Dear Sirs:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Environamics, Inc. 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, and the disclosures (collectively, the "financial statements"), for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedule is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have elected for you to not perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared by Principal Life Insurance Company, Principal Global Investors Trust Company and Principal Trust Company, the custodians, and certified by Principal Life Insurance Company, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by Principal Life Insurance Company, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgement of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief as of August 5, 2023, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated May 17, 2023, including our responsibility for the fair presentation of the financial statements.
2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule is fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

3. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
5. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
6. The methods, significant assumptions, and data used in making accounting estimates and their related disclosures are appropriate to achieve recognition, measurement, or disclosure that is reasonable in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
7. The following have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements:
 - a. Related party transactions, including transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.
 - b. Material concentrations.
 - c. Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk.
 - d. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable.
 - e. Amendments to the Plan instrument, if any.
 - f. The supplemental schedule disclose the reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section).
 - g. No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the financial statements for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure.
8. The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole. A list of the uncorrected misstatements is attached to the representation letter.
9. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments, or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP and the Plan has not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims or assessments.

Information Provided

10. We have provided you with:
 - a. Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation and other matters.
 - b. A substantially complete draft of Form 5500.
 - c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
 - d. All minutes of the meetings of stockholders, directors, trustees, or investment committees for the years or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.
 - e. Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the years, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.
 - f. Amendments to the Plan instrument, if applicable.
11. All material transactions have been properly recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

12. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
13. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving –
 - a. Management,
 - b. Employees who have significant roles in the Plan's internal control, or
 - c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
14. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
15. We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
16. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related party and parties-in-interest relationships and transactions, including any side agreements.
17. The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
18. We have no –
 - a. Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
 - b. Intentions to terminate the plan.
19. The Plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
20. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
21. All required filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.
22. The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The Plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
23. The Plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
24. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
25. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

26. We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
27. We believe the form and content of the supplemental schedule is fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
28. In regards to any bookkeeping services, financial statement preparation, or other services performed by you, we have:
- a. assumed all management responsibilities.
 - b. designated an individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the services.
 - c. evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
 - d. accepted responsibility for the results of the services.
 - e. established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.
