Section I - Internal Control Related Matters Identified in an Audit

In planning and performing our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of the financial statements of Martinrea Heavy Stampings Inc. Shelbyville Retirement Savings Plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2021, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) other than those controls over investments and related investment activity. Our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit was performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America except, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, we did not perform any auditing procedures with respect to certified investment information except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We considered internal control as a basis for designing our procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses, and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiency in the Plan's internal control to be a significant deficiency:

Timely Deposit of Employee Deferrals

Controls over compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA did not ensure the timely deposit of employee contributions, as required by the DOL. As a result, the net assets of the Plan could be understated for those contributions and related lost earnings, and the Plan would be out of compliance with DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

A DOL regulation requires that benefit plans remit employee contributions to the plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets. In no case can this amount of time exceed 15 business days after the end of the month in which the amounts were withheld. The 15-business-day rule, however, is not a safe harbor. The general rule has been interpreted as being as little as zero days for entities with more than 100 employees. The DOL also looks at the consistency of timing and holds employers to a deposit standard, which is the employer's historically fewest number of days to actually deposit employee contributions, when determining if contributions are timely.

Section I - Internal Control Related Matters Identified in an Audit (Continued)

During the 2015, 2019, 2020, and 2021 plan years, there were participant contributions that were remitted to the Plan later than the guidelines specified by the DOL. During our testing of contributions in current and prior years, we noted that the principal balances of the late 2015, 2019, 2020, and 2021 contributions have been remitted to the Plan as of the date of this letter. However, as disclosed in the schedule of delinquent participant contributions, lost earnings on late contributions from some of these years had not been contributed, and failure to remit principal and lost earnings requires continued reporting on the schedule of delinquent participant contributions as uncorrected. The consequences of the failure to remit lost earnings are that the Plan is out of compliance with DOL rules and regulations, and the net assets of the Plan are understated by the amount of the lost earnings. Additionally, it may increase the likelihood of audit or examination by regulatory authorities. We recommend management of the Plan continue to review its procedures and controls related to participant contributions to ensure all contributions are remitted to the Plan in accordance with DOL guidelines. These procedures may include a detailed reconciliation and review between the payroll reports and the plan statements for each location and a reconciliation of each payroll period and the plan year in total.

The following deficiency in internal control was also identified during our audit and, in our professional judgment, is of sufficient importance to merit management's attention:

Service Provider SOC-1 Report Review

During our audit, we noted plan sponsor staff do not perform a timely and effective review the SOC-1 reports for the third-party service providers. SOC-1 reports are issued by the independent auditors of the service providers and address the service providers' own internal control policies and procedures. The SOC-1 reports issued by the auditors typically note whether key internal control structure policies and procedures are suitably designed to achieve specified control objectives. Deficiencies, if any, are disclosed in the SOC-1 reports. By reviewing the SOC-1 reports, plan management can determine that the control objectives and associated control policies and procedures were tested for operating effectiveness at the service providers.

The plan sponsor places a great deal of reliance on the controls of its third-party vendors and, therefore, is required to monitor these third-party providers. We recommend that the plan sponsor review the SOC-1 reports on an annual basis to ensure that the applicable controls are operating effectively. We recommend that the plan sponsor follow up on any exceptions to control testing to determine if there has been any impact on the Plan. Furthermore, we recommend the plan sponsor ensure the applicable user controls identified in the SOC-1 reports are in place at the plan sponsor. The impact of not reviewing the SOC-1 reports is that the Plan's controls may not be appropriately adjusted to address controls not in place or not effective at the service providers; thus, controls may not be in place to detect or prevent material misstatements.

Section II - Required Communications with Those Charged with Governance

Our Responsibility Under U.S. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards

As stated in our engagement letter dated July 5, 2022, we conducted our audit in accordance with professional standards except that, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and as instructed by you, we did not perform any auditing procedures with respect to certified investment information except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). The amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, were audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP. The form and content of the supplemental schedules, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, were subjected to tests of your accounting records and other procedures as we considered necessary to enable us to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities. As part of our audit, we considered the applicable internal controls of the Plan. Such considerations were solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

We are responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures specifically to identify such matters.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We performed the audit according to the planned scope and timing previously communicated to you in our meeting about planning matters on July 20, 2022.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted, and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2021.

We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

We noted no significant transactions that have been recognized in the financial statements in a different period than when the transaction occurred.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was the Plan's valuation of investments.

Management has informed us that, in determining the appropriateness of the estimate of investment values, they have recorded the fair values based on market values provided by the investment custodian, plus any applicable valuation adjustments. We performed no specific procedures related to the valuation of the investments due to the scope and nature of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit.

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in performing and completing our audit.

Disagreements with Management

For the purpose of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report.

We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. We did not detect any misstatements as a result of audit procedures.

Significant Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards and plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement, with management each year prior to our retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship, and our responses were not a condition of our retention.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated October 12, 2022.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a second opinion on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Form 5500 - Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan

Our responsibility for Form 5500 does not extend beyond the financial statements, and we do not express an opinion or any form of assurance on Form 5500. However, we read the Plan's Form 5500 filing, and nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information or manner of its presentation appearing in the financial statements.

Schedule C Soft Dollar Compensation Eligible Indirect Compensation (“EIC”) Statement

Mutual fund investments with a retirement plan (whether held directly or indirectly through a separate investment account) can have soft dollar arrangements pursuant to which the investment advisor or sub-advisor of the mutual fund (and/or its affiliates) may direct trades to certain brokers in exchange for research and other services. The Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 contains guidance regarding the use of soft dollar arrangements.

For plans that invest directly or indirectly in the MassMutual Funds, soft dollar compensation is disclosed on the Schedule C and the Schedule C Formula Description and/or EIC Statement Description Attachment. For all other mutual funds, a Schedule C Soft Dollar Compensation Disclosure Attachment is provided and should be filed along with the Form 5500.

For additional information regarding soft dollar compensation, refer to the respective mutual fund’s Statement of Additional Information (“SAI”) for details regarding brokerage allocation and other practices.
