Report of Independent Auditors

The Retirement Plan Committee of
CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the financial statements of CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the year ended December 31, 2023, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 6 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section:

- the amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).
- the information in the accompanying financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance, and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental Schedule H, Line 4(i) – schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2023, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion:

- the form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, is presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosures under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedule related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 – Description of the Plan

The following description of the CoreLogic, Inc. (the Company) 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General – The Plan is a defined contribution profit sharing plan covering employees of adopting employers and subsidiaries greater than 50% owned by the Company. An employee is eligible to participate in the Plan on the date of hire and if the employee is at least 18 years of age. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The Plan trustee and record keeper are Fidelity Management Trust Company and Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company, respectively.

Contributions – Participants may contribute, on a combined pre-tax and/or after-tax Roth basis, from 1% to 80% of eligible compensation. Participants who are age 50 or older can make additional catch-up contributions. Contributions are subject to Internal Revenue Service (IRS) limitations. During 2022, the Plan was amended to increase the automatic enrollment deferral percentage from 3% to 4%. Additionally, the Plan's automatic escalation maximum deferral percentage was increased from 6% to 10%.

Discretionary matching amounts may be contributed by the Company at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company matched 50% of the first 6% of each eligible participant's compensation to the Plan. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company made an additional discretionary matching contribution of up to .50% for eligible 2023 participants in the Plan. Company contributions for the year ended December 31, 2023, were $12,290,365, which was funded biweekly and invested based on each eligible participant's investment elections under the Plan. The Plan is subject to certain nondiscrimination rules under ERISA and IRS guidelines. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Plan passed all nondiscrimination tests. Participants may also rollover distributions from other qualified 401(k) plans or Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA).

Participant accounts – Participant account activity may include a participant's own contributions and any company contributions, investment earnings, or losses. Allocations of company contributions are based on participant compensation and participant contributions to the Plan. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting – Participants are immediately vested in their contributions, plus actual earnings thereon. Employer matching contributions, plus actual earnings thereon are immediately vested for participants who are credited with at least one hour of service prior to January 1, 2021, and vested after one year of service for participants credited with at least one hour of service on or after January 1, 2021.

Investment options – The Plan currently offers various mutual funds, which includes asset allocation strategy mutual funds, various collective trusts, and a money market fund. A participant may direct contributions in 1% increments to any of the available investment options. Investment options may be changed at any time.

Notes to Financial Statements

Payment of benefits – The Plan allows for participant withdrawals in lump sum amounts upon retirement, death, disability, termination, or attainment of the eligible age as defined by the Plan. Participants may also withdraw from their account balances, as defined by the Plan, in the event of financial hardship, which is determined pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and from any amounts rolled over from a 401(k) plan or IRA.

Notes receivable from participants – Participants may borrow a portion of their account balance pursuant to rules and procedures established by the Plan's administrative committee. The amount borrowed may not exceed the lesser of 50% of the value of the participant's account balance or $50,000. Participants may have only one note outstanding at a time. Notes that are rolled into the Plan in connection with an acquisition by the Company will not be included in determining whether a participant has more than one outstanding note.

Note terms are determined based on the provisions established by the Plan's administrative committee. Notes are collateralized by the balance in the participant's account and bear a rate of interest that is correlated with the federal prime rate at the time the note is made, as determined by the Plan's administrative committee. Notes are fully amortized and paid back through principal and interest via payroll deduction or other method as determined by the Plan's administrative committee if payroll deduction is not available to the participant. Notes must be repaid to the Plan within a five-year period unless the loan is used for the purchase of a principal residence, in which case the maximum repayment period may be longer. A participant may fully repay a note at any time without penalty; however, partial prepayments are not permitted. As of December 31, 2023, the rates of interest on outstanding notes ranged from 4.25%–9.50% with various maturities through October 2033.

Plan termination – Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting – The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Investment valuation and income recognition – Plan investments are reported at fair value, which is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 3 – Fair Value Measurements, for discussion of fair value measurements.

Shares of mutual funds and money market funds are valued at the net asset value of the shares held by the Plan at year end. Shares of the collective trust fund are valued at the daily closing price as reported by the collective trust. Investments in security transactions are accounted for on the date securities are purchased or sold. Dividend income is recorded in the participant accounts on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. The Plan presents in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits the net appreciation in the fair value of its investments which consists of the realized losses/gains and the unrealized depreciation/appreciation on those investments.

