To Those Charged with Governance and Management of Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan
7500 West Memorial Road
Oklahoma City, OK 73142

We have conducted an Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of the financial statements of Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2022 and have issued our report thereon dated August 22, 2023. Professional standards require that we advise you of the following information related to our audit.

Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit

As communicated in our audit engagement letter for the audit of the financial statements mentioned above, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to conduct our audit in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Therefore, as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), the audit need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution). For an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit, the audit will not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirement of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Accordingly, the objective of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

We are also responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to you.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We conducted our audit consistent with the planned scope and timing we previously communicated to you.

Compliance with All Ethics Requirements Regarding Independence

The engagement team, others in our firm, as appropriate, our firm, and our network firms have complied with all relevant ethical requirements regarding independence.

In the normal course of our professional association with Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan , we generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, significant events or transactions that occurred during the year, business conditions affecting the plan, and business plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement. None of the matters discussed resulted in a condition to our retention as Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan 's auditors.

Qualitative Aspects of the Plan's Significant Accounting Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

Management has the responsibility to select and use appropriate accounting policies. A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan is included in Note 2 to the financial statements. As described in Note 2 to the financial statements, during the year, the plan adopted the accrual method of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). No matters have come to our attention that would require us, under professional standards, to inform you about (1) the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and (2) the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's current judgments. Those judgments are normally based on knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ markedly from management's current judgments. The most sensitive accounting estimates affecting the financial statements are:

Management's estimate of the fair value of investments is described in Note 4 to the financial statements. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value of investments and determined that it is reasonable in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Financial Statement Disclosures

Certain financial statement disclosures involve significant judgment and are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most significant disclosures affecting the financial statements are:

Fair Value Measurements disclosure note, which describes the valuation methodologies used to estimate the fair value of investments.

Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts disclosure note, which describes the key factors and assumptions used to develop the contract value of the underlying investment.

Significant Unusual Transactions

We encountered no significant unusual transactions during the performance of the audit.

Significant Difficulties Encountered during the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management relating to the performance of the audit.

Uncorrected and Corrected Misstatements

For purposes of this communication, professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that we believe are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Further, professional standards require us to also communicate the effect of uncorrected misstatements related to prior periods on the relevant classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures, and the financial statements as a whole. The management representation letter described below includes an attachment that summarizes uncorrected financial statement misstatements whose effects in the current and prior periods, as determined by management, are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole. Uncorrected misstatements or matters underlying those uncorrected misstatements could potentially cause future-period financial statements to be materially misstated, even though the uncorrected misstatements are immaterial to the financial statements currently under audit.

In addition, professional standards require us to communicate to you all material, corrected misstatements that were brought to the attention of management as a result of our audit procedures. See Notes to the financial statements, Reconciliation to Form 5500 for material, corrected misstatements.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, which could be significant to Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan 's financial statements or the auditor's report. No such disagreements arose during the course of the audit.

Representations Requested from Management

We have requested certain written representations from management, which are included in the attached letter dated August 22, 2023.

Management's Consultations with Other Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. Management informed us that, and to our knowledge, there were no consultations with other accountants regarding auditing and accounting matters.

Internal Control Matters

Except as discussed in the Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal controls and considered their nature as follows:

- A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.
- A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.
- A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis.

We identified the following deficiencies in the Plan's internal control, which are also considered to be reportable findings:

Significant Deficiency - Forfeiture Balances

Matters Identified: During our audit, we found that there are no procedural controls to ensure forfeited participant accounts are used by the end of the following year after the forfeitures are generated pursuant to Plan provisions. The Internal Revenue Code (IRC) requires that these forfeited accounts be used pursuant to Plan provisions. We noted forfeitures used during the audit year are less than the beginning balance of forfeitures available.

Recommendation: We recommend the Plan use or reallocate these forfeited accounts as soon as possible and plan management put in place a procedural control to monitor that all forfeitures created are used pursuant to Plan provisions. We also recommend Plan management consider consultation with ERISA counsel to determine if an official correction is necessary to ensure the Plan remains in compliance with ERISA and IRC regulations.

Management Response: The forfeiture balances will be utilized on September 30, 2023.

Significant Deficiency - Employer Match Calculation

Matters Identified: During our audit, we noted there are insufficient controls in place to ensure employer match is accurately calculated and remitted to the Plan. We noted certain employees had inaccurate match calculated and remitted to the Plan for the audit plan year.

Correction Complete: On March 16, 2023, employer match contribution true up amounts were deposited to affected participant accounts.

Recommendation: We recommend Plan management put policies and procedures in place to ensure accurate calculation of employer matching contributions and review by someone other than preparer, as well as accurate remittance of employer matching contributions to the Plan and review by someone other than preparer.

Other Matters

The ERISA-required supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, were subjected to the audit procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS).

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information which we believe is a material misstatement of fact. We obtained and read a substantially complete draft of the Form 5500 prior to the dating of our auditor's report. Material inconsistencies with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements are included in the financial statement footnote Reconciliation to Form 5500, if any. Our procedures are not sufficient, nor are they intended, to determine that the Form 5500 is completely and accurately prepared.

Audit Requirement and Participant Count Methodology Form 5500 Plan Year Ends Beginning on or after January 1, 2023

Certain changes for the 2023 Form 5500 annual reports were instituted by the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration by a bulletin on February 23, 2023 (effective for plan years beginning on or after January 1, 2023). The key revision relates to a change in the participant-counting methodology for determining eligibility for simplified reporting alternatives available to small plans. The methodology will now be based on the number of participants with account balances, rather than the current method that counts individuals who are eligible to participate even if they have not elected to participate and do not have an account in the plan. We suggest reviewing the audit requirement for the Plan and the participant count methodology during the 2023 Form 5500 preparation process.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of those charged with governance and management of Chickasaw Community Bank 401(k) Plan and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.
