Provided to:

FORVIS, LLP

Certified Public Accountants
P.O Box 1190
Springfield, MO 65801-1190

The undersigned ("We") are providing this letter in connection with FORVIS' audits of the financial statements of Tempe Life Care Village, Inc. 403(b) Plan (the Plan) as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021, and supplemental schedule as of December 31, 2022.

Our representations are current and effective as of the date of FORVIS' report: July 25, 2023.

Our engagement with FORVIS is based on our contract for services dated: May 31, 2023.

Our Responsibility & Consideration of Material Matters

We confirm that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements subject to FORVIS' report in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and for the fair presentation of the accompanying supplemental schedule in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

We are also responsible for adopting sound accounting policies; establishing and maintaining effective internal control over financial reporting, operations, and compliance; and preventing and detecting fraud.

We elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audits did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

Confirmation of Matters Specific to the Subject Matter of FORVIS' Report

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, the following:

Broad Matters

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of our contract, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
2. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of:
 - a. Internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
 - b. Internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
3. We have provided you with:
 - a. Access to all information of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as financial records and related data, documentation, and other matters.
 - b. The most current Plan instrument for the audit period, including all Plan amendments.
 - c. A draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete.
 - d. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
 - e. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
 - f. All minutes of the Plan sponsor's board meetings and plan oversight committee meetings held through the date of this letter or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared. All unsigned copies of minutes provided to you are copies of our original minutes approved by the board, if applicable, and maintained as part of our records.
 - g. All significant contracts.
4. We acknowledge the Plan does not meet the definition of a "public entity" under generally accepted accounting principles.
5. We have responded fully and truthfully to all your inquiries.

Plan Design & Operations

6. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
7. The Plan and the trust established under the Plan are qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code, and we intend to continue them as a qualified Plan and trust. We do not have any intention at present to terminate the Plan. Required nondiscrimination testing under the appropriate Code Sections has been completed for the Plan, and any excess contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.
8. The Plan instrument has not been amended during the year.
9. The Plan operates under a nonstandardized adoption agreement in connection with a prototype 403(b) retirement plan document sponsored by Principal Life. This prototype plan document has obtained an opinion letter from the IRS stating that the prototype satisfies the requirements under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, we believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code and not subject to tax.
10. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
11. The Plan has made no investments during the year that violate the terms of the Plan or Trust Agreement.
12. We have reviewed the reports of all transactions processed by third-party servicers, and, based on our review, we believe the transactions shown in the reports are valid and in accordance with our instructions to the third-party processor. We also have had no communications from any of the Plan's service organizations regarding any fraud, noncompliance with laws and regulations, or uncorrected misstatements.
13. We have complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions and loan repayments.
14. As applicable, we have complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the services provider fee disclosures in accordance with Sec. 408(b)(2).
15. We understand the values of the assets and liabilities recorded in the financial statements could change rapidly, resulting in material future adjustments to investment values that could negatively impact the Plan. We acknowledge that you have no responsibility for future changes caused by the current economic environment and the resulting impact on the Plan's financial statements. Further, the Plan Sponsor is solely responsible for all aspects of managing the Plan, including questioning the quality and valuation of investments.
16. Tempe Life Care Village, Inc. d/b/a Friendship Village of Tempe is an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any activities of the organization or any related entities of which we are aware that would jeopardize the organization's tax-exempt status have been disclosed to you.
17. To the best of our knowledge and belief, the net assets available for plan benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 represent all assets relevant to the Plan and there are no assets that have been improperly excluded.

Misappropriation, Misstatements, & Fraud

18. We have informed you of all current risks of a material amount that are not adequately prevented or detected by our procedures with respect to:
- a. Misappropriation of assets.
 - b. Misrepresented or misstated assets or liabilities.
19. We have no knowledge of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving:
- a. Management or employees who have significant roles in internal control over financial reporting, or
 - b. Others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
20. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan received in communications from participants, former participants, regulators, third-party servicers or others.
21. We have assessed the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud and disclosed to you any such risk identified.

Related Parties & Parties-In-Interest

22. We have disclosed to you the identity of all of the Plan's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships of which we are aware.

In addition, we have disclosed to you all related-party transactions and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties of which we are aware, including:

any modifications during the year that were made to related-party transaction agreements which existed prior to the beginning of the year under audit, as well as new related-party transaction agreements that were executed during the year under audit.

Related-party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

23. We understand that the term related party refers to:
- Affiliates.
 - Entities for which investments are accounted for by the equity method.
 - Trusts for the benefits of employees, such as pension and profit-sharing trusts that are managed by or under the trusteeship of management.
 - Principal owners and members of their immediate families.
 - Management and members of their immediate families.
 - Any other party with which the Plan may deal if one party can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests.

Another party is also a related party if it can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the transacting parties or if it has an ownership interest in one of the transacting parties and can significantly influence the other to an extent that one or more of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests.

The term affiliate refers to a party that directly or indirectly controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Plan.