Notes to Financial Statements

Revenue sharing – The Plan shares in management fee revenues generated within certain mutual fund investments. The shared revenues are maintained in a separate credit account and are used to pay qualified plan expenses. During the year ended December 31, 2023, shared revenues totaling $193,711 were received by the Plan and are reported as other income.

Notes receivable from participants – Notes from participants are measured at unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. Delinquent notes receivable are reclassified as distributions upon the occurrence of a distributable event based on the terms of the Plan Document. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Expenses – Certain administrative expenses related to operating and maintaining the Plan are paid by the Company. Certain investment and transaction fees are paid by participants in the Plan. Expenses are netted with revenue sharing and are included in other income on the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Payment of benefits – Benefits are recorded when paid.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements requires the Plan's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. In addition, estimates and assumptions are utilized in determining disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and uncertainties – Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in circumstances in the near term would materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the statement of net assets available for benefits date but before the financial statements are issued. The Plan recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Plan's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits but arose after the statement of net assets available for benefits date and before the financial statements are issued.

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through October 2, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were issued.

CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 3 – Fair Value Measurements

When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities required to be recorded at fair value, the Plan considers the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions, and risk of nonperformance.

A fair value hierarchy requires the Plan to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). Level 2 measurements utilize observable inputs in active markets for similar assets and liabilities, or quoted prices in markets that are not active.

The methods described below may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Registered investment companies (mutual funds)— Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Collective trusts – Units held in collective trusts (CTs) are valued using the net asset value practical expedient (NAV practical expedient) of the CTs as reported by the CT managers. The NAV practical expedient is based on the fair value of the underlying assets owned by the CTs, minus its liabilities, and then divided by the number of units outstanding. The Great Gray collective trusts are valued using NAV practical expedient. The Great Gray collective trusts can be redeemed daily and require an advance written notice of 5 days for withdrawals that exceed $1,000,000.

The NAV practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the NAV practical expedient. The Small Cap Value Fund II Fee Class I1 collective trust held by the Plan is classified as an actively traded investment, thereby qualifying it as a Level 1 investment.

Note 4 – Related-Party and Party-in-Interest Transactions

The Company, which qualifies as a party-in-interest, absorbs certain administrative expenses of the Plan. Such transactions qualify for a statutory exemption. Plan expenses, including expenses of the Plan's administrative committee and the Plan's trustee, to the extent not paid by the Plan, are paid by the Company.

Certain plan investments are shares of mutual funds managed by Fidelity Management and Research (FMR) Company. Fidelity Management Trust Company and Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company, Inc., related entities to FMR, are the trustee and record keeper, respectively, as defined by the Plan, and therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. The fair value of such investments totaled $185,369,996 and $68,213,974 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Note 5 – Federal Income Tax Status

In August 2019, the Company adopted a volume submitter plan document sponsored by Fidelity Management Trust Company. Fidelity Management Trust Company has received an advisory letter from the IRS on June 30, 2020, stating that the form of the underlying volume submitter document is qualified in accordance with applicable sections of the IRC. The Plan is required to operate in conformity with the Plan Document to maintain its qualified status. Although the Plan was amended since receiving the advisory letter, the Plan administrator believes the Plan is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements, and therefore, believes the Plan is qualified.

Tax positions taken by the Plan have been analyzed and it has been concluded that, as of December 31, 2023, there are no uncertain positions taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Note 6 – Information Certified by the Trustee

The Plan administrator has elected the method of compliance permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, Fidelity Management Trust Company, the trustee of the Plan, has certified to the completeness and accuracy of:

- Investments and notes receivable from participants reflected on the accompanying statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022.
- Net appreciation in fair value of investments, dividends and interest, and interest income on notes receivable from participants reflected on the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023.
- Investments reflected on the schedule of assets (held at end of year).

