Hutchinson and Bloodgood LLP
550 N. Brand Blvd., 14th Floor
Glendale, California 91203

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of TBI Airport Management, Inc. Retirement Plan for Certain Hourly Employees (the Plan) (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits and accumulated Plan benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021; the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits and changes in accumulated Plan benefits benefit obligations for the years then ended; and the related notes to the financial statements.

We elected to have the audit of the plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodically examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and that the certified information is appropriately measured, presented and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves, that as of February 13, 2023, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit arrangement letter dated June 28, 2023, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements referred to above in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

2. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining the plan's transaction that are presented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.
4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
5. We are responsible for making the accounting estimates included in the financial statements. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable and reflect our judgment based on our knowledge and experience about past and current events, and our assumptions about conditions we expect to exist and courses of action we expect to take.
In that regard, we are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services or other third parties. We relied on Principal Bank, the custodian of the Plan, to provide fair value of financial instruments based on Principal Bank's pricing sources. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period.
6. All significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are required to be disclosed in accordance with the Risks and Uncertainties Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) have been properly recorded and/or disclosed in the financial statements. Significant estimates are estimates at the statement of net assets available for benefits date that could change materially within the next year. Concentrations refer to the nature and type of investments held by the Plan, or markets in which events could occur that would significantly disrupt normal finances within the next year.
7. Related-party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
8. Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed.
9. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements, and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure, have been adjusted or disclosed.
10. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
11. We have no intention to terminate the Plan, except as follows:

The Retirement Plan Committee, in its meetings scheduled for the periods subsequent to October 12, 2023, will be reviewing its options related to plan termination.

12. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the Plan instrument, if any.
13. There are no guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable to a bank or other lending institution.

14. We believe that the actuarial assumptions and methods used by the actuary for funding purposes and for determining accumulated Plan benefits are appropriate in the circumstances. We did not give or cause any instructions to be given to the specialist with respect to the values or amounts derived in an attempt to bias their work, and we are not otherwise aware of any matters that have had an impact on the independence or objectivity of the plan's actuary.
15. We have no knowledge of any uncorrected misstatements in the financial statements.

Supplementary Information

16. With respect to supplemental schedules:
 - a. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of such information.
 - b. We believe such information, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with DOL Rules and Regulations for reporting and disclosure under ERISA.
 - c. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.
 - d. There are no underlying significant assumptions or interpretations regarding the measurement or presentation of such information
 - e. We will only present the supplemental schedule together with the audited financial statements and auditor's report thereon and will not separate the supplementary information from the audited financial statements and auditor's report thereon in any document that contains such information.

Information Provided

17. We have provided you with:
 - a. Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation, and other matters.
 - b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
 - c. Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
 - d. The currently effective version of the Plan document, the trust agreement and all related amendments. The Plan was most recently amended on July 12, 2012 to freeze the Plan effective August 31, 2012.
 - e. All correspondence, filings, reports, and determinations with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the DOL relating to the Plan's compliance with ERISA and the maintenance of its tax-exempt status.
 - f. All Plan financial records and related data. In that regard, the payroll information we provided you covered all employees that were eligible to participate in the Plan.

- g. Access to minutes of Investment Committee meetings and Plan Sponsor board meetings as they pertain to the Plan, or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.
 - a. Actuarial valuation reports and other reports prepared by the actuary for the Plan and the Plan Sponsor.
18. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements. In this regard, the Sponsor's management designated an individual with sufficient skills, knowledge, and experience to oversee the financial statement preparation process and to take responsibility for the results of the financial statement preparation services. This individual performed a detailed review of the financial statements consisting of the following procedures:
- Reconciliation of the general ledger accounts and participant statements to the financial statements.
 - Review and approval of all journal entries proposed by you, including review of supporting documentation and explanations.
 - Review the adequacy of financial statement disclosure by review and approval of the disclosure checklist completed by you.
 - Review and approval of schedules and calculations supporting the amounts included in the notes to the financial statements.
 - Applying analytical procedures to financial statements.
19. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of risk that the financial statement may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
20. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving:
- a. Management or employees who have significant roles in the internal control.
 - b. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
21. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
22. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation and claims whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements, and neither we, nor the Plan Sponsor, or others acting on behalf of the Plan, have consulted a lawyer concerning litigation and claims or other matters affecting the Plan.
23. We have disclosed to you the identity of the entity's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related-party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
24. We are aware of no significant deficiencies, including material weaknesses, in the design or operation of internal controls that could adversely affect the Plan's ability to record, process, summarize, and report financial data.
25. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
26. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets which are recorded at fair value. There are no liens, encumbrances, or security interests related to the Plan's assets.

