Independent Auditor's Report

To the Trustees
Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust
Seattle, Washington

Opinion on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of September 30, 2023 and 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements (financial statements).

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust as of September 30, 2023 and 2022, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended September 30, 2023, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion on the Financial Statements

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the plan; and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

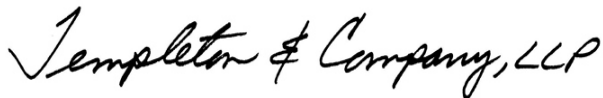

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit. .

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 – Description of Plan

The following description of the Leisure Care Health Benefits Trust (the Trust or Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan provides for health and other benefits covering the employees of Leisure Care, LLC and its affiliates (collectively, the Plan Sponsor). The Plan began effective October 1, 2020, to provide benefits to the employees of the Plan Sponsor for health, vision, dental, life, group long term care and long-term disability benefits to all full-time employees (a minimum of 30 hours per week). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended. The Plan's Trustees oversee governance of the Plan.

Eligibility

The Plan allows employees to enter the Plan based on their classification and are eligible to enter the Plan at various dates based on their date of hire. Based on the classification of the employees, Plan entry dates range from the first day following the month of hire up to two months after the employee's hire date.

Benefits

The Plan provides health benefits (medical, dental, vision, long-term disability, group long term care and life) to full-time employees of the Plan Sponsor, as defined, and to their beneficiaries and covered dependents.

Current health claims of participants and their dependents and beneficiaries are provided under group insurance contracts with Premiera Blue Cross, which are experienced rated after the anniversary dates (generally October 1). Death benefits are covered by a group term policy with Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company. Group long-term care benefits are covered by UNUM Life Insurance Company of America.

Contributions

The Plan Sponsor's policy is to contribute the maximum amount allowed as a tax deduction by the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Under present law, the Plan Sponsor is not permitted to deduct amounts for future benefits to current employees and terminated employees.

Employees and certain terminated employees electing to continue coverage, may contribute specified amounts, determined periodically by the Plan's insurance companies, to extend coverage to eligible dependents.

Plan termination

Although it has not expressed any intention to do so, the Plan Sponsor has the right under the Plan and Trust Agreement to modify the benefits provided to active employees, discontinue contributions at any time, and to terminate the Plan under the provisions of ERISA.

Plan administration

Leisure Care, LLC and its affiliates is the Plan Sponsor and administrator of the Plan and, as such, controls and manages the operation and administration of the Plan. Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Plan Sponsor and are excluded from these financial statements.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS, CONTINUED

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Plan have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. On an ongoing basis, Plan management evaluates the estimates and assumptions based upon historical experience and various other factors and circumstances. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents are defined as cash and short-term investments with maturity dates of less than 90-days.

Income taxes

Management analyzes tax positions in jurisdictions where it is required to file income tax returns. Interest and penalties attributable to income taxes, if any, are included in operating expenses. No such interest or penalties were recorded for the year ended September 30, 2023.

Based on its evaluation, management did not identify any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will significantly increase or decrease.

Risks and uncertainties

The present value is reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, healthcare inflation rates, and participant demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimation and assumption process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near-term would be material to the financial statements.

Concentration of credit risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Plan to concentration of credit risk include temporary cash investments. The Plan places a portion of its cash with high credit-quality financial institutions. Such balances may exceed federally insured FDIC limits. The Plan has not experienced any losses in such accounts.

Note 3 – Benefits Obligations

Health costs incurred by participants and their beneficiaries and dependents are covered by insurance contracts maintained by the Plan. It is the present intention of the Plan Sponsor and the Plan to continue obtaining insurance coverage for benefits. As stated in Note 1, the Plan Sponsor is not permitted under present tax law to deduct amounts for future benefits (beyond one year).

Note 4 – Tax Status

The Trust established under the Plan to hold the Plan's net assets is qualified pursuant to Section 501(c)(9) of the IRC, and, accordingly, the Trust's net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Trust received a favorable tax exemption letter from the Internal Revenue Service and the Plan Sponsor believes that the Trust and the Plan, as amended, continue to qualify and to operate as designed. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require the plan administrator to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability for any uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan is subject to routine audits by tax authorities; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Note 5 – Subsequent Events

The Plan evaluated events occurring subsequent to September 30, 2023 through July 3, 2024, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued, for matters that should be recorded in the financial statements or disclosed in the footnotes thereto.
