This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Tarzana Treatment Centers, Inc. Tax Deferred Savings Plan (the "Plan") an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedule is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have elected for you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Reliance Trust Company, the Trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than derived from the information certified by the Trustee, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of October 11, 2023, the following representations made to you during your audits.

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated March 21, 2023, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule referred to above is fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA..
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
4. We acknowledge our election to have an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect our responsibility for the financial statements and for determining the following:
 - a The circumstances permit an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit.
 - b A qualified institution has prepared and certified the investment information as described in 29 CFR 2520.103-8.
 - c The certification meets the 29 CFR 2520.103-5 requirements.
 - d The certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
5. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
6. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

7. Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
8. Related-party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.
9. No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the financial statements for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure.
10. We are in agreement with the adjusting journal entries you have proposed, and they have been posted to the Plan's accounts.
11. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
12. Significant estimates and material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
13. Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
14. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
15. We understand that in order for you to maintain your independence for the non attest service you have performed for us (preparation of the Plan's financial statements), we must assume all management responsibilities for the non attest service, including designating a qualified individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience from our senior management to oversee the non attest service, evaluate the adequacy and results of the non attest service, accept responsibility for the results of the non attest service, and ensure that the Plan's data and records are complete and has received sufficient information to oversee the services. Therefore, we assigned Silvia Cadena, CFO/Treasurer, to oversee and evaluate the adequacy and results of the non attest service and she has accepted responsibility for it.

18. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
19. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
20. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:
 - a Management,
 - b Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
 - c Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
21. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
22. We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
23. We have used the correct definition of compensation, as outlined in our plan document, in the calculation of participant deferrals.
24. We have disclosed to you the names of all of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions, including any side agreements.
25. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.

26. We have no—

- a Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
- b Intentions to terminate the Plan.

27. Amendments to the Plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

28. The Plan has complied with all aspects of contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

29. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments, including nonreadily marketable securities, are as follows: mutual funds are valued at level 1. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

30. All required amendments to and filings of Plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.

31. The Plan is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The Plan sponsor has operated the Plan (and trust) in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(a) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan.

32. The Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.

33. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
