Re: idfive, LLC 401(k) Plan 2022 Form 5500

Dear EBSA:

We are filing with this letter a Form 5500 for the above name Plan, along with an amended Form 5500 for the same for the calendar year ending 2022.

The new filing is late, however we believe we have circumstances that qualify as "reasonable cause" and, therefore, request that both EBSA and the IRS grant a waiver or abatement of any late filing penalties that may be assessed due to these late filings.

As background to this request, idfive, LLC was acquired by Andres Zapata on May 13, 2022. As an asset purchase, the corporate name and 401(k) plan were part of the assets acquired in order to keep the changes as seamless as possible for the employees and all Plan Participants. The acquiring company kept ADP as its payroll vendor and ADP as its 401k administrator.

ADP changed the EIN in the plan data to the new company and filed the 5500 under this new EIN. It has been brought to our attention that in order to provide the correct paper trail, a final 5500 should have been filed under the old EIN showing the plan assets being transferred over and the 5500 that was filed under the new EIN should have reflected those plan assets being transferred in.

ADP has agreed to amend the filings as stated and attached.

We sincerely appreciate your consideration in waiving any potential penalties in relation to the attached filings.

Sincerely,

Tara Nowakowski
