Professional standards require us to communicate with you regarding matters related to the plan audit that are, in our professional judgment, significant and relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. On September 12, 2022, we presented an overview of our plan for the audit of the financial statements of the Neuromonitoring Associates, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, including a summary of our overall objectives for the audit, and the nature, scope, and timing of the planned audit work.

This communication is intended to elaborate on the significant findings from our audit, including our views on the qualitative aspects of the Plan’s accounting practices and policies, Plan management’s judgments and estimates, financial statement disclosures, and other required matters.

We are pleased to be of service to the Plan to discuss our audit findings, as well as other matters that may be of interest to you, and to answer any questions you might have.

Status of our Audit

Status of Our Audit

We have completed our audit of the financial statements, including procedures applied to the supplemental schedule, of Neuromonitoring Associates, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021. Our audit was conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). This audit of the financial statements does not relieve Plan management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities. The term “those charged with governance” encompasses the term Board of Directors or Audit Committee or other formally designated body that has financial oversight responsibilities.

Status of Our Audit

- ▶ The objective of our financial statement audit was to obtain reasonable - not absolute - assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatements.
- ▶ The scope of the work performed was substantially the same as that described to you in our earlier Audit Planning communications.
- ▶ As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and as instructed by you, we have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and have obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion. The audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Accordingly, the objective of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.
- ▶ In accordance with professional standards, we have obtained a substantially complete Form 5500 and considered whether such information, or the manner of its presentation, was materially inconsistent with its presentation in the financial statements. Our responsibility also includes calling to management's attention any information that we believe is a material misstatement of fact. We have not identified any material inconsistencies or concluded there are any material misstatements of facts in the other information.
- ▶ All records and information requested were freely available for our inspection.
- ▶ Plan management's cooperation was excellent. We received full access to all information that we requested while performing our audit, and we acknowledge the full cooperation extended to us by all levels of Plan personnel throughout the course of our work.

Results of our Audit

RESULTS OF OUR AUDIT

Accounting Practices, Policies, and Estimates

The following summarizes the more significant required communications related to our audit concerning the Plan's accounting practices, policies, and estimates:

The Plan's significant accounting practices and policies are those included in the notes to the financial statements. These accounting practices and policies are appropriate, comply with generally accepted accounting principles and industry practice, were consistently applied, and are adequately described within the notes to the financial statements.

- ▶ A summary of recently issued accounting pronouncements is included in Note 2 to the Plan's financial statements.
- ▶ There were no changes in significant accounting policies and practices during 2021.

Significant estimates are those that require management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. The Plan's significant accounting estimates, including a description of management's processes and significant assumptions used in development of the estimates, are disclosed in Note 2 of the financial statements.

- ▶ Plan management did not make any significant changes to the processes or significant assumptions used to develop the critical accounting estimates in 2021.

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

We are required to communicate, in writing and in a timely manner, to those charged with governance all reportable findings and all material weaknesses and significant deficiencies that have been identified in the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. The definitions of a reportable finding, control deficiency, significant deficiency and material weakness are as follows:

Category	Definition
Reportable Finding	Matters that are one or more of the following: a. An identified instance of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws or regulations b. A finding arising from the audit that is, in the auditor's professional judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding their responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process c. An indication of deficiencies in internal control identified during the audit that have not been communicated to management by other parties and that, in the auditor's professional judgment, are of sufficient importance to merit management's attention
Deficiency in Internal Control	A deficiency in internal control over financial reporting exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis.
Significant Deficiency	A deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.
Material Weakness	A deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

A reportable finding may also be considered a deficiency in internal control, a significant deficiency or a material weakness.

We considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration was for the limited purpose described above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and/or all reportable findings.

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In conjunction with our audit of the Plan financial statements, we noted no material weaknesses.

► The following significant deficiency was identified, which was also considered to be reportable finding:

Significant Deficiency and Reportable Findings	Comments
Lack of reconciliation process between the census data and payroll register (repeat finding)	During our audit, we noted that there is no reconciliation process between the census date and the payroll register. The census data is used for certain compliance testing that is critical to the plan. We recommend that a reconciliation process between the census data and payroll register be made to ensure completeness of compensation, 401(k) withholding and employer contribution amounts utilized in the performance of the annual compliance testing.