27. Concentrations of credit risk have been properly disclosed.
28. With respect to the actuarial liabilities reflected in the financial statements:
 - a. The information provided to the Plan's actuary to perform the valuation is accurate and there have been no omissions from the participants' data provided the Plan's actuary for the purpose of determining the actuarial present value of accumulated Plan benefits and other actuarially determined amounts in the financial statement.
 - b. There have been no changes in the actuarial methods or assumptions used in calculating amounts recorded or disclosed in the financial statements other than those disclosed in the actuary's report and financial statements.
 - c. There have been no changes in Plan provisions between the actuarial valuation date and the date of this letter.
29. We have answered your questions about the Plan's tax compliance.
30. There have been no communications, whether written or oral, from regulatory agencies concerning non-compliance or deficiencies in the operation of the plan.
31. We have complied with (a) all aspects of contractual agreements, including provisions of the Plan, that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, (b) the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA, (c) all participant eligibility and coverage requirements of the Plan, ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and (d) the filing requirements of appropriate agencies.
32. With respect to the actuarial report:
 - a. The information provided to the Plan's actuary to perform the valuation is accurate and there have been no omissions from the participants' data provided the Plan's actuary for the purpose of determining the actuarial present value of accumulated Plan benefits and other actuarially determined amounts in the financial statement.
 - b. There have been no changes in the actuarial methods or assumptions used in calculating amounts recorded or disclosed in the financial statements other than those disclosed in the actuary's report and financial statements.
 - c. There have been no changes in Plan provisions between the actuarial valuation date and the date of this letter.
 - d. The Plan Administrator agrees with the actuarial methods and assumptions used by the actuary for funding purposes and for determining accumulated Plan benefits and has no knowledge or belief that would make such methods or assumptions inappropriate in the circumstances. We are not aware of any matters that have impacted the independence or objectivity of the Plan's actuary.
33. We are not aware of instances of non-compliance or suspected non-compliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
34. The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the sponsor, by a letter dated April 11, 2011, that the Plan is qualified, and the trust established under the Plan is tax exempt under the appropriate sections of the IRC. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. We have operated the plan and trust in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.

35. We have reviewed the complementary user entity control considerations of the Service Organization Controls (SOC 1) Report for Principal Life Insurance Company Retirement Plan Processing Services for twelve months ended September 30, 2022, and the bridge letter covering the period through December 31, 2022, and we believe all applicable controls are properly designed and implemented and operating effectively.
36. There are no:
- Nonexempt (prohibited) party-in-interest transactions that were not disclosed in the financial statements or supplemental schedules.
 - Receivables or investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the financial statements or supplemental schedules.
 - Reportable transactions that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
37. During the course of your audits, you may have accumulated records containing data that should be reflected in our books and records. All such data have been so reflected. Accordingly, copies of such records in your possession are no longer needed by us.
38. As it relates to Wells Fargo and whether an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible, we represent that:
- The conditions for an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit have been met with respect to the investment information prepared and certified by Wells Fargo.
 - The investment information is prepared and certified by Wells Fargo, a regulated entity.
 - The investment information includes a certification signed electronically by a Wells Fargo duly authorized representative.
 - The investment information is certified to be both accurate and complete by a Wells Fargo duly authorized representative.

Sincerely,

Charlotte Serveille, Chief Financial Officer
