INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan
and Participants
Lexington, Kentucky

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the accompanying financial statements of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit]. The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and for the year ended December 31, 2022, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 4 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section—

- the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements referred to above, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- the information in the financial statements referred to above related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the plan; and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedules Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedules of (1) Schedule H, line 4i – Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) as of December 31, 2022, and (2) Schedule H, line 4i – Schedule of Assets (Acquired and Disposed of Within the Plan Year) are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. For information included in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion—

- the form and content of the supplemental schedules, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

CLAY INGELS CO., LLC RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022 and 2021

1. Description of Plan

The following brief description of the Clay Ingels Company, LLC (the "Company") Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan"), is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Summary Plan Description for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution retirement plan subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). The custodian of the Plan is VOYA. Benefits Plus provides third party administrator services for the Plan.

Eligibility

The Plan covers substantially all employees of the Company other than those employees covered under collective bargaining agreements and leased employees. Employees must be 21 years old and have completed 1 year of service to participate in the Plan. Employees may enter the Plan on January 1 or July 1 after becoming eligible. Effective August 1, 2021, the Plan was modified to allow for automatic enrollment.

Contributions

Each year, participants are permitted to contribute a portion of their total annual eligible compensation, as defined in the plan agreement, as a before-tax salary deferral contribution. The Plan also allows Roth deferral contributions. Employee deferral contributions cannot exceed the maximum allowable under Internal Revenue Service Regulations. Effective August 1, 2021, the Plan automatically enrolls all eligible employees at a deferral rate of 5%, unless the employee elects out of the Plan. The Company may, at their discretion, make discretionary matching or profit-sharing contributions each Plan year on behalf of eligible participants. The total contribution to a participant's account for the Plan year cannot exceed the maximum limit determined by Internal Revenue Service regulations. During 2022, the Company elected a matching contribution of 100% of a participant's contributions up to 5% of the participant's eligible compensation.

Rollover Contributions

Participants can rollover amounts from other eligible retirement plans to the Plan. Such amounts and earnings or losses are always fully vested.

Investment Options

Participants may, upon enrollment in the Plan, elect to invest their contributions and any Company contributions in any or all of the various funds currently offered by the Company.

Periodic transfer among funds of certain accumulated account balances and directions of future employee's deferral and Company matching contributions is permitted.

Participant Accounts

Participant contributions are credited to the individual accounts. Each participant's account is also credited with Company contributions, if any, and allocations of the Plan's earnings or losses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined.

1. Description of Plan, continued

Benefits and Vesting

The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit which can be provided from the participant's accounts, which includes participant and Company contributions and related earnings thereon. Earnings are allocated based on the individual participant's account balance in relation to total participant account balances. Participants are immediately vested in their contributions and related earnings. For employer profit sharing contributions, participants become 20% vested after two years of service and vest 20% each additional year of service, up to 100% after six years. Participants' vested interest in employer matching contributions is zero percent until a participant completes three years of service, at which time a participant becomes 100% vested.

Forfeited Accounts

There were no forfeited nonvested accounts at December 31, 2022 and 2021. Forfeited balances of terminated participants' nonvested accounts are used to reduce employer discretionary contributions.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. The notes are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at rates ranging from 4.25% to 7.5%, which are commensurate with local prevailing rates as determined quarterly by the Plan administrator. Principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions.

Payment of Benefits

Upon termination of service, a participant may elect to receive a lump-sum up to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account or substantially equal installments. Amounts below $5,000 will automatically be cashed out in a lump sum distribution.

Participants may also be entitled to in service distributions for hardship, disability, or age 59 ½, subject to Plan provisions.

Administrative Expenses

Operating expenses of the Plan are paid by the Plan and are reflected in the financial statements as administrative expenses of the Plan. Certain investment management fees are charged to the Plan as a reduction of investment return and included in the investment income (loss) reported by the Plan. Any other expenses are paid by the Plan Sponsor.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires the Plan to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022 and 2021

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 5 for a discussion of fair value measurements.

The net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments includes both realized gains and losses on investments sold during the year and unrealized gains and losses on investments held at the end of the year. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, no allowance for credit losses has been recorded. If a participant does not make loan repayments and the Plan Administrator considers the participant loan to be in default, the loan balance is reduced, and the delinquent participant note receivable is recorded as a benefit payment based on the terms of the Plan document.

Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Management's Review of Subsequent Events

The Plan has evaluated and considered the need to recognize or disclose subsequent events through August 8, 2023, which represents the date that these financial statements were available to be issued. Subsequent events past this date, as they pertain to the year ended December 31, 2022 have not been evaluated by the Plan.

3. Investments

During 2022, the Plan's investments (including gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year) depreciated in value by $2,146,726 as follows:

Pooled separate accounts	$ (2,146,726)

4. Information Certified by the Plan's Custodian

The plan administrator has elected the method of compliance permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, Voya Retirement Insurance and Annuity Company (Voya), the custodian of the Plan, has certified to the completeness and accuracy of all investments reflected on the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 and investment related activity reflected in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022.

CLAY INGELS CO., LLC RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022 and 2021

5. Fair Value Measurements

The framework for measuring fair value provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3). Valuation techniques maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

- Level 1 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.
- Level 2 – Inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.
- Level 3 – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Pooled Separate Accounts: The valuation of shares of pooled separate accounts are primarily based on the value of underlying mutual funds' net asset values (NAV). The pooled separate account NAV is not a publicly quoted price in an active market. Based upon this fact, NAV is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The accounts were not subject to significant redemption restrictions or unfunded commitments on their valuation dates. Since each pooled separate account is only investing in an underlying mutual fund, the account's significant investment strategies align with the underlying fund.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Fair Value Measurements Using:

CLAY INGELS CO., LLC RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022 and 2021

6. Guaranteed Investment Contract with VOYA

The Plan has two insurance group annuity contracts with Voya ("Fixed Account" and "Fixed Account 4450"). Voya maintains the contributions in a general account. Both contracts met the fully benefit-responsive investment contract criteria and therefore were reported at contract value. Contract value is the relevant measure for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because this is the amount received by participants if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. Contract value represents contributions made under each contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals, and administrative expenses. The guaranteed investment contract issuer is contractually obligated to repay the principal and a specified interest rate that is guaranteed to the Plan. The crediting rate for all contracts is based on a formula established by the contract issuer but may not be less than 1 percent for Fixed Account 4450 and the Fixed Account. The crediting rate is reviewed on a quarterly basis.

The contracts were included in the financial statements at contract value of approximately $4,727,603 as of December 31, 2022 and $5,148,852 as of December 31, 2021.

The Plan's ability to receive amounts due in accordance with fully benefit-responsive investment contracts is dependent on the third-party issuer's ability to meet its financial obligations. The issuer's ability to meet its contractual obligations may be affected by future economic and regulatory developments. There are no unfunded commitments.

Certain events might limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the contract issuer. These events may be different under each contract. Examples of such events include the following:

1. The Plan's failure to qualify under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or the failure of the trust to be tax-exempt under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code
2. Premature termination of the contracts
3. Plan termination or merger
4. Changes to the Plan's prohibition on competing investment options
5. Bankruptcy of the plan sponsor or other plan sponsor events (for example, divestitures or spinoffs of a subsidiary) that significantly affect the Plan's normal operations

No events are probable of occurring that might limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the contract issuers and that also would limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the participants.

In addition, certain events allow the issuer to terminate the contracts with the Plan and settle at an amount different from contract value. Those events may be different under each contract. Examples of such events include the following:

1. An uncured violation of the Plan's investment guidelines
2. A breach of material obligation under the contract
3. A material misrepresentation
4. A material amendment to the agreements without the consent of the issuer

7. Transactions with Parties-In-Interest

During the year certain Plan investments were in pooled separate accounts managed by the custodian, VOYA or a guaranteed investment contract held with VOYA. Therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest.

CLAY INGELS CO., LLC RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2022 and 2021

8. Tax Status

The Plan is based on a volume submitter profit sharing plan with a cash or deferral arrangement and has received an opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) dated June 30, 2020, stating that the form of the Plan is granted favorable treatment as being in accordance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code, and therefore, the related trust is tax exempt. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan Administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan Administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2022, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan Administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2019.

9. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan provides for participant directed investment options in any combination of offered funds. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of the investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks in the near term would materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

In March 2020, the World Health Organization categorized Coronavirus Disease 2019 ("COVID-19") as a pandemic, and the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency. The COVID-19 pandemic has led to volatility in financial markets and has affected, and may continue to affect, the market price of Plan assets. The potential economic impact brought by, and the duration of, COVID-19 is difficult to assess or predict and will depend on future developments that are highly uncertain and cannot be predicted.

10. Priorities upon Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Plan Sponsor has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of plan termination, the rights of all affected participants to amounts contributed by them and the sponsor and related earnings thereon would become fully vested.

