Re: Request for penalty abatement under reasonable cause

From: Merchants Capital Corporation 401 (K) Profit Sharing Plan (EIN: 47-1985536)

Dear Sir/Madam

I am writing to ask that our plan receive no penalties or interest incurred by our tardy filing of form 5500. We understand that we should have filed within the regular filing period, and we apologize.

The reason for our late filing is due to a misunderstanding between ourselves and our preparers. We had our preparer about records and an extension. We first back when originally attempting to file in January of 2023 were unable to get all the appropriate records in a timely manner and so our preparer filed an extension on our behalf. This was the subject of a misunderstanding between ourselves and the preparer on the length of the extension. The actual extension was until October of 2023 while we were under the impression that it extended into the filing period for our 2023 5500-SF.

In summation we understand that we are late in filing but do to the above circumstances we would ask that Internal Revenue Service issue no penalties or interest on our filing.
