Auditors:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA)-required supplemental schedules, if any, (collectively, the "Financial Statements") of Hogsalt 401(k) Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the Financial Statements.

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's Financial Statements performed in accordance with the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the Financial Statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) We acknowledge that our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to investment information as certified by a qualified institution, in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

We accept responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP).

We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedule(s), if any, in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We believe that the ERISA-required supplemental schedule(s), including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

We acknowledge our responsibility for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the Plan; and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

We acknowledge our responsibility for the completeness of the financial statements, and design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of Financial Statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the Financial Statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud. We also acknowledge our responsibility for providing you with all relevant information and access.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

For purposes of disclosure in this letter, individual matters related to financial amounts and disclosures should be considered material if in excess of $6,800. However, materiality limits do not apply to representations that are not directly related to amounts included in the Financial Statements or to any item regarding fraud by management or employees who have significant roles in internal control.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated July 12, 2023, for the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
2. We are unaware of any violations of U.S. GAAP in the Plan's accounting principles and the practices and methods followed in applying them.
3. All events subsequent to the date of the Financial Statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
4. There have been no changes during the year in the Plan's accounting principles and practices or in the methods of applying them.
5. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the fair value or classification of assets and liabilities. Further, there is no intention to terminate the Plan.
6. We recognize that we are responsible for maintaining the Plan's compliance with Internal Revenue Code and Department of Labor Regulations in order to maintain the Plan's tax-exempt status.
7. There are no:
    a. Related party or party-in-interest transactions and related amounts receivable or payable, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing agreements and guarantees, except for certain administrative fees paid by the Company, and investments managed by the recordkeeper and its affiliates.

b. Nonexempt transactions/prohibited transactions with parties in interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3 (14) and regulations under that section.

c. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable.

d. Other material liabilities or loss contingencies for which the risk that the Plan will suffer a loss in excess of $6,800 is more than remote.

e. Commitments, such as a pending sale or merger of the Plan Sponsor, that would affect the Plan.

8. The Plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.

9. There are no leases, loans, or investments in default or considered to be uncollectible.

10. There are no reportable transactions, as defined in ERISA Section 103 (b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section.

11. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

12. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.

13. Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the Financial Statements.

14. Adequate provision has been made to cover possible losses that may result from the collection of receivables, including participant notes receivable.

15. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.

16. All significant contracts and contracts not in the normal course of business entered into by the Plan have been presented to you for your evaluation. Additionally, we have complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the Financial Statements in the event of noncompliance.

17. All significant amendments have been considered for disclosure in the Financial Statements.

18. All significant estimates and material concentrations, as hereinafter defined, known to us have been disclosed to you. Significant estimates are those estimates used in the development of accounting information that could change materially within the next year. Material concentrations refer to concentrations in investments and revenue sources that make the Plan vulnerable to events that occur within the next year that would have a significant disruptive effect on the Plan.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 6D920932-E877-4ECA-8CB0-7F6900727986

19. We have reviewed the legal fees and descriptions, including those paid by the Plan, if any, and those paid by the Plan Sponsor for material issues which may have an adverse impact on the Plan. We are not aware of any litigation, unasserted claims or assessments that should be accrued or disclosed in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic Section 450, Contingencies, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning any litigation, claims or assessments, asserted or unasserted. Further, we have represented to you that there are no other matters that are potentially significant to the Financial Statements or events that may jeopardize the Plan's qualified status, including:
    a. Legal actions brought by the Plan on behalf of the plan participants and beneficiaries.
    b. Review or inquiry by the Department of Labor, Internal Revenue Service, or other regulatory agency of the Plans activities or filings.
20. There have been no communications with regulatory agencies, whether oral or written, concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices or other Plan matters, including operations of the Plan that could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.
21. The Plan and the trust established under the Plan are qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code. The trust is intended to continue as a qualified trust. The Plan has been and continues to be operated in a manner designed to maintain this qualification. No events or transactions have occurred that might affect the Plan and trust's qualified status (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, events reportable to the PBGC, or events that may jeopardize the tax status).
22. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
23. All Form 5500s have been filed on a timely basis with the appropriate filing agency (DOL or IRS). There have been no examinations to date in regard to the Plan's Form 5500.
24. We have provided you with all information you deemed necessary to identify affiliates of the Plan for which you must maintain independence.

Information Provided

1. We have provided you with:
    a. Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the Financial Statements such as records, documentation, and other matters.
    b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
    c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
    d. The most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all plan amendments.
    e. A draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete.
2. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the Financial Statements.
3. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:
    a. Management;
    b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control; or
    c. Others when the fraud could have a material effect on the Financial Statements.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 6D920932-E877-4ECA-8CB0-7F6900727986

4. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's Financial Statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
5. There were no instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing Financial Statements.
6. We have disclosed the identity of all the Plan's related parties and parties in interests of which we are aware.
7. The Plan is responsible for the performance of the nondiscrimination tests and assures that the Plan has passed such tests or appropriate action has been taken to rectify any areas of noncompliance.
8. We have disclosed to you all significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement or presentation of the supplemental information.
9. The latest available Plan interim statements are as of August 28, 2023. These statements have been prepared on the same basis as that used for the statements you are auditing.
10. If we publish our Financial Statements in any manner that includes your auditor's report or any other reference to Plante & Moran, PLLC, including Form 5500 and any amendments thereto, it is understood that we will allow you to review such publication prior to production.