Litigation, Laws, Rulings, & Regulations

24. Neither the Plan nor the Plan Sponsor are aware of any pending or threatened litigation or claims whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements. Neither the Plan nor the Plan Sponsor have not sought or received attorney's services related to pending or threatened litigation or claims during or subsequent to the audit period. Also, we are not aware of any litigation or claims, pending or threatened, for which legal counsel should be sought.
25. We have no knowledge of communications, other than those specifically disclosed, from regulatory agencies, governmental representatives, employees, or others concerning investigations or allegations of noncompliance with laws and regulations, deficiencies in financial reporting practices, or other matters that could have a material adverse effect on the financial statements.
26. We have disclosed to you all known instances of violations or noncompliance or possible violations or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements or as a basis for recording a loss contingency.
27. We have apprised you of all communications, written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

Nonattest Services

28. You have provided nonattest services, including the following, during the period of this engagement:
 - Preparing a draft of the financial statements, related notes and supplementary information.
29. With respect to these services:
 - a. We have designated a qualified management-level individual to be responsible and accountable for overseeing the nonattest services.
 - b. We have established and monitored the performance of the nonattest services to ensure they meet our objectives.
 - c. We have made any and all decisions involving management functions with respect to the nonattest services and accept full responsibility for such decisions.
 - d. We have evaluated the adequacy of the services performed and any findings that resulted.
 - e. Established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.

- f. We have received the deliverables from you and have stored these deliverables in information systems controlled by us. We have taken responsibility for maintaining internal control over these deliverables.

Financial Statements & Reports

30. We have reviewed and approved a draft of the financial statements and related notes referred to above, which you prepared in connection with your audit of our financial statements. We acknowledge that we are responsible for the fair presentation of the financial statements and related notes.

31. With regard to supplementary information:

- a. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the supplementary information, including its form and content in conformity with relevant regulatory requirements or other applicable criteria.
- b. We believe the supplementary information is fairly presented, both in form and content, in accordance with relevant regulatory requirements or other applicable criteria, in material respects.
- c. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplementary information are unchanged from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplementary information.
- d. We believe the significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and/or presentation of the supplementary information are reasonable and appropriate.
- e. The supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Transactions, Records, & Adjustments

32. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

33. We have everything we need to keep our books and records.

34. We have disclosed any significant unusual transactions the Plan has entered into during the period, including the nature, terms, and business purpose of those transactions.

Accounting & Disclosure

35. We are not aware of any side agreements or other arrangements (either written or oral) that are in place.

36. Except as reflected in the financial statements, there are no:

- a. Plans or intentions that may materially affect carrying values of assets, liabilities, or net assets.
- b. Material transactions omitted or improperly recorded in the financial records.

Tempe Life Care Village, Inc. 403(b) Plan

- c. Material unasserted claims or assessments that are probable of assertion or other gain/loss contingencies requiring accrual or disclosure in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 450, Contingencies, including those arising from environmental remediation obligations.
- d. Events occurring subsequent to the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits through the date of this letter, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, requiring adjustment or disclosure in the financial statements.
- e. Reportable transactions as defined in Section 103(b)(3)(H) of ERISA.

37. Except as disclosed in the financial statements, the Plan has:

- a. Satisfactory title to all recorded assets, and those assets are not subject to any liens, pledges, or other encumbrances.
- b. Complied with all aspects of contractual agreements, for which noncompliance would materially affect the financial statements.

Receivables

38. Adequate allowances have been accrued for any material losses from uncollectible receivables, if any.

Estimates

- 39. We have identified all accounting estimates that could be material to the financial statements, and we confirm the appropriateness of the methods and the consistency in their application, the accuracy and completeness of data, and the reasonableness of significant assumptions used by the Plan in making the accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value reported in the financial statements.
- 40. Significant estimates that may be subject to a material change in the near term have been properly disclosed in the financial statements. We understand that "near term" means the period within one year of the date of the financial statements. In addition, we have no knowledge of concentrations, which refer to volumes of loans, investments, or deposits, existing at the date of the financial statements that would make the Plan vulnerable to the risk of severe impact in the near term that have not been properly disclosed in the financial statements.

Fair Value

41. With respect to the fair value measurements of financial assets recognized in the financial statements or disclosed in the notes thereto:

- a. The underlying assumptions are reasonable and they appropriately reflect management's intent and ability to carry out its stated course of action.
- b. The measurement methods and significant assumptions used in determining fair value are appropriate in the circumstances for financial statement measurement and disclosure purposes and have been consistently applied.
- c. The significant assumptions appropriately reflect market participant assumptions.
- d. The disclosures related to fair values are complete, adequate, and in conformity with U.S. GAAP.

Tempe Life Care Village, Inc. 403(b) Plan

- e. There are no subsequent events that require adjustments to the fair value measurements and disclosures included in the financial statements.

Investments

42. Equity securities are properly measured at fair value, or for those investments without a readily determinable fair value, the investments are recorded using the net asset value (NAV) per share.