- ▶ We have communicated to Plan management control deficiencies, which we also considered to be reportable findings and provided suggestions for improvement of those deficiencies that were identified as a result of our audit that we did not consider to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies.

Deficiencies and Reportable Findings	Comments
Lack of SOC-1 report review (repeat finding)	During our audit, we noted The Plan relies heavily on Decimal, Inc. doing business as Ubiquity Retirement + Savings (“Ubiquity” or the “Recordkeeper”) for internal control matters involving the processing of transactions of the Plan. Plan management did not obtain and review the SOC-1 report of Ubiquity. The Plan management has a fiduciary duty to monitor Plan service provider and to ensure that Plan data is secured and properly recorded and that transactions are processed according to the plan’s provisions. The SOC-1 report helps to fulfill this duty. In addition, should there be any service provider issues (noted as qualifications or exceptions reported within the SOC 1 reports), the Plan management should be aware of these issues and take the necessary steps to address them. SOC-1 report also discusses controls that service provider expects to be in place at the plan sponsor. These user entity controls are an integral part of the overall controls surrounding the Plan. Without proper monitoring of the SOC-1 report, Plan management may not be aware of additional needed controls. Due to the level of this reliance, we recommend that Plan management obtain the SOC-1 report of the Recordkeeper and verify that the required complementary controls are in place.
No written formal minutes of meeting (repeat finding)	During the course of the audit, we noted that Plan management did not keep minutes of discussions regarding the Plan. Such minutes are a way to document the performance of fiduciary responsibilities on the part of management. We recommend that the Plan Committee engage in regularly scheduled meetings to discuss the operations of the Plan and document such matters in a formal setting. Alternatively, such discussions could be documented as part of the board meeting minutes of the Plan Sponsor.

Professional standards require us to communicate with you regarding matters related to the plan audit that are, in our professional judgment, significant and relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. On September 12, 2022, we presented an overview of our plan for the audit of the financial statements of the Neuromonitoring Associates, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, including a summary of our overall objectives for the audit, and the nature, scope, and timing of the planned audit work.

This communication is intended to elaborate on the significant findings from our audit, including our views on the qualitative aspects of the Plan’s accounting practices and policies, Plan management’s judgments and estimates, financial statement disclosures, and other required matters.

We are pleased to be of service to the Plan to discuss our audit findings, as well as other matters that may be of interest to you, and to answer any questions you might have.

Respectfully,

BDO USA, LLP

Status of our Audit

Status of Our Audit

We have completed our audit of the financial statements, including procedures applied to the supplemental schedule, of Neuromonitoring Associates, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the “Plan”) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021. Our audit was conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). This audit of the financial statements does not relieve Plan management or those charged with governance of their responsibilities. The term “those charged with governance” encompasses the term Board of Directors or Audit Committee or other formally designated body that has financial oversight responsibilities.

Status of Our Audit

- ▶ The objective of our financial statement audit was to obtain reasonable - not absolute - assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatements.
- ▶ The scope of the work performed was substantially the same as that described to you in our earlier Audit Planning communications.
- ▶ As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and as instructed by you, we have conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS) and have obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion. The audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). Accordingly, the objective of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.
- ▶ In accordance with professional standards, we have obtained a substantially complete Form 5500 and considered whether such information, or the manner of its presentation, was materially inconsistent with its presentation in the financial statements. Our responsibility also includes calling to management's attention any information that we believe is a material misstatement of fact. We have not identified any material inconsistencies or concluded there are any material misstatements of facts in the other information.
- ▶ All records and information requested were freely available for our inspection.
- ▶ Plan management's cooperation was excellent. We received full access to all information that we requested while performing our audit, and we acknowledge the full cooperation extended to us by all levels of Plan personnel throughout the course of our work.

Results of our Audit

RESULTS OF OUR AUDIT

Accounting Practices, Policies, and Estimates

The following summarizes the more significant required communications related to our audit concerning the Plan's accounting practices, policies, and estimates:

The Plan's significant accounting practices and policies are those included in the notes to the financial statements. These accounting practices and policies are appropriate, comply with generally accepted accounting principles and industry practice, were consistently applied, and are adequately described within the notes to the financial statements.

