Auditors:

We are providing this letter in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of CO-OP 401(k) PLAN (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of September 30, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedule is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have elected for you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by American United Life Insurance Company, the trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated December 12, 2022, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and note disclosures.
- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedules referred to above is fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- We acknowledge our election to have an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect our responsibility for the financial statements and for determining the following:
 - The circumstances permit an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit.
 - A qualified institution has prepared and certified the investment information as described in 29 CFR 2520.103-8.
 - The certification meets the 29 CFR 2520.103-5 requirements.
 - The certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with GAAP.
- Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. In regard to such estimates, management represents:
 - The process used to determine estimates are appropriate and consistent,
 - The assumptions appropriately reflect our intent and ability to carry out specific courses of action,
 - The disclosures relating to estimates are complete and appropriate, and
 - No subsequent events have occurred that would require adjustment to the estimates or related financial disclosures.
- Related-party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- We are responsible for adjusting the financials to correct material misstatements, and we affirm the effects of the uncorrected misstatements summarized in the attached schedule are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in accordance with GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- Other matters (e.g. break of fiduciary responsibilities, non-exempt transactions, loans or leases in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status), if any, that legal counsel has advised us that must be disclosed have been properly disclosed.
- Significant estimates and material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with GAAP.
- Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- The supplemental schedules or financial statements disclose the following:
 - All non-exempt party-in-interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder).
 - Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.
 - Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations thereunder).

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
 - All minutes of the meetings of all relevant boards and committees or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes were not yet prepared.
 - All communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices.
 - Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.
 - A substantially complete draft of Form 5500.
 - Additional information you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
 - Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
 - Current Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including those amendments to comply with applicable laws.
- All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements. There were no significant accounting system or control breakdowns during the audit period, and no accounting data was lost.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting that affects the Plan and involves:
 - Management,
 - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
 - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions, including any side agreements.
- The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have no—
 - Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
 - Intentions to terminate the Plan.
- Amendments to the Plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

- The Plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, include the release of unallocated shares held in ESOP plans.
- The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments, including non-readily marketable securities, are as follows: quoted market prices for active markets and quoted market prices for non-active inputs. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- All required amendments to and filings of Plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The Plan is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan. The Plan Sponsor has operated the Plan in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required non-discrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.
- The Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
- The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.
- We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
- We have obtained the service auditor's report from our service organization American United Life Insurance Company (TPA). We have reviewed such report, including the complementary user controls. We have implemented the relevant user controls, and they were in operation for the year ended September 30, 2022.
- We acknowledge administrative expenses paid by the Plan sponsor on behalf of the Plan will not be reimbursed by the Plan.
- We acknowledge that you have reported to us in a separate management letter significant deficiencies and/or material weaknesses in our internal control system.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the Assets Held at End of Year, in accordance with GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and we believe the Assets Held at End of Year, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule have not changed from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedules.
- We understand that you prepared the trial balance for use during the audit and that your preparation of the trial balance was limited to formatting the information in our general ledger into a working trial balance. We agree with the classifications of the trial balance that were utilized in the financial statement preparation (see attached).

In addition, you prepared the adjusting journal entries necessary to ensure the financial statements are not materially misstated, and we acknowledge that we have reviewed and approved those entries and accepted responsibility for them (see attached). We are in agreement with those adjustments, and they will be recorded in our records.

Also, as part of your audit, you assisted with preparation of the draft financial statements and related notes from the trial balance. No other non-attest services are performed. We acknowledge our responsibility as it relates to these non-attest services, including that we assume all management responsibilities; oversee the services by designating an individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the services; evaluate the adequacy and results of the services performed; accept responsibility for the results of the services; and ensure that the Plan's data and records are complete and receive sufficient information to oversee the services. We have reviewed, approved, and accepted responsibility for those financial statements and related notes and believe they are adequately supported by the books and records of the Plan.

Sincerely,

CO-OP 401(k) PLAN
