To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to request a waiver of any potential penalties to my organization (EIN 61-1328305) for the late submission of our 2021 Form 5500 due to the following circumstances.

In the summer of 2022, our company was forced to downsize because of financial losses stemming from less work during the pandemic. We had to dismiss our Director of Finance at that time, who had been the one responsible for all matters regarding our employees' 401(K) pension plans. I was asked to take over those responsibilities. I do not have any experience in Human Resources or Finance, but I have been working diligently to learn.

During this transition, I encountered a lot of difficulty setting up my access as the administrator of our pension account with Principal Financial. It took at least two months to finally get access and even longer to schedule time with someone to walk me through the website and explain my responsibilities. I did not learn about the requirement to review and file form 5500 until January 6, 2023. As soon as I learned about it, I created the eFast account and submitted our form.

For these reasons, I am requesting that any penalties for late filing be waived this one time for our organization due to the staffing changes and difficulties getting access to information. If you need additional information, please contact me at the phone number below or at seddleman@ctlonline.org.

I appreciate your consideration of my request.

Sincerely,
