This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of MIBA Sinter USA Hourly 401K (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2022, and the disclosures (collectively, the financial statements), for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have elected for you to not perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified by Reliance Trust Company (Reliance), the Custodian, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by Reliance, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to test of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered to be material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief as of October 16, 2023, the following representations made to you during your audits:

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter for the report on the financial statements mentioned above, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are properly disclosed in Note 4 to the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
- Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of GAAP.
- Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- The effects of all known actual or possible litigation, claims and assessments have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have no intentions to terminate the Plan.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
- With respect to the nonattest services your firm has provided (preparation of the financial statements), we have performed the following:
 - Made all management decisions and performed all management functions;
 - Assigned a competent individual with the skill, knowledge and expertise to oversee the nonattest services;
 - Evaluated the adequacy of the services performed;
 - Evaluated and accepted responsibility for the result of the service performed; and
 - Established and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.

ERISA-Required Supplemental Schedules

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

- We believe that the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
 - access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters;
 - the most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all plan amendments;
 - a draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete;
 - additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
 - unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
 - all minutes of the plan administrative committee meetings or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared, if any.
- All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The Plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value and contract value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:
 - management;
 - employees who have significant roles in internal control; or
 - others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements, if any.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements and we have not consulted legal counsel concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- There are no other matters (for example, breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel has advised us must be disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.
- There are no debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
- All required amendments to and filings of Plan documents with appropriate agencies have been made.
- The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust or insurance contract, if applicable, in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
- We are aware of certain operational, plan document, or demographic issues that, if not properly corrected, could be treated by the IRS as qualification failures. We will be taking steps to correct these issues. If necessary, the tax qualification issues will be resolved directly with the IRS. Accordingly, we believe that the plan will retain its tax-qualified status.
- The Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
- The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
- There are no:
 - nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 406-408 and regulations thereunder) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.
 - investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
 - reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.
