Statement of Reasonable Cause for Omission of Independent Auditor's Opinion

The purpose of this document is to explain why no Auditor's Opinion (as described in Part III of Schedule H) is attached to this Form 5500 Return. The experience of my ERISA counsel has been that the Office of the Chief Accountant does not take enforcement action for the absence of an attached Auditor's Opinion under certain limited circumstances which he believes are present here. Immediately below are our facts.

1. On October 8, 2019, the bankruptcy application of the employer sponsoring this plan was filed under Chapter 11 in the United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of Texas (Case No. 19-20497). On May 29, 2021 the chapter 11 case was converted to Chapter 7. I, Christopher Murray was appointed as trustee and incurred obligations to this retirement plan in connection with that appointment.
2. Custody services for these plan assets are provided by Transamerica Life Insurance Company. My ERISA counsel reviewed the transaction histories and other financial information and represents to me they appear to be in good order. That said, neither of us have personal knowledge of any plan related transactions.
3. I don't have reasonable access to the data that the independent auditor would need to audit the plan.
4. All assets have been distributed to participants.

For these reasons, I respectfully submit that reasonable cause exists for a determination that no independent auditor's opinion need be attached to this Form 5500 Return.

Attachment to Form 5500 Submission

On October 8, 2019, the bankruptcy application of the employer sponsoring this plan was filed under Chapter 11 in the United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of Texas (Case No. 19-20497). On May 29, 2021 the chapter 11 case was converted to Chapter 7. Christopher Murray was appointed as trustee and incurred obligations to this benefit plan in connection with that appointment.

The information used to prepare the return was based on records obtained by special counsel for Mr. Murray and he believes them to be accurate. However, there may be relevant records or transactions of which he and special counsel are not aware.
