This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of The Marine Mammal Center 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan & Trust (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement and Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, December 31, 2022, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedule are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Ascensus Trust Company, the Trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, expected comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole. We understand that the form and context of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than derived from the information certified by Trustee, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of October 16, 2023, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated June 13, 2023, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.

2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

5. Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.

6. Related party relationships and transactions and relationships with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.

7. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

8. The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole.

9. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

10. Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

11. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

12. We understand that the statement of net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2021, was compiled in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist Plan management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements. We understand that you have not audited or reviewed the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2021 , and accordingly, you do not express an opinion or provide any assurance regarding the financial statement.

13. We acknowledge the following prior to you performing the nonattest service preparation of financial statements (the "nonattest service").

    a We understand that in order for you to maintain your independence, we must assume all management responsibilities for the nonattest service. This includes designating a qualified individual with suitable skill, knowledge, or experience, from our senior management to oversee the nonattest service, evaluate the adequacy and results of the nonattest service, and accept responsibility for it. Therefore, we assigned Marvin Suchoff, Chief Financial Officer and Lynda Schaefer, Director of Compensation & Compliance to oversee and evaluate the adequacy and results of the nonattest service and they have accepted responsibility for it.

Information Provided

14. We have provided you with:

    a All minutes to meetings during the Plan year under audit and subsequent to year end through the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

    b A substantially complete draft of the Form 5500.

    c Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.

    d Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

    e Unrestricted access to persons within The Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

15. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

16. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.

17. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects and involves:

    a Management,

    b Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or c Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

18. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, analysts, regulators, or others.

19. We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

20. We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.

21. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and all the related party relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

22. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, and there are no liens or encumbrances on such assets nor has any asset been pledged as collateral.

23. We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the supplemental schedule in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we believe the supplemental schedule, including its form and content is fairly presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule have not changed from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule.

24. We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with ERISA Section 408(b)(2).

25. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

26. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

27. The Plan is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) and we intend to continue it as a qualified plan. The Plan sponsor has operated the Plan in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

28. All required amendments to and filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.

29. We are responsible for making the fair value measurements and disclosures included in the financial statements using the inputs described in Levels 1, 2 and 3 of the fair value hierarchy of U.S. GAAP. We believe the assumptions and methods used by us, including those used by the Trustee, are in accordance with the definition of fair value and the disclosures adequately describe the level of the inputs used in the fair value measurement.

30. No conditions or events exist that, when considered together, raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern within a one-year period after the date of this letter.

31. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities

32. We have no plans or intentions to terminate the Plan.

33. We have used the correct definition of compensation, as outlined in our plan document, in the calculation of participant deferrals.

34. We acknowledge that our election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit, as agreed to in the engagement letter, doesn't affect our responsibility for the financial statements. The audit performed met the preconditions for an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit.

35. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the Plan and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

36. We acknowledge our responsibility for maintaining a current plan document. We believe the current plan documents are in compliance with applicable tax laws and regulations
