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures as you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

Neither the Plan nor the Plan sponsor have sought or received attorney's services related to pending or threatened litigation or claims during or subsequent to the audit period. Also, we are not aware of any litigation or claims, pending or threatened, for which legal counsel should be sought.
21. Adequate allowances have been accrued for any material losses from uncollected receivables.

23. The financial statements disclose all significant estimates known to us. Louisville, Kentucky

As part of our audit of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (Plan) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, we wish to communicate the following to you.

Management has elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. An audit performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) does not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Management has determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. Management has also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Audit Scope and Results

Auditor's Responsibility Under Auditing Standards Generally Accepted in the United States of America

An audit performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America is designed to obtain reasonable, rather than absolute, assurance about the financial statements. In performing auditing procedures, we establish scopes of audit tests in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole. Our engagement does not include a detailed audit of every transaction. Our contract more specifically describes our responsibilities.

These standards require communication of significant matters related to the financial statement audit that are relevant to the responsibilities of those charged with governance in overseeing the financial reporting process. Such matters are communicated in the remainder of this letter or have previously been communicated during other phases of the audit. The standards do not require the auditor to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to be communicated with those charged with governance.

An audit of the financial statements does not relieve management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities. Our contract more specifically describes your responsibilities.

Qualitative Aspects of Significant Accounting Policies and Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

The Plan's significant accounting policies are described in Note 2 of the audited financial statements.

Alternative Accounting Treatments

No matters are reportable.

Management Judgments and Accounting Estimates

No matters are reportable.

Financial Statement Disclosures

The following areas involve particularly sensitive financial statement disclosures for which we are prepared to discuss the issues involved and related judgments made in formulating those disclosures:

- Fair values of investments.
- Parties-in-interest transactions.

Audit Adjustments

During the course of any audit, an auditor may propose adjustments to financial statement amounts. Management evaluates our proposals and records those adjustments which, in its judgment, are required to prevent the financial statements from being materially misstated. A misstatement is a difference between the amount, classification, presentation, or disclosure of a reported financial statement item and that which is required for the item to be presented fairly in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. One adjustment proposed was not recorded because its effect is not currently material; however, it involves an area in which adjustments in the future could be material.

Proposed Audit Adjustment Not Recorded

Attached is a summary of an uncorrected misstatement we identified during the current engagement and pertaining to the latest period presented that was determined by management to be immaterial but more than trivial to the financial statements as a whole.

Reportable Findings

During the course of the audit, we have identified the following reportable findings that are considered significant and relevant to those charged with governance over the Plan:

- Eligible compensation errors – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.
- Employee census report inconsistency – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.

- Late remittance of participants' contributions – See Internal Control over Financial Reporting section below.
- Adjustments recorded and passed on recorded – See Audit Adjustments section above.

Auditor's Judgments About the Quality of the Plan's Accounting Principles

During the course of the audit, we made the following observation regarding the Plan's application of accounting principles:

- The quality of the Plan's accounting principles appears adequate and appropriately applied.

Other Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements

The Plan's audited financial statements are included in the Form 5500, Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan, filed with the Department of Labor Employee Benefits Security Administration. As part of our procedures, we read the draft Form 5500 that is substantially complete to determine if financial information discussed in sections outside the financial statements materially contradicts the audited financial statements. If we identify any such matters, we bring them to management's attention and review subsequent revisions.

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information we believe is a material misstatement of fact. Nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements.

Other Material Communications

Listed below are other material communications between management and us related to the audit:

- Management representation letter (attached).
- We orally communicated to management other deficiencies in internal control identified during our audit that are not considered material weaknesses or significant deficiencies.

Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our audit procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and, therefore, there can be no assurance that all deficiencies, significant deficiencies, or material weaknesses have been identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

We observed the following matters that we consider to be deficiencies.

Deficiencies

Eligible Compensation

We noted certain miscellaneous earnings processed throughout the year were excluded from eligible compensation used to calculate Plan contributions. Based on discussions with management, the respective employees provided instructions for the Company to not make 401(k) withholdings on these payments. We recommend the Plan sponsor implement processes to document instances in which employees provide instructions to make changes to 401(k) withholdings.

Employee Census Report

During the performance of contribution testing procedures, we noted an instance of an employee's gross wages per payroll records that did not agree to census gross wages. We recommend the Plan sponsor review data currently reflected on the census report and compare to employee payroll information.

Remittance of Participants' Contributions

The DOL requires participant contributions to a retirement plan to be remitted to the Plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from general assets of the employer, but in no event later than the 15th business day following the end of the month, in which the amounts are contributed by participants or withheld from their wages. Noncompliance with this requirement may be treated as a prohibited transaction under ERISA. ERISA violations can jeopardize the qualified, tax-exempt status of a Plan or subject an employer to excise taxes or civil penalties for earnings lost by participants.

We noted one instance in which the Plan did not remit contributions in accordance with the DOL's requirement. We recommend remitting contributions in a timely manner consistent with DOL's requirements.

The undersigned (We) are providing this letter in connection with FORVIS' audits of the financial statements of Whatever It Takes Transmission 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust (Plan) as of and for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, and supplemental schedule as of December 31, 2021.

Our representations are current and effective as of the date of FORVIS' report: October 12, 2022.

Our engagement with FORVIS is based on our contract for services dated: May 27, 2022.

Our Responsibility and Consideration of Material Matters

We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements subject to FORVIS' report in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedule in conformity with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies; establishing and maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, operations, and compliance; and preventing and detecting fraud.

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's 2021 financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

For the audit of the Plan's 2020 financial statements, we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified by Mid Atlantic Trust Company, the custodian, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information that you did not audit, we understand that you did not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole. We understand the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified or provided by the custodian, was audited by you in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures as you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.
