INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON REQUIRED COMMUNICATIONS

To the Plan Administrator
Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan

We have audited the financial statements of Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan ("the plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) for the year ended December 31, 2022, and we have issued our report thereon dated September 5, 2023. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets for investment of the plan ("investment information") held by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the trustee of the plan, which are a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplementary information, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"). Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects in accordance with GAAP. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under GAAP, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our engagement letter to you dated May 19, 2023. We performed the audit according to the planned scope and timing previously communicated to you. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the plan, an employee benefit plan subject to ERISA as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, in accordance with GAAP, we considered the plan's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor ("DOL")'s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any investment information held by the agent that prepared and certified the investment information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. In addition, because of the inherent limitations in internal control, including the possibility of management override of controls, misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected by such controls. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

Significant Audit Matters

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the plan are described in Note 1 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during the year. We noted no transactions entered into by the plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent and clear.

Form 5500 Procedures

We are required to obtain and read a substantially complete draft of Form 5500 prior to dating our auditors' report. The purpose of this procedure is to identify any material inconsistencies between the draft Form 5500 and the plan's financial statements. After the third party administrator posted any suggested edits we had to the draft Form 5500, we identified no material inconsistencies in performing and completing our audit.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Management has corrected all such misstatements. The material misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures that were corrected by management relate to contributions receivable. There were no uncorrected misstatements detected as a result of audit procedures.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a disagreement on a financial accounting, reporting or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditors' report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated September 5, 2023.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

Our responsibility for the ERISA-required supplementary information accompanying the financial statements is to perform adequate procedures to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplementary information, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, is presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and whether the information in the supplementary information related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Other Matters for Your Consideration

- The DOL continues to emphasize that employers must remit 401(k) withholdings from employees' paychecks as soon as administratively possible. Failure to remit 401(k) contributions in what the DOL would consider a "timely manner" could result in penalties to you as the plan sponsor. The DOL no longer recognizes a safe harbor and instead requires depositing withholdings as soon as practicable.
- We noted that the company does not maintain opt-out forms. It is important to note that signed opt-out forms should be maintained for individuals that have elected not to participate in the plan. Opt-out forms act as proof that the company provided the employee the opportunity to participate in the plan.
- We were not able to obtain applicable personnel information (such as address, date of birth, etc.) for certain former plan participants selected for participant testing. Such documentation should be maintained by the plan sponsor as long as the former employee remains a participant in the plan.
- The DOL and IRS continue to increase the amount of responsibility placed on fiduciaries and plan sponsors to ensure that benefit plans are operating in accordance with laws and regulations and that participants are protected. For example, plan sponsors are required to take steps to ensure that fees being charged to the plan are reasonable and not excessive (benchmarking, etc.). The plan sponsor must document the procedures performed to fulfill this fiduciary responsibility.

It is our understanding that the plan management meets at least annually to discuss the reasonableness of plan fees, soundness of investments, re-affirm/select plan providers/advisors, determine investment strategies, approve plan amendments, outline those defined as parties-in-interest, etc. However, minutes summarizing these meetings are currently not being maintained.

We recommend maintaining formal minutes to document the discussions and related decisions made during the plan's advisory committee minutes.

- As discussed during audit fieldwork, there were errors identified related to the matching formula for certain individuals. In the cases identified during the audit, it resulted in the participant receiving more match than they should have. It is our understanding that the plan sponsor will not pull back money from those over-matched and the formula will be corrected in 2023, so this error should be mitigated in the future.

- Your plan defines eligible wages subject to employee deferrals as all W-2 wages, which includes Christmas bonuses. It is currently the company's administrative policy to not withhold any employee elective deferrals on Christmas bonuses. It is our understanding the employees were made aware of this administrative policy and it has been consistently applied. It is our understanding that going forward, plan management has elected to change its administrative policy and will begin deducting employee deferrals from this pay type. Since the administrative policy is changing, we would recommend communicating to employees the change and maintaining proof of that communication. The anticipated change will allow plan practice and the plan document to be in alignment.
- As part of the audit process, we recalculate forfeitures for a sample of participants who received distributions during the plan year. During this test, we noted one employee, Scott Hardin, whose forfeiture was calculated using 100% vesting when it appears 80% vesting should have been used. As a result, it appears that amounts forfeited from the participant's balance was understated by $1,847. Consider working with Fidelity to determine if any corrective actions are necessary. Also, we would recommend the company establish procedures to review vesting calculations prior to distributions to ensure vesting percentages are accurate.

This information is intended solely for the use of the plan administrator and management of the plan and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Plan Administrator
Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit for the 2022 Financial Statements

We have performed an audit of the financial statements of Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan ("the plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) ("ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit"). The financial statements comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements ("2022 financial statements").

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audit of the 2022 financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor ("DOL")'s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan ("investment information") by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA ("qualified institution").