- ▶ A summary of recently issued accounting pronouncements is included in Note 2 to the Plan's financial statements.
- ▶ There were no changes in significant accounting policies and practices during 2021.

Significant estimates are those that require management's most difficult, subjective, or complex judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effects of matters that are inherently uncertain. The Plan's significant accounting estimates, including a description of management's processes and significant assumptions used in development of the estimates, are disclosed in Note 2 of the financial statements.

- ▶ Plan management did not make any significant changes to the processes or significant assumptions used to develop the critical accounting estimates in 2021.

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

We are required to communicate, in writing and in a timely manner, to those charged with governance all reportable findings and all material weaknesses and significant deficiencies that have been identified in the Plan's internal control over financial reporting. The definitions of a reportable finding, control deficiency, significant deficiency and material weakness are as follows:

Category	Definition
Reportable Finding	Matters that are one or more of the following: a. An identified instance of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws or regulations b. A finding arising from the audit that is, in the auditor's professional judgment, significant and relevant to those charged with governance regarding their responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process c. An indication of deficiencies in internal control identified during the audit that have not been communicated to management by other parties and that, in the auditor's professional judgment, are of sufficient importance to merit management's attention
Deficiency in Internal Control	A deficiency in internal control over financial reporting exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect misstatements on a timely basis.
Significant Deficiency	A deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.
Material Weakness	A deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the financial statements will not be prevented or detected on a timely basis.

A reportable finding may also be considered a deficiency in internal control, a significant deficiency or a material weakness.

We considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration was for the limited purpose described above and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses and/or all reportable findings.

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Over Financial Reporting

In conjunction with our audit of the Plan financial statements, we noted no material weaknesses.

► The following significant deficiency was identified, which was also considered to be reportable finding:

Significant Deficiency and Reportable Findings	Comments
Lack of reconciliation process between the census data and payroll register (repeat finding)	During our audit, we noted that there is no reconciliation process between the census date and the payroll register. The census data is used for certain compliance testing that is critical to the plan. We recommend that a reconciliation process between the census data and payroll register be made to ensure completeness of compensation, 401(k) withholding and employer contribution amounts utilized in the performance of the annual compliance testing.

- ▶ We have communicated to Plan management control deficiencies, which we also considered to be reportable findings and provided suggestions for improvement of those deficiencies that were identified as a result of our audit that we did not consider to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies.

Deficiencies and Reportable Findings	Comments
Lack of SOC-1 report review (repeat finding)	During our audit, we noted The Plan relies heavily on Decimal, Inc. doing business as Ubiquity Retirement + Savings (“Ubiquity” or the “Recordkeeper”) for internal control matters involving the processing of transactions of the Plan. Plan management did not obtain and review the SOC-1 report of Ubiquity. The Plan management has a fiduciary duty to monitor Plan service provider and to ensure that Plan data is secured and properly recorded and that transactions are processed according to the plan’s provisions. The SOC-1 report helps to fulfill this duty. In addition, should there be any service provider issues (noted as qualifications or exceptions reported within the SOC 1 reports), the Plan management should be aware of these issues and take the necessary steps to address them. SOC-1 report also discusses controls that service provider expects to be in place at the plan sponsor. These user entity controls are an integral part of the overall controls surrounding the Plan. Without proper monitoring of the SOC-1 report, Plan management may not be aware of additional needed controls. Due to the level of this reliance, we recommend that Plan management obtain the SOC-1 report of the Recordkeeper and verify that the required complementary controls are in place.
No written formal minutes of meeting (repeat finding)	During the course of the audit, we noted that Plan management did not keep minutes of discussions regarding the Plan. Such minutes are a way to document the performance of fiduciary responsibilities on the part of management. We recommend that the Plan Committee engage in regularly scheduled meetings to discuss the operations of the Plan and document such matters in a formal setting. Alternatively, such discussions could be documented as part of the board meeting minutes of the Plan Sponsor.
