COMMUNICATION AND FOCUS AREAS:
Required Disclosures	3

October 6, 2022

To the Plan Administrator of
Wenco Industries, Inc. 401(k) Plan
Colorado Springs, Colorado

We have audited the financial statements of the Wenco Industries, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the Plan) an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit] as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, and have issued our report thereon dated October 6, 2022.

As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Reliance Trust Company (Reliance), the Trustee of the Plan. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

Required disclosures are summarized on page three.

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit did not include all of the procedures required by auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the information summarized in Note C to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we were unable to, and did not, express an opinion on those financial statements.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be significant deficiencies.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of Plan management, the Plan Administrator, the Department of Labor, the Internal Revenue Service and others within the Plan and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

We would like to express our appreciation for the cooperation that we received from the staff of Wenco Industries, Inc. 401(k) Plan during the course of our audit of the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2021. We appreciate the opportunity to provide our services. Please contact our office if we can be of further assistance.