Management has obtained a certification from a qualified institution as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 6 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion on the 2022 Financial Statements

In our opinion, based on our audit and the procedures performed as described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2022 Financial Statements section,

- the amounts and disclosures in the accompanying 2022 financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").
- the information in the accompanying 2022 financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion on the 2022 Financial Statements

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAS"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2022 Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the 2022 Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the 2022 Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit for the 2022 Financial Statements section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the 2022 financial statements and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter - 2022 Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and is derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion,

- the form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, is presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedule related to assets held by and certified by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Report on the 2021 Financial Statement

Plan management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the accompanying 2021 financial statement of the plan, which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2021 and the related notes to the financial statement, in accordance with GAAP. We have performed a compilation engagement in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services promulgated by the Accounting and Review Services Committee of the AICPA. We did not audit or review the 2021 financial statement nor were we required to perform any procedures to verify the accuracy or completeness of the information provided by management. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion, a conclusion, or provide any form of assurance on the 2021 financial statement.

Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and 2021
(2021 compiled - see independent auditors' report)

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Method of accounting - Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan ("the plan") follows the accrual method of accounting wherein additions and deductions are reflected in the period earned or incurred.

Accounting estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent events - The financial statements include management's evaluation of the events and transactions occurring subsequent to December 31, 2022 through September 5, 2023, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

Risks and uncertainties - The plan invests in various investments. Investments are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

Key parties of the plan - Middle River Marine, LLC is the plan sponsor/employer and the plan administrator. Ozinga Cement, Inc., Ozinga Materials, Inc. and Skipping Stone Sand and Gravel, LLC were participating employers through December 31, 2021. Effective January 1, 2022 those employers were no longer eligible to participate in the plan and the impacted employees' assets were transferred to the Ozinga South Florida plan. Fidelity Management Trust Company is the trustee that holds custody of the plan's investment assets. Fidelity Workplace Services LLC is the plan's recordkeeper that maintains plan and participant records, tax counsel that performs various compliance tests and investment advisor. The related Fidelity entities are collectively referred to as "Fidelity".

Investments - The plan sponsor/employer determines the investments available to plan participants. The participants allocate their contributions and transfer existing balances among the available investment options. The net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of investments bought, sold and held during the years is reflected in the statements of net assets available for benefits. Participants should refer to the investment account summaries and prospectuses for more information.

Fair value measurements - GAAP establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical investments (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows.

- Level 1 - Valuation is based upon quoted prices in active markets for identical investments.
- Level 2 - Valuation is based upon other significant observable inputs (including quoted prices for similar investments).
- Level 3 - Valuation is based upon significant unobservable inputs (including the plan's assumptions in determining the fair value of investments).

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for investments measured at fair value.

Mutual funds and money market fund - Valued at the daily quoted market prices as reported by the fund. Mutual funds and money market fund held by the plan are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, are required to publish their daily net asset value and are deemed to be actively traded.

The plan administrator determines by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the plan's investments at fair value as set forth below.

Investments at fair value as of December 31, 2022
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds and money market fund	$2,554,016	$ -	$ -	$2,554,016

2. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the plan provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan documents for a more complete description of the plan's provisions.

General - The plan was adopted effective January 1, 2020 as a defined contribution plan with a 401(k) salary deferral arrangement. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") and subsequent amendments.

Eligibility - Employees are eligible to contribute to the plan once they have reached age eighteen. An employee can enter the plan immediately following completion of eligibility requirements. For purposes of the employer matching contributions, employees are eligible if they have completed twelve months of service and reached age eighteen. For purposes of nonelective contributions, employees are eligible if they have completed three months of service and have reached age eighteen. These requirements are waived upon death, disability or attainment of normal retirement age during the year which the contribution relates.

Contributions - Contributions to the plan can be made in the following ways:

- a. Participants may contribute a percentage of their compensation subject to certain limitations (elective deferral contributions). The plan also permits Roth elective deferrals. New eligible employees are automatically enrolled in the plan and have 3% of compensation withheld as deferral contributions. Participant deferral percentages automatically increase by 1% each year until they reach a maximum of 10%. Such participants have the option to increase, decrease or stop the deferral by completing the necessary documentation.
- b. Rollover contributions are accepted by the plan from other qualified plans.
- c. Employer matching contributions may be made at the employer's discretion. The discretionary matching contributions are equal to 100% of the first 5% of the employee compensation contributed to the plan as elective deferral contributions in 2022. The employer matching contributions are funded monthly.
- d. Additional nonelective contributions may be made at the employer's discretion. No such contributions were made in 2022.

Midwest Employer 401(k) Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and 2021
(2021 compiled - see independent auditors' report)

Participant accounts - Earnings, including the fair value appreciation (depreciation), are allocated to participant accounts on a daily basis based upon the performance of the investment options selected. Each participant's account is credited with the participant's elective deferral and rollover contributions and an allocation of the employer's contributions. Participants are allowed to change their investment options on a daily basis and change their deferral percentage each pay period.

