RE: Engagement Letter for 401(k) Audit Services

Dear Anne:

We are pleased to confirm our understanding of the services we are to provide for Marsh Electronics, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust ("the Plan") for the year ended December 31, 2022 in connection with its annual reporting obligation under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Audit Scope and Objectives

Except as described below, we will audit the financial statements of Marsh Electronics, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit]. The financial statements comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of the year ended December 31, 2022, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and the disclosures (collectively, the "financial statements"). We will also report on the supplemental schedules of the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2022. The following supplementary information accompanying the financial statements, as applicable, will be subjected to the auditing procedures applied in our audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures:

- 1) Assets (Held at End of Year) and Assets (Acquired and Disposed of Within Year).
- 2) Loans or Fixed Income Obligations in Default or Classified as Uncollectible.
- 3) Reportable Transactions.
- 4) Nonexempt Transactions.
- 5) Delinquent Participant Contributions.

These financial statements and supplemental schedules are required to be included in the Plan's Form 5500 filing with the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) of the Department of Labor (DOL).

Except as described in the following paragraph, the objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion about whether your financial statements are fairly presented, in all material respects, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements, including omissions, can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment of a reasonable user made based on the financial statements.

You have determined it is permissible in the circumstances and elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Principal Financial Group, the trustee, which is a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 20 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit will not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described above, we will conduct our audit in accordance with GAAS and will include tests of your accounting records and other procedures we consider necessary, except that assets and related transactions certified by the trustee will not be tested. As part of an audit in accordance with GAAS, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

We will evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management. We will also evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and determine whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation. We will plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement, whether from (1) errors, (2) fraudulent financial reporting, (3) misappropriation of assets, or (4) violations of laws or governmental regulations, including prohibited transactions with parties in interest or other violations of ERISA rules and regulations, that are attributable to the Plan or to acts by management or employees acting on behalf of the Plan.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, combined with the inherent limitations of internal control, and because we will not perform a detailed examination of all transactions, there is an unavoidable risk that some material misstatements may not be detected by us, even though the audit is properly planned and performed in accordance with GAAS, except as previously noted. In addition, an audit is not designed to detect immaterial misstatements or violations of laws or governmental regulations that do not have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. However, we will inform the appropriate level of management of any material errors, fraudulent financial reporting, or misappropriation of assets that comes to our attention. We will also inform the appropriate level of management of any violations of laws or governmental regulations that come to our attention, unless clearly inconsequential and will include prohibited transactions in the supplemental schedule of nonexempt transactions as required by the instructions to Form 5500. Our responsibility as auditors is limited to the period covered by our audit and does not extend to any later periods for which we are not engaged as auditors.

We will obtain an understanding of the Plan and its environment, including internal control relevant to the audit, sufficient to identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to error or fraud, and to design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks and obtain evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentation, or the override of internal control. An audit is not designed to provide assurance on internal control or to identify deficiencies in internal control. Accordingly, we will express no such opinion. However, during the audit, we will communicate to you and those charged with governance internal control related matters that are required to be communicated under professional standards.

We have identified the following significant risks of material misstatement as part of our audit planning:

- 1) Improper revenue recognition due to fraud as it relates to timeliness of payments.
- 2) Management override of controls.

We will also conclude, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our procedures will include tests of documentary evidence supporting the transactions recorded in the accounts and direct confirmation of investments except those certified to by the trustee, and certain other assets and liabilities by correspondence with financial institutions and other third parties. We will also request written representations from your attorneys as part of the engagement.

We may, from time to time and depending on the circumstances, use third-party service providers in serving your account. We may share confidential information about you with these service providers but remain committed to maintaining the confidentiality and security of your information. Accordingly, we maintain internal policies, procedures, and safeguards to protect the confidentiality of your personal information. In addition, we will secure confidentiality agreements with all service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and we will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized release of your confidential information to others. In the event that we are unable to secure an appropriate confidentiality agreement, you will be asked to provide your consent prior to the sharing of your confidential information with the third-party service provider. Furthermore, we will remain responsible for the work provided by any such third-party service providers.

In addition, we will perform certain procedures directed at considering the Plan's compliance with applicable Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requirements for tax exempt status and ERISA plan qualification requirements. However, you should understand that our audit is not specifically designed for and should not be relied upon to disclose matters affecting plan qualifications or compliance with the ERISA and IRS requirements. If during the audit we become aware of any instances of any such matters or ways in which management practices can be improved, we will communicate them to you.

