AUDIT MANAGEMENT LETTER

To the Plan Administrator
Ovative Group, LLC 401(k) Plan
Minneapolis, Minnesota

We have audited the financial statements of Ovative Group, LLC 401(k) Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit] for the year ended December 31, 2021 and have issued our report thereon dated October 10, 2022. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Reliance Trust Company, the trustee, which is a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated April 11, 2022. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2021. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. We noted no particularly sensitive estimates.

Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. We noted no particularly sensitive disclosures.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Form 5500 Procedures

We are required to obtain and read a substantially complete draft of Form 5500 prior to dating our auditor's report. The purpose of this procedure is to identify any material inconsistencies between the draft Form 5500 and the Plan's financial statements. We identified no material inconsistencies in performing and completing our audit.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. There were no misstatements identified during the audit. However, there were closing entry adjustments made to the certified report and management is in agreement with those adjustments.

Reportable Findings

For the purposes of this letter, a reportable finding is a matter that includes one or more of the following: (1) noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations, (2) a finding that in our professional judgment is significant and relevant to you regarding your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process, and (3) an indication of internal control deficiencies identified during the audit that have not been previously communicated to management by other parties and that we determined are sufficiently important to merit management's attention. We identified the following reportable findings:

- 2021-1 Timely Remittance of Employee Contributions
- 2021-2 Document Retention
- 2021-3 Lack of Segregation of Duties
- 2021-4 Financial Statement Reporting, Review, and Reconciliation
- 2021-5 Review of Eligible Compensation

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated October 10, 2022.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

Other Matters

Our responsibility for the ERISA-required supplemental schedules accompanying the financial statements is to perform adequate procedures to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, is presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and whether the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

INTERNAL CONTROL

Report on Internal Control

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by the trustee that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

INTERNAL CONTROL

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiencies in the Plan's internal control to be significant deficiencies:

INTERNAL CONTROL FINDINGS

2021-1 Timely Remittance of Employee Contributions

Participant contributions become “plan assets” on the earliest date on which such contributions can be reasonably segregated from the Company assets. Proper application of this rule is required by the Department of Labor (DOL) and the DOL requires corrective steps to be taken in order for the Plan to be in compliance. During 2021, there were two remittances remitted as late as 9 days following the payroll period. Per DOL guidelines, this may be viewed as an untimely remittance due to the Plan’s normal remittance period of 4 days. We recommend that Plan management work with their third party administrator to correct the late remittances with lost earnings.

2021-2 Document Retention

Date of birth, date of hire, and payroll rate are pertinent demographic data to the Plan and its transactions. During our testing of participant and payroll data, we noted four instances where documentation was not maintained to appropriately support demographic data. We recommend that Plan management retain documents such as I-9’s and promotion letter to appropriately support demographic data of its participating and nonparticipating employees.

2021-3 Lack of Segregation of Duties

Due to the relatively small size of the Plan, ideal segregation of duties cannot be achieved. This is not unusual for a Plan of your size; however the lack of segregation of duties increases the risk of fraud related to misappropriation of assets, financial statement misstatement, or both. The Plan Administrator and management should constantly be aware of this condition. It is the responsibility of management and those charged with governance to make the decision to accept the degree of risk associated with this condition because of cost or other considerations. While we recognize it may not be cost effective to justify implementing a full segregation of duties for an extensive system of internal control in all areas, we believe it is important that management and those charged with governance are aware that some deficiencies may exist and that they should continue to apply diligent oversight and monitoring activities.

INTERNAL CONTROL

2021-4 Financial Statement Reporting, Review, and Reconciliation

During our audit, it was noted that the Plan Sponsor was not reviewing and reconciling employer and employee contributions nor reviewing vesting upon distributions. Based on internal control inquiries made of Plan personnel, the Plan Sponsor appears to be relying on ADP Retirement Services to perform reconciliations and review procedures for the Plan.

According to the Plan Document, section 7.1.1, authority for overseeing the plan transactions rests with the following parties: the Company as Plan Administrator/Plan Sponsor, the record keeper/third party administrator (TPA) for the Plan, and the custodian/insurance company holding the Plan's assets. The ultimate responsibility for these actions rests with the entity designated as "fiduciary" under ERISA.

A fiduciary under ERISA is any party who exercises any discretionary authority or control over the Plan's management; exercises any authority or control over the management or disposition of the Plan's assets; renders investment advice for a fee or other compensation with respect to Plan funds; or has any discretionary authority or responsibility in the Plan's administration. Service providers are generally not considered fiduciaries but they may be liable to the Plan or Plan Sponsor based upon traditional theories of negligence, malpractice, or fraud.

Under ERISA, the Plan's "named fiduciary," and generally the Plan Administrator, has the primary responsibility for protecting Plan assets. In this case, Elizabeth Mosiniak has been designated the Plan Administrator. It is important to be aware that service provider errors may ultimately be deemed the responsibility of the Plan Administrator. Care should be taken and procedures established for the Plan Administrator to periodically review and reconcile the investments and other records of the Plan.

We recommend that on a periodic basis, plan management review the reports available on ADP Retirement Services' website to reconcile contributions recorded against the contributions per the plan sponsor's payroll and contribution records and to look for any unusual items. We further recommend that Plan management becomes more familiar with the reports available within the ADP Retirement Services' website to enhance their internal controls around financial reporting for the Plan.

INTERNAL CONTROL

2021-5 Review of Eligible Compensation

During our audit, it was noted that one participant selected for testing had parking compensation that was improperly included as eligible compensation for a portion of the year as defined by the Plan. Lack of reviewing eligible compensation as defined by the Plan resulted in additional employee deferrals and employer contributions. We recommend the Plan take corrective action on these misstatements as soon as practicable. We also recommend that management implement controls to review eligible compensation used in the calculation of employee deferrals and employer contributions to ensure it is in accordance with eligible compensation as defined by the Plan.