Vesting - Participants are always 100% vested in their elective deferral contributions, employer matching contributions, employer nonelective contributions, rollover contributions, and related earnings. Prior to 2022, the company would regularly make profit sharing contributions. Participants vest in profit sharing contributions upon completing one year of service at which time they are 5% vested, upon completion of two years of service participants are 20% vested. The participants then vest at the rate of 20% for each year thereafter. Upon death, disability or qualified retirement, participants become 100% vested.

Payment of benefits - Benefit payments may commence upon termination of employment, death, disability or attainment of early retirement age (defined as 55) or normal retirement age (defined as 65). Distributions may be made in the form of a single lump sum, installment payments or partial withdrawals. In-service withdrawals can commence upon attaining the age of 59 1/2. In addition, hardship withdrawals are permitted under certain circumstances.

Administrative expenses - Certain administrative expenses of the plan are paid by the plan sponsor and are not included in these financial statements. Certain other fees are paid by the plan using plan assets and recorded as administrative expenses in the accompanying financial statements. Administrative expenses paid by the plan consist of participant directed charges for loan processing and maintenance and nonparticipant directed charges for plan administration paid via forfeitures in 2022.

Forfeitures - Forfeited nonvested accounts are used to pay plan expenses or reduce the amount of the employer contributions. Forfeitures used were $21,000 in 2022. Unapplied forfeitures were $11,000 and $8,000 as of December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Notes receivable from participants - Participants can take out loans against their accounts with the approval of the plan administrator. The minimum loan amount is $1,000 and the maximum amount is the lesser of one-half of the participant's vested account balance, or $50,000. Participants may not have more than one loan outstanding at any given time. The repayment term generally cannot exceed 5 years except when the loan is for the purchase of a principal residence. As of December 31, 2022, the notes receivable from participants had repayment schedules through January 2028 with interest rates ranging from 4.25% to 8.00%. The notes receivable from participants are valued at their unpaid principal balances plus any accrued but unpaid interest, which approximates fair value.

3. PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Fidelity is the trustee that holds custody of the plan's investment assets and also manages certain plan investment offerings. As such, transactions between Fidelity and the plan qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Fidelity receives indirect compensation from mutual fund service providers for services Fidelity provides to the funds. This indirect compensation received by Fidelity is used to offset amounts that would otherwise be owed by the plan to Fidelity for administrative services provided.

Notes receivable from participant transactions also qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

All of the above party-in-interest transactions are exempt from the prohibited transaction rules of ERISA.

4. TERMINATION OF PLAN

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the plan sponsor has the right to terminate the plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of plan termination, participants would become 100% vested in their employer contributions and related earnings.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2022 and 2021
(2021 compiled - see independent auditors' report)

5. INCOME TAX STATUS

Prior to September 14, 2021 the plan was operating under a Fidelity volume submitter profit sharing plan that received a favorable opinion letter on March 31, 2014. Effective September 14, 2021, the plan adopted a new Fidelity pre-approved profit sharing plan that received a favorable opinion letter on June 30, 2020. There were no functional changes to the plan in connection with the adoption of this new plan. The letters from the Internal Revenue Service stated that the plans, as then designed, were in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The plan administrator has not obtained a separate Internal Revenue Service opinion or determination letter for the plan, however, the plan administrator and tax counsel believe the plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

GAAP requires plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the plan and recognize tax liabilities (or assets) for any uncertain tax positions taken by the plan that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the applicable authorities. Plan management analyzed the requirements for accounting for such uncertain tax positions taken and determined the plan was not required to recognize any tax liabilities (or assets) related to uncertain tax positions taken as of December 31, 2022 and 2021. The plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits in progress.

6. INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY FIDELITY

Management has obtained certifications from Fidelity, a qualified institution under the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, that state the following information with respect to assets held for investment of the plan is complete and accurate.

- a. Investments held and the fair values of such as of December 31, 2022 and 2021;
- b. Dividends and interest income from investments and net appreciation (depreciation) in fair values of investments during 2022;
- c. Purchases and sales of investments during 2022; and
- d. Contributions to, investment income (loss) credited to, benefits paid from and transfers between investment accounts during 2022.

7. RECONCILIATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS TO FORM 5500

As discussed in Note 1, the financial statements are prepared under the accrual method of accounting wherein additions and deductions are reflected in the period earned or incurred. The plan's Form 5500 was prepared under the cash basis method of accounting. As a result, the accompanying statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021 and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years ended December 31, 2022 and 2021 differed from the Form 5500s. The following tables reconcile the financial statements to the applicable Form 5500s.

	2022
Net change in net assets available for benefits per the financial statements	$164,010
Plus: Prior year contributions receivable	30,204