Other Services

We will assist in preparing the financial statements of the Plan in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles based on information provided by you. Additionally, we will authorize the Plan to include our auditor's report on the financial statements and supplemental schedules with the Plan's Form 5500 filing.

We will perform the services in accordance with applicable professional standards, including the Statements on Standards for Tax Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The other services are limited to the financial statement. We, in our sole professional judgment, reserve the right to refuse to perform any procedure or take any action that could be construed as assuming management responsibilities. We will advise management with regard to the preparation of the Form 5500, but management must make all decisions with regard to those matters.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Our audit will be conducted on the basis that you acknowledge and understand your responsibility for designing, implementing, and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, including monitoring ongoing activities; for the selection and application of accounting principles; for establishing an accounting and financial reporting process for determining appropriate value measurements; and for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. You are also responsible for making drafts of financial statements, all financial records, and related information available to us and for the accuracy and completeness of that information (including information from outside of the general and subsidiary ledgers). You are also responsible for providing us with (1) access to all information of which you are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, identification of all related parties and all related-party relationships and transactions, and other matters; (2) additional information that we may request for the purpose of the audit; and (3) unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom we determine it necessary to obtain audit evidence. You are also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; and for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants. You are also responsible for determining whether (1) an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances; (2) the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described in 29 CFR 2520.103-8; (3) the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5; and (4) the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework. You are also responsible for providing to us, prior to the dating of our report, a draft of the Plan's Form 5500 that is substantially complete. At the conclusion of our audit, we will require certain written representations from you about the financial statements and related matters.

Your responsibilities include adjusting the financial statements to correct material misstatements and confirming to us in the management representation letter that the effects of any uncorrected misstatements aggregated by us during the current engagement and pertaining to the latest period presented are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

You are responsible for the design and implementation of programs and controls to prevent and detect fraud, and for informing us about all known or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving (1) Plan management, (2) employees who have significant roles in internal control, and (3) others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements. Your responsibilities include informing us of your knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan received in communications from employees, former employees, regulators, or others. In addition, you are responsible for identifying and ensuring that the Plan complies with applicable laws and regulations. You are responsible for the fair presentation of the supplemental schedules and the form and content of the supplemental schedules in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. You agree to include our report on the supplementary information in any document that contains, and indicates that we have reported on, the supplementary information. You also agree to include the audited financial statements with any presentation of the supplementary information that includes our report thereon.

You agree to assume all management responsibilities for any nonattest services we provide; oversee the services by designating an individual, preferably from senior management, with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience; evaluate the adequacy and results of the services; and accept responsibility for them.

Engagement Administration, Fees, and Other

We understand that your personnel will prepare schedules, analyses, and all confirmations we request and will locate any invoices or other documents selected by us for testing. We will schedule the engagement based in part on deadlines, working conditions, and the availability of your key personnel. We will plan the engagement based on the assumption that your personnel will cooperate and provide assistance by performing tasks such as preparing requested schedules, retrieving supporting documents, and preparing confirmations. If, for whatever reason, your personnel are unavailable to provide the necessary assistance in a timely manner, it may substantially increase the work we have to do to complete the engagement within the established deadlines, resulting in an increase in fees over our original fee estimate.

The audit documentation for this engagement is the property of Quandt Berndt & Company, LLC and constitutes confidential information. However, we may be requested to make certain audit documentation available to the U.S. Department of Labor pursuant to authority given to it by law. If requested, access to such audit documentation will be provided under the supervision of Quandt Berndt & Company, LLC personnel. Furthermore, upon request, we may provide copies of selected audit documentation to the U.S. Department of Labor. The U.S. Department of Labor may intend, or decide, to distribute the copies of information contained therein to others, including other governmental agencies.

John Himmelspace is the engagement partner and is responsible for supervising the engagement and signing the report or authorizing another individual to sign it. We expect to begin our audit on approximately May 24, 2023 and to issue our report no later than October 15, 2023. As you have instructed, our engagement does not include preparation of the Plan's Form 5500.

We estimate that our fees for the audit and other services other than the preparation of the Form 5500 is estimated at $9,900. We will bill you for out-of-pocket and engagement related expenses including allocated audit software charges. These expenses are estimated not to exceed $500. The fee estimate is based on anticipated cooperation from your personnel and the assumption that unexpected circumstances will not be encountered during the engagement. If significant additional time is necessary, we will discuss it with you and arrive at a new fee estimate before we incur the additional costs. Our invoices for these fees will be rendered each month as work progresses and are payable on presentation. In accordance with our firm policies, work may be suspended if your account becomes 30 days or more overdue and will not be resumed until your account is paid in full. A finance charge of 1.5% per month will be imposed on accounts not paid within 30 days from the date of our invoice.

