Dear TRA,

I am writing this opinion letter to provide my professional assessment and recommendations regarding the Form 5500 filing for TRA. As your auditor, I have reviewed the relevant financial and employee benefit information to ensure compliance with regulatory requirements and best practices.

After a thorough examination of the provided data and considering the applicable laws and regulations, I am pleased to express my opinion that the Form 5500 filing for TRA is accurately prepared and in compliance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) and other relevant regulations governing employee benefit plans.

In reaching this conclusion, I have taken into account the following key factors:

Accuracy of Information: The financial and employee benefit information presented in the Form 5500 filing appears to be complete, accurate, and consistent with the underlying records of the organization.

Compliance with ERISA and Related Regulations: The filing adheres to the guidelines set forth by ERISA and other relevant regulations. It includes all required schedules and attachments, providing a comprehensive overview of the organization's employee benefit plans.

Timely Submission: The Form 5500 filing has been submitted within the designated time frame as stipulated by the Department of Labor and the Internal Revenue Service.

Internal Controls and Governance: During the review process, I observed strong internal controls and governance practices in place, which contribute to the accuracy and reliability of the reported data.

It is important to note that this opinion letter is based solely on the information provided to me by TRA. Should any new information come to light or changes occur that could impact the accuracy or compliance of the Form 5500 filing, this opinion may need to be reevaluated.

I recommend that TRA retain all relevant documents and records supporting the Form 5500 filing for a minimum of six years, as required by ERISA regulations. This will aid in the event of any future audits or inquiries from regulatory authorities.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or require further clarification regarding my assessment. I am available to provide additional assistance or guidance, as needed.