11. Plan Merger

During the year, Clay Ingels Company, LLC acquired, Four Corners Building Supplies, LLC. Four Corners Building Supplies, LLC had employees enrolled in the Insperity 401(k) Plan and effective April 1, 2022, the Plan was amended to merge the Four Corners Building Supplies, LLC employees into the Plan. There were 15 participant's accounts totaling $462,679 in net assets that were transferred into Voya during 2022.

13. Subsequent Event

The Plan has been amended to implement new eligibility requirements and vesting schedules as of January 01, 2023. Employees will become eligible after 60 days of elapsed time and must be 21 years of age. Eligible employees will be automatically enrolled in the Plan on the 1st day of the calendar month coincident with or next following the date the eligibility requirements are met. The Plan has also amended to change the vesting schedule to a 2-year cliff for employer matching contributions.

To the Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan
Lexington, Kentucky

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's system of internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Voya Retirement and Annuity Company that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

Significant Deficiencies

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiencies in Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan's internal control to be significant deficiencies:

Financial Reporting

The Plan has a significant deficiency in internal control over financial reporting. While management is certainly knowledgeable in regard to the amounts reported in the financial statements, identifying and applying new authoritative guidance in regard to elements reported in the notes to these financial statements is outside the scope of management. The Plan engages the auditor to draft the financial statements and related notes and reviews and accepts responsibility for the financial statements.

Hardship Documentation

The Plan does not maintain adequate documentation for proof of hardship. Plan Administrators are required to maintain documentation for proof of hardship through either the summary substantiation method or by maintaining copies of the original documents supplied from the participant. During our testing of hardship distributions, both employees tested did not provide documentation for proof of financial hardship prior to being authorized for a distribution and no documentation was subsequently collected. The only hardship documentation provided was the distribution request collected by Voya. Documentation should be maintained for proof of hardship prior to authorization of the distribution.

A reportable finding is an indication of deficiencies in internal control identified during the audit that have not been communicated to management by other parties and that, in the auditor's professional judgment, are of sufficient importance to merit management's attention. We consider the above deficiencies in the Plan's internal control to be reportable findings: Financial Reporting and Hardship Distributions.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management, those charged with governance, and others within the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

To the Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan

Members American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
and Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants

We have audited the financial statements of Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) [ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit] for the year ended December 31, 2022, and we will issue our report thereon dated August 8, 2023. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Voya Retirement Insurance and Annuity Company, the trustee, which is a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated January 31, 2023. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by Clay Ingels Co., LLC Retirement Savings Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2022. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimates affecting the financial statements was:

Management's estimate of measuring investments at fair value, which is primarily based on net asset value per share as a practical expedient for fair value at December 31, 2022. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value measurement in determining that they are reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Form 5500 Procedures

We are required to obtain and read a substantially complete draft of Form 5500 prior to dating our auditor's report. The purpose of this procedure is to identify any material inconsistencies between the draft Form 5500 and the Plan's financial statements. We identified no material inconsistencies in performing and completing our audit.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements. In addition, none of the misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures and corrected by management were material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Reportable Findings

For purposes of this letter, a reportable finding is a matter that includes one or more of the following: (1) noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations, (2) a finding that in our professional judgment is significant and relevant to you regarding your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process, and (3) an indication of internal control deficiencies identified during the audit that have not been previously communicated to management by other parties and that we determined are sufficiently important to merit management's attention. Reportable findings, that were also considered to be significant deficiencies, were communicated in a separate letter.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a disagreement on a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated August 8, 2023.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Items Discussed Prior to Retention of Independent Auditors

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

During the audit, it was discovered that some participants' eligible wages were incorrectly reduced due to an incorrect starting eligibility date. The Four Corner Building Supplies, LLC employees were immediately eligible to participate in the plan as of 4/1/2022, but these merged employees' wages were reduced as if they were eligible on the automatic enrollment date of 7/1/2022. This resulted in the employer match being calculated incorrectly. An additional employer contribution of $1,533 was accrued for the missed matching contribution and compliance testing was reperformed.

It was noted during testing that one participant made excess contributions of $84. This occurred due to an error in the payroll company's records during the merger of Four Corner Building Supplies, LLC. The Plan intends to return the excess contributions and its earnings to the participant.

Supplementary Schedules

Our responsibility for the ERISA-required supplemental schedules accompanying the financial statements is to perform adequate procedures to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, is presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and whether the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).