If we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination even if we have not completed our report. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended and to reimburse us for all out-of-pocket expenditures through the date of termination.

Reporting

We will issue a written report upon completion of our audit of the Plan's financial statements. Our report will be addressed to the Administrative Committee of the Plan. Circumstances may arise in which our report may differ from its expected form and content based on the results of our audit. Depending on the nature of these circumstances, it may be necessary for us to further modify our report or add an emphasis-of-matter or other-matter paragraph to our auditor's report, or if necessary, withdraw from this engagement. If our report will include other modifications, we will discuss the reasons with you in advance. If, for any reason, we are unable to complete the engagement, we may decline to issue a report or withdraw from this engagement.

Our relationship with you is limited to that described in this letter. As such, you understand and agree that we are acting solely as independent accountants. We are not acting in any way as a fiduciary or assuming any fiduciary responsibilities for you. We are not responsible for the preparation of any report to any governmental agency, or any other form, return, or report or for providing advice or any other service not specifically recited in this letter.

You may request that we perform additional services not addressed in this engagement letter. If this occurs, we will communicate with you regarding the scope of the additional services and the estimated fees. We, also, may issue a separate engagement letter covering the additional services. In the absence of any other written communication from us documenting such additional services, our services will continue to be governed by the terms of this engagement letter. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to the Plan and believe this letter accurately summarizes the significant terms of our engagement. If you have any questions, please let us know. If you agree with the terms of our engagement as described in this letter, please sign the enclosed copy and return it to us.

Sincerely,

Quandt Berndt & Company, LLC

QUANDT, BERNDT & COMPANY (QBCo) ENGAGEMENT TERMS

These Engagement Terms ("Terms") and the engagement letter to which they are attached (collectively, the "Agreement") constitute the entire agreement between the client to whom such engagement letter is addressed (the "Client") and any other legal entities referred to therein and Quandt Berndt & Company, LLC ("QBCo," "we," "us", "our"), regarding the services described in the engagement letter and supersede and incorporate all prior or contemporaneous representations, understandings or agreements, and may not be modified or amended except by an agreement in writing signed between the parties hereto. If there is a conflict between these terms and the Terms of any Engagement Letter, these Terms shall govern.

1. Responsibilities of Client

- a. To ensure an effective and efficient engagement, Client agrees to provide QBCo with all information requested, in a timely manner, and to provide any reasonable assistance as may be required to properly perform the engagement. In performing services under this Agreement, QBCo will rely upon Client personnel for the accuracy and completeness of its records and all other information supplied to us, without independent investigation or verification. Inaccuracy, incompleteness or tardiness in the delivery of information to QBCo could have a material effect on our services and the fee for our services.
- b. US Treasury Regulations require taxpayers to disclose any tax strategy or transaction that the IRS identifies as: 1) a Listed Transaction; 2) substantially similar to a Listed Transaction; or 3) any other Reportable Transaction. In addition, certain states have similar disclosure requirements. Noncompliance with these rules may result in significant penalties. Client agrees to inform QBCo of participation in any such transactions.
- c. Client agrees to file, unaltered and with appropriate disclosure, the tax returns as prepared by QBCo. Client agrees that QBCo assumes no responsibility and has no liability for any returns altered by Client prior to filing with the taxing jurisdiction. Client is responsible for the timely filing of the returns QBCo prepares and agrees to inform us in writing of any failure to timely file the tax returns.
- d. Most tax returns require signatures, under penalty of perjury, by the taxpayer or an officer of the taxpayer affirming that the tax returns and the accompanying schedules and statements are true, correct, and complete to the best of his or her knowledge. Client is responsible for understanding and agreeing with the various amounts, computations, and statements made in the tax returns and accepts responsibility for the results of the tax services rendered. QBCo's services may include advice and recommendations, but all decisions in connection with the implementation of such advice and recommendations shall be the responsibility of, and made by, Client. QBCo will not perform any management functions or make management decisions for Client in connection with this engagement.
- e. Client is required to maintain and retain adequate documentation to support the tax returns as filed as penalties can be imposed by taxing authorities for the failure to produce adequate documentation supporting the items included in a tax return. QBCo has no responsibility or liability for Client's failure to maintain adequate documentation.
- f. Client agrees to pay all fees hereunder in accordance with the payment terms set forth in the Engagement Letter. Notwithstanding anything in the Engagement Letter or these Terms to the contrary, QBCo has the right to stop, suspend or terminate any or all work and/or services if Client does not timely pay any fees when due hereunder.

