As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), my audit need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained a certification from Reliance Trust Company as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the year ended December 31, 2023, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

The information in the financial statements referred to above related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). My responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of my report. I am required to be independent of Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan, and to meet my other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to my audits. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of my report, my objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes my opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, I:

Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.

Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

Conclude whether, in my judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

My audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

I am required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that I identified during the audit.

Other Matters

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedule, Schedule H Line 4i – Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, I compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming my opinion on the supplemental schedule, I evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In my opinion,

The form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

The information in the supplemental schedule related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022

NOTE 1 – DESCRIPTION OF PLAN

The following description of the Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan (the “Plan”) provides only general information. The Plan document provides a more complete description.

History and General Information

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering substantially all employees of Atlanta Bonded Warehouse (the “Company”) who have completed one year of service and are not classified as “Flex” employees. There is no minimum age requirement for participation in the Plan. Based in Metro Atlanta, the Company is one of the Southeast’s leading providers of temperature-controlled warehousing, co-packaging, and transportation services. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”), as amended.

Employee Contributions

Participants may contribute on a pre-tax or after-tax basis a minimum of 1% up to a maximum of 50% of their annual compensation, limited to the maximum amount determined annually by the Internal Revenue Service ($22,500 for 2023, and $20,500 for 2022). Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions (up to $7,500 for 2023 and $6,500 for 2022). Participants direct their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. All investments are participant directed. The Plan does not allow rollovers from other qualified retirement plans, but it does allow in-plan Roth conversions and in-plan Roth transfers.

Newly eligible employees are automatically enrolled in the Plan and deemed to have elected a deferral rate of 2% of their pre-tax annual compensation unless the employee affirmatively elects not to participate or elects a different deferral rate. This initial automatic deferral amount increases by 1% per year up to a maximum of 6% of compensation.

Employer Contributions

Effective January 1, 2023, the Plan was amended and became a safe harbor plan as described in the Internal Revenue Code. The Company makes an enhanced matching contribution equal to 100% of the first 6% of a participant’s eligible compensation. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company made safe harbor enhanced matching contributions of $2,341,158.

Plan provisions provide the Company the option to make a flexible discretionary matching contribution each payroll period in an amount to be determined by the Company. The Company retains discretion over the formula for allocation, rate, participants who will receive such allocation, and time period applicable to any flexible discretionary matching formula. Per the adoption agreement, all participants share in the allocation of the flexible discretionary matching contribution regardless of service completed during the Plan year or employment status on the last day of the Plan year. The flexible discretionary match will not exceed 4% of an employee’s compensation. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company did not make a flexible discretionary contribution.

Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022

Plan provisions also provide the Company the option to make a discretionary profit-sharing contribution. Such contribution will be allocated to all employees based on the percentage of their compensation to total compensation of all participants for a plan year. Participants share in the allocation regardless of service completed during a plan year or employment status on the last day of the plan year. No discretionary profit-sharing contributions were made during the year ended December 31, 2023.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contributions and allocations of (a) the Company's matching and discretionary contributions and (b) Plan earnings, and is charged with an allocation of Plan losses and administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined in the Plan document. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the amount that can be distributed from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

The value of individual accounts attributable to a participant's own contributions plus actual earnings thereon are always fully and immediately vested. Employer safe harbor contributions are also fully and immediately vested. Participant vesting in the employer's flexible discretionary match and profit-sharing contributions /plus actual earnings thereon is based on "years of service" as that term is defined in the Plan document. A participant is 100% vested after six years of credited service as follows:

Years of Service	Vested Percentage
Less than 2 years	0%
2 years	20%
3 years	40%
4 years	60%
5 years	80%
6 years	100%

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become 100% vested in their accounts.

Payment of Benefits

On termination of employment, death, disability, or normal retirement age of 65, a participant may elect to receive an amount equal to the vested interest in their account either in a lump sum or in installments.

Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022

If a participant retires or otherwise terminates employment with the Company and their total account balance is greater than $5,000, the participant may leave the balance in the Plan, make a direct rollover from the Plan to another qualified retirement plan or an Individual Retirement Account ("IRA"), receive a single lump-sum payment or take partial withdrawals from the Plan as soon as administratively possible after separating service from the Company. A participant who leaves their balance in the Plan may elect to defer distribution of the account until a later date. However, such deferral may not extend beyond April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year the participant attains age 70½, at which time a required annual minimum distribution from the account must be made. Beginning in 2023, the Setting Every Community Up for Retirement Enhancement ("SECURE") 2.0 Act increased the participant age for required minimum distributions from the Plan to 73.

If no affirmative distribution election is made after termination and the vested portion of a participant's account balance is $1,000 or less, the account will automatically be paid out in the form of a cash distribution with appropriate taxes withheld. A participant whose vested account exceeds $1,000 but does not exceed $5,000 will have their vested account balance rolled over into an individual retirement account outside of the Plan as soon as administratively feasible following termination of employment.

In-service withdrawals may be made by participants who have reached the age of 59 1/2. Hardship distributions are not permitted. Loans are not permitted.

