We did, however, audit the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the Custodian, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and found them to be presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated February 8, 2023. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by Greenfield Industries, Inc. 401(k) Plan are described in the footnotes to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2022. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements and are based on your knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. We noted no sensitive estimate(s) affecting the financial statements.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements. In addition, none of the misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures and corrected by management were material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated August 28, 2023.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

As discussed in the letter to the Plan Administrator dated August 28, 2023, we noted the following:

Issue:

The plan sponsor does not have documentation of their compliance of the of the Plan's service providers' reports on internal controls (SOC-1 reports) user entity controls. SOC 1 reports are issued by the independent auditors of the service providers and address the service providers' own internal control policies and procedures. The SOC-1 reports issued by the auditors typically note whether key internal control structure policies and procedures are suitably designed to achieve specified control objectives. Deficiencies, if any, are disclosed in the SOC-1 reports. In order for the controls by the service provider to be effective, the plan sponsor should have the suggested user entity controls in place. By reviewing and documenting the SOC-1 reports user entity controls, plan management can determine that the control objectives and associated control policies and procedures were tested for operating effectiveness at the service providers. These SOC-1 internal control reports can be obtained from the service providers directly, normally on an annual basis. In your role as plan management, it is your fiduciary responsibility to consider the controls in place at such organizations, or the lack thereof, and their potential impact on the Plan's financial reporting.

Recommendation:

We recommend that the Plan sponsor's staff document compliance of the SOC-1 user entity controls from the reports issued by their service provider.

Issue:

A Department of Labor (DOL) regulation requires that benefit plans remit employee contributions to the plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets. In no case can this amount of time exceed 15 business days after the end of the month in which the amounts were withheld. The 15-business day rule, however, is not a safe harbor. The general rule has been interpreted as being as little as zero days for entities with more than 100 employees. The DOL also looks at the consistency of timing and holds employers to a deposit standard, which is the employer's historically fewest number of days to actually deposit employee contributions when determining if contributions are timely.

Recommendation:

We recommend that the Company follow these guidelines to avoid untimely remittance issues.

Issue:

The Company was not withholding on certain compensation as defined under the plan document.

Recommendation:

We recommend that the Company review the plan documents to determine the correct definition of compensation is being used. Additionally, if there is a certain type of compensation the Company wants to exclude from withholdings and/or match purposes, please consider amending the Plan document.