2. Responsibilities of QBCo

- a. QBCo's services under this Agreement are subject to and will be performed in accordance with Treasury Department Circular 230, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and other professional standards applicable to tax services. We disclaim all other warranties, either express or implied.
- b. QBCo will perform these services on the basis of the information you have provided and in consideration of the applicable tax laws, regulations and associated interpretations as of the date the services are provided. Tax laws and regulations and/or their interpretation are subject to change at any time, and such changes may be retroactive in effect and may be applicable to advice given or other services rendered before their effective dates. QBCo has no responsibility or liability for such changes occurring after the completion date of this engagement.
- c. Client acknowledges and agrees that any advice, recommendations, information or work product provided to Client by QBCo in connection with this engagement is for the sole use of Client and may not be relied upon by any third party. QBCo has no liability or responsibility to any third parties as a result of this engagement and Client agrees to indemnify QBCo accordingly (see Paragraph 3(b)).
- d. Tax returns and other filings are subject to examination by taxing authorities. QBCo will be available to assist Client in the event of an audit of any issue for which QBCo has provided services under this Agreement. Fees for these additional services will be communicated in a separate engagement letter.

QUANDT, BERNDT & COMPANY (QBCo) ENGAGEMENT TERMS

- e. The services performed under this Agreement do not include the provision of legal advice and we make no representations regarding questions of legal interpretation. Client should consult with its attorneys with respect to any legal matters or items that require legal interpretation, under federal, state or other type of law or regulation.
- f. QBCo may utilize the services of independent contractors in providing services to Client. All such third parties are bound by the same confidentiality requirements as QBCo and its employees. Client hereby consents to disclosure of confidential information necessary to the provision of the related services.
- g. Nothing in this Agreement prevents QBCo from providing services to other clients.

3. Limitation on Damages and Indemnification

- a. The liability (including attorney's fees and ALL other costs) of QBCo and its current or former partners, principals, agents or employees related to any claim for damages relating to the services performed under this Agreement shall not exceed the fees paid to QBCo for the portion of the work to which the claim relates, except to the extent finally determined to have resulted from the willful misconduct or fraudulent behavior of QBCo relating to such services. This limitation of liability is intended to apply to the full extent allowed by law, regardless of the grounds or nature of any claim asserted, including the negligence of either party. Additionally, in no event shall QBCo be liable for consequential, special, indirect, incidental, punitive or exemplary damages, costs, expenses or losses (including, without limitation, lost profits and opportunity costs) arising out of or related to this Agreement even if a party has been advised of the possibility of such damages.
- b. Except to the extent finally determined to have resulted from the willful misconduct or fraudulent behavior of QBCo relating to such services, Client agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless QBCo from and against any and all liabilities incurred or suffered by or asserted against QBCo in connection with a third party claim to the extent resulting from such party's use or possession of or reliance upon QBCo's advice, recommendations, information or work product.
- c. The terms of this Section 3 shall apply regardless of the nature of any claim asserted (including, but not limited to, contract, tort, or any form of negligence, whether of Client, QBCo or others), but these terms shall not apply to the extent finally determined to be contrary to applicable law or regulation. These terms shall also continue to apply after any termination of this Agreement.
- d. Client accepts and acknowledges that any legal proceedings arising from or in connection with the services provided under this Agreement must be commenced within one year from the date the services were provided, without consideration as to the time of discovery of any claim. Notwithstanding the foregoing, claims for any fees due hereunder shall not be time restricted and may be brought by QBCo at any time.

4. Communications and Confidentiality

- a. Communications between QBCo and Client may be privileged and protected from disclosure to the IRS or other governmental authorities in certain circumstances. QBCo will not assert on Client's behalf any claim or privilege unless Client specifically instructs QBCo in writing to do so after discussing the specific request and the grounds on which such privilege claim would be made. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Client acknowledges that in no event will QBCo assert any claim of privilege that QBCo concludes is not valid. QBCo agrees to cooperate with Client in any effort to assert any privilege with respect to such information, provided Client agrees to hold QBCo harmless from and be responsible for any costs and expenses resulting from such assertion.
- b. QBCo may be required to disclose confidential information to federal, state and international regulatory bodies or a court in criminal or other civil litigation. In the event that we receive a request from a regulatory body (including a subpoena, summons or discovery demand in litigation) calling for the production of information, QBCo will promptly notify Client, unless otherwise prohibited. In the event QBCo is requested by the Client or required by government regulation, subpoena or other legal process to produce our engagement working papers or its personnel as witnesses with respect to services rendered to Client, so long as QBCo is not a party to the proceeding in which the information is sought, Client will reimburse QBCo for its professional time and expenses, as well as the fees and legal expenses, incurred in responding to such a request.
- c. QBCo may be required to disclose confidential information with respect to complying with certain professional obligations, such as peer review programs. All participants in such peer review programs are bound by the same confidentiality requirements as QBCo and its employees. QBCo will not be required to notify Client if disclosure of confidential information is necessary for peer review purposes. For purposes of clarification, QBCo shall not be restricted from sharing any information with the Client's Board or any owners of Client.
- d. QBCo may communicate electronically with Client or otherwise transmit documents in electronic form during the course of this engagement. Client accepts the inherent risks of electronic forms of communication and agrees that it may rely only upon a final hard copy version of a document or other communication that QBCo transmits to Client unless no such hard copy is transmitted by QBCo to Client.