Investment Options

Participants direct the investment of their contributions, as well as the Company's contributions, into various investment options offered by the Plan. The Plan currently offers a diverse group of mutual funds and a common collective trust fund as investment options for participants. See Note 6 for fair value measurement of these investments.

Forfeited Accounts

In accordance with the Plan document, forfeited non-vested accounts can be used to reduce future employer contributions and to pay Plan expenses. For the year ended December 31, 2023, forfeited non-vested accounts totaling $173,736 were used to reduce employer safe-harbor matching contributions.

Excess Contributions Payable

Amounts payable to participants for deferral contributions made to the Plan in excess of amounts allowed by the IRS are recorded as a liability in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits, along with a corresponding reduction in plan assets for corrective distributions in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits. The Plan distributed the excess contributions for the year ended December 31, 2022 to the applicable participants prior to March 15, 2023. There were no excess contributions payable at December 31, 2023.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting, except for benefits paid to participants, which are recorded when paid.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Certain Plan investments are reported at fair value, with fair value measured using the net asset value per share as a practical expedient. See Note 6 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Net appreciation in fair value of investments includes realized gains and losses on investments sold during the year and net unrealized appreciation of investments held at the end of the year. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

Accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by the Financial Accounting Standards Board or other standards-setting bodies are not expected to have a material impact on the Plan's financial statements.

NOTE 3 - INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE CUSTODIAN (UNAUDITED)

The Plan administrator has elected the method of compliance as permitted by 29 C.F.R. 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, as permitted under such election, the Plan administrator instructed the Plan's independent auditor not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to the following information certified by the Custodian, except for comparing such information certified by the Custodian to information included in the Plan's financial statements and supplemental schedule.

Atlanta Bonded Warehouse Corporation 401(k) Retirement Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
For the Years Ended December 31, 2023 and 2022

The following information included in the accompanying financial statements was obtained from data that has been prepared and certified as complete and accurate by the Custodian as of December 31,

	2023	2022
Investments, at fair value	$ 57,482,854	$ 47,416,609
Investment income for the year ended December 31, 2023:
Net appreciation in fair value of investments	$ 6,379,027
Dividends	1,641,380

NOTE 4 – EXEMPT PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Fees for accounting services are paid by the Company. Administrative service fees totaling $6,550 for the year ended December 31, 2023 were paid by the Plan. Fees paid by the Plan for investment management services were netted against the returns earned by each fund.

Certain administrative functions are performed by employees of the Company. No such employee receives compensation from the Plan.

The investments of the Plan are managed by the Custodian; therefore these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

NOTE 5 – INCOME TAX STATUS

The Plan adopted a non-standardized prototype plan sponsored by Automated Data Processing (“ADP”). ADP has received an opinion letter from the IRS dated July 16, 2014 stating that the volume submitter is acceptable under Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”). The Plan has been amended since that date. The Plan sponsor and ADP believe that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with the applicable sections of the IRC. Further, the Plan sponsor believes that the Plan is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC to maintain its tax-exempt status. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan’s financial statements.

The financial statement effects of a tax position are recognized when the position is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, to be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan Administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2023, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken. The Plan has recognized no interest or penalties related to uncertain tax positions. The Plan is subject to audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

NOTE 6 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENT

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or the price paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value measurements are based upon inputs that market participants use in pricing an asset or liability, which are characterized according to a hierarchy that prioritizes those inputs based on the degree to which they are observable. Observable inputs represent market data obtained from independent sources, whereas unobservable inputs reflect a company's own market assumptions, which are used if observable inputs are not reasonably available without undue cost and effort. The three input levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 – quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 – quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability (e.g. interest rates) and inputs derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.
- Level 3 – unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The fair value input hierarchy level into which an asset or liability measurement in its entirety falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the measurement in its entirety.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used since December 31, 2023.

Common collective trust – The Vanguard Retirement Savings Trust (“VRST”), a common collective trust, invests in a combination of synthetic contracts backed primarily by Vanguard fixed income funds, traditional investment contracts and short-term money market funds. The trust seeks to preserve principal with returns comparable to those of short to intermediate-term fixed income securities. The VRST is valued at the net asset value (“NAV”) as provided by the custodian, which is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The NAV is based on the fair value of the underlying investments held by the fund less its liabilities and then divided by number of shares outstanding. This practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the reported NAV. The Plan has no unfunded commitments to the VRST, which allows for daily transactions. The Plan may be subject to a 12-month notice period for redemptions. Redemptions are allowed daily for participants.

Mutual funds – mutual funds are valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-ended mutual funds that are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily NAV and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

The methods described above may produce a fair value estimate that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

(a) In accordance with Topic 820, the investments in common collective trust funds are measured at fair value using the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) as a practical expedient and have not been categorized in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the amounts presented in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

NOTE 7 – RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Plan invests in a variety of investment securities. Investment securities in general are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall volatility risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participant account balances and the amounts reported in the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits.

NOTE 8 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events for potential recognition and/or disclosure through August 15, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
