The company was not aware of the stub period filing requirement or timing, or that it could have delayed the filing of its (timely) 2021 audit until the stub period filing deadline. Principal had filed for an extension of the stub period filing deadline without notifying the company since it is done automatically. As soon as the company realized the timing around the filing requirement in early December 2022, it proceeded to engage Grant Thornton as the auditor, which will work as quickly as possible to complete and submit the relevant audit.
