Ladies and Gentlemen:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of California Hydronics Corporation Profit Sharing 401(K) Plan (the "Plan") an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, schedule H, line 4i – schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We have elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's ("DOL") Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information such that, in the light of surrounding circumstances, there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter:

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the Statement of Work dated May 17, 2023, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and the notes include all the disclosures required by laws and regulations in which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA Plan financial statements are in conformity with the Plan provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements, notes, and supplemental schedule that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are properly disclosed in Note 2 of the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
- All related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
- Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 9EA3808C-AC4B-407D-B637-83F9BE4F31E3

- The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have no intentions to terminate the plan.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable to a bank or another lending institution have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
- You provided a nonattest service by assisting us with drafting the financial statements and supplemental schedule. In connection with the nonattest service, we have performed the following:
    - Made all management decisions and performed all management functions;
    - Assigned a competent individual to oversee the services;
    - Evaluated the adequacy of the services performed;
    - Evaluated and accepted responsibility for the result of the service performed; and
    - Established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedule in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- We believe the supplemental schedule, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
    - Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as financial records and related data, plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, as applicable, or investments contracts, as applicable, and amendments to such documents entered into during the year;
    - The most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all amendments;
    - A draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete;
    - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
    - Unrestricted access to persons within the plan and others from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
    - All minutes of the meetings of the 401(k) Committee or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared for the period of January 1, 2022 to the date of this letter.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 9EA3808C-AC4B-407D-B637-83F9BE4F31E3

- Management acknowledges that the audit report and financial statements will not be issued with an annual report, as such, no emphasis of a matter related to annual reporting is deemed necessary.
- All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value and contract value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have provided to you our evaluation of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, including significant conditions and events present, and we believe that our use of the going concern basis of accounting is appropriate.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:
    - Management,
    - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
    - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements and we have not consulted legal counsel concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- There are no other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel has advised us must be disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
- All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The plan (and the trust established under the plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.

- The plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
- The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
- The form and content of the schedule H, line 4i – schedule of assets (held at end of year) are fairly presented in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- There are no:
    - Nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 3[l] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule or financial statements.
    - Investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
    - Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103[b][3][H] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
- The plan obtained its latest opinion letter on June 30, 2020, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the prototype plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. The prototype plan has been amended since receiving the opinion letter. However, the plan administrator and the plan's tax counsel believe that the plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, they believe that the plan was qualified and the related trust was tax-exempt as of the financial statement date.
- Management has performed an examination of all remittances made during the year ended December 31, 2022 and has determined all remittances related to the year ended December 31, 2022 include the proper employee deferral, loan repayment and employer match, if applicable.
- We believe that all employee contribution percentage's that are being withheld from their pay check is the proper and most recent amount that the employee has elected.
- We believe that all approved employee pay rates and pay rate changes were properly authorized and implemented in a timely manner.
- Management has performed an examination of all distributions of employer profit sharing contributions that were made during the year and determined which distributions received incorrect vesting calculations. Management worked the third party service provider to make the necessary corrections for those who did not receive the correct amounts in the initial distribution.
- Management is working with the third party service provider to identify and remove any employees that were enrolled in the Plan and are ineligible to participate based on current plan provisions.
- Management believes that the participants who received employer profit sharing contributions as part of the reallocation of forfeitures during 2022 were all eligible to receive such contributions.
