To The Plan Administrator
Klingspor Abrasives, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Klingspor Abrasives, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan (the “Plan”), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered Klingspor Abrasives, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan’s internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan’s internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan’s internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Principal Trust Company that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the plan’s financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiencies in

Klingspor Abrasives, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan's internal control to be significant deficiencies:

Segregation of Duties

Separation of duties required to achieve quality internal controls is a difficult management responsibility. We recognize that there is a cost/benefit decision in assigning task and making decisions to hire additional personnel.

When segregation of duties is hindered by smaller office staffs, the possibility for errors and irregularities increases. Therefore, we suggest that the Plan Sponsor make a continuous effort to assign incompatible tasks to different persons in the office.

Preparation of Financial Statements

Management relies on its external auditors to assist them in the preparation of their financial statements and footnote disclosures under audit. However, management is responsible for ensuring that the financial statement content, presentation, disclosures are in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. While management has the ability to prepare its basic financial statements, there are not controls in place that assure all required disclosures are included within the financial statements and footnote disclosures. These controls would include a process to keep informed of all new accounting pronouncements and their possible impact on the financial statement presentation and required disclosures. Management has chosen to rely on external assistance rather than incur the cost of developing and maintaining these controls internally.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management, the Board of Directors, and others within the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Sincerely,