5. Alternative Dispute Resolution

- a. In the unlikely event that differences concerning services or fees should arise that are not resolved by mutual agreement, both parties agree to attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") under its mediation rules for professional accounting and related services disputes before resorting to litigation or any other dispute-resolution procedure. Except as set forth herein, each party shall bear their own expenses from mediation.
- b. If mediation does not settle the dispute or claim, then the parties agree that the dispute or claim shall be settled by binding arbitration. The arbitration proceeding shall take place in the city in which the QBCo office providing the relevant services is located, unless the parties mutually agree to a different location. The proceeding shall be governed by the provisions of the Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA") and will proceed in accordance with the then current Arbitration Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Disputes of the AAA, except that no pre-hearing discovery shall be permitted unless specifically authorized by the arbitrator. The arbitrator will be selected from AAA, JAMS, the Center for Public Resources, or any other internationally or nationally-recognized organization mutually agreed upon by the parties. Potential arbitrator names will be exchanged within 15 days of the parties' agreement to settle the dispute or claim by binding arbitration, and arbitration will thereafter proceed expeditiously. The arbitration will be conducted before a single arbitrator, experienced in accounting and auditing matters. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award non-monetary or equitable relief and will not have the right to award punitive damages. The award of the arbitration shall be in writing and shall be accompanied by a well-reasoned opinion. The award issued by the arbitrator may be confirmed in a judgment by any federal or state court of competent jurisdiction. Except as set forth herein, each party shall be responsible for their own costs associated with the arbitration, except that the costs of the arbitrator shall be equally divided by the parties. The arbitration proceeding and all information disclosed during the arbitration shall be maintained as confidential, except as may be required for disclosure to professional or regulatory bodies or in a related confidential arbitration. In no event shall a demand for arbitration be made after the date when institution of legal or equitable proceedings based on such claim would be barred under the applicable statute of limitations.
- c. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Client shall reimburse QBCo for all costs (including attorneys' fees) incurred by QBCo in connection with the collection of any fees due hereunder.

6. Termination

- a. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon written notice to the other party. In the event of termination, Client will be responsible for fees earned and expenses incurred through the date termination notice is received.

7. Personnel

- a. During the term of this Agreement, and for a period of twelve (12) months following the expiration or termination thereof, neither party will hire nor actively solicit the employment of the personnel of the other party involved directly with providing services hereunder. Both parties acknowledge that the fee for hiring personnel from the other party, during this period will be a fee equal to the hired person's annual salary at the time of the violation so as to reimburse the party for the costs of hiring and training a replacement.

8. Other Matters; Governing Law

- a. Neither party shall be liable to the other for any delay or failure to perform any of the services or obligations set forth in this Agreement (other than payment obligations) due to causes beyond its reasonable control. The provisions of this Agreement, which expressly or by implication are intended to survive its termination or expiration, will survive and continue to bind both parties. If any provision of this Agreement is declared or found to be illegal, unenforceable or void, then both parties shall be relieved of all obligations arising under such provision, but if the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected by such declaration or finding and is capable of substantial performance, then each provision not so affected shall be enforced to the extent permitted by law.
- b. Neither this Agreement, any Engagement Letter, any claim, nor any rights or licenses granted hereunder may be assigned, delegated or subcontracted by either party without the written consent of the other party. Either party may assign and transfer this Agreement and any Engagement Letter to any successor that acquires all or substantially all of the business or assets of such party by way of merger, consolidation, other business reorganization, or the sale of interest or assets, provided that the party notifies the other party in writing of such assignment and the successor agrees in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- c. This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the state of Wisconsin, without giving effect to the provisions relating to conflict of laws.