Note 7 – Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market volatility, and credit risks. It is reasonably possible, given the level of risk associated with investment securities, that changes in the values of the investments in the near term could materially affect a participant's account balance and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

Report of Independent Auditors

The Retirement Plan Committee of
CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the financial statements of CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan, an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the year ended December 31, 2023, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 6 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section:

- the amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).
- the information in the accompanying financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with GAAP, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance, and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental Schedule H, Line 4(i) – schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2023, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion:

- the form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, is presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosures under ERISA.
- the information in the supplemental schedule related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 1 – Description of the Plan

The following description of the CoreLogic, Inc. (the Company) 401(k) Savings Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General – The Plan is a defined contribution profit sharing plan covering employees of adopting employers and subsidiaries greater than 50% owned by the Company. An employee is eligible to participate in the Plan on the date of hire and if the employee is at least 18 years of age. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

The Plan trustee and record keeper are Fidelity Management Trust Company and Fidelity Investments Institutional Operations Company, respectively.

Contributions – Participants may contribute, on a combined pre-tax and/or after-tax Roth basis, from 1% to 80% of eligible compensation. Participants who are age 50 or older can make additional catch-up contributions. Contributions are subject to Internal Revenue Service (IRS) limitations. During 2022, the Plan was amended to increase the automatic enrollment deferral percentage from 3% to 4%. Additionally, the Plan's automatic escalation maximum deferral percentage was increased from 6% to 10%.

Discretionary matching amounts may be contributed by the Company at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company matched 50% of the first 6% of each eligible participant's compensation to the Plan. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Company made an additional discretionary matching contribution of up to .50% for eligible 2023 participants in the Plan. Company contributions for the year ended December 31, 2023, were $12,290,365, which was funded biweekly and invested based on each eligible participant's investment elections under the Plan. The Plan is subject to certain nondiscrimination rules under ERISA and IRS guidelines. For the year ended December 31, 2023, the Plan passed all nondiscrimination tests. Participants may also rollover distributions from other qualified 401(k) plans or Individual Retirement Accounts (IRA).

Participant accounts – Participant account activity may include a participant's own contributions and any company contributions, investment earnings, or losses. Allocations of company contributions are based on participant compensation and participant contributions to the Plan. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting – Participants are immediately vested in their contributions, plus actual earnings thereon. Employer matching contributions, plus actual earnings thereon are immediately vested for participants who are credited with at least one hour of service prior to January 1, 2021, and vested after one year of service for participants credited with at least one hour of service on or after January 1, 2021.

Investment options – The Plan currently offers various mutual funds, which includes asset allocation strategy mutual funds, various collective trusts, and a money market fund. A participant may direct contributions in 1% increments to any of the available investment options. Investment options may be changed at any time.

Notes to Financial Statements

Payment of benefits – The Plan allows for participant withdrawals in lump sum amounts upon retirement, death, disability, termination, or attainment of the eligible age as defined by the Plan. Participants may also withdraw from their account balances, as defined by the Plan, in the event of financial hardship, which is determined pursuant to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and from any amounts rolled over from a 401(k) plan or IRA.

Notes receivable from participants – Participants may borrow a portion of their account balance pursuant to rules and procedures established by the Plan's administrative committee. The amount borrowed may not exceed the lesser of 50% of the value of the participant's account balance or $50,000. Participants may have only one note outstanding at a time. Notes that are rolled into the Plan in connection with an acquisition by the Company will not be included in determining whether a participant has more than one outstanding note.

Note terms are determined based on the provisions established by the Plan's administrative committee. Notes are collateralized by the balance in the participant's account and bear a rate of interest that is correlated with the federal prime rate at the time the note is made, as determined by the Plan's administrative committee. Notes are fully amortized and paid back through principal and interest via payroll deduction or other method as determined by the Plan's administrative committee if payroll deduction is not available to the participant. Notes must be repaid to the Plan within a five-year period unless the loan is used for the purchase of a principal residence, in which case the maximum repayment period may be longer. A participant may fully repay a note at any time without penalty; however, partial prepayments are not permitted. As of December 31, 2023, the rates of interest on outstanding notes ranged from 4.25%–9.50% with various maturities through October 2033.

Plan termination – Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting – The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Investment valuation and income recognition – Plan investments are reported at fair value, which is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 3 – Fair Value Measurements, for discussion of fair value measurements.

Shares of mutual funds and money market funds are valued at the net asset value of the shares held by the Plan at year end. Shares of the collective trust fund are valued at the daily closing price as reported by the collective trust. Investments in security transactions are accounted for on the date securities are purchased or sold. Dividend income is recorded in the participant accounts on the ex-dividend date. Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. The Plan presents in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits the net appreciation in the fair value of its investments which consists of the realized losses/gains and the unrealized depreciation/appreciation on those investments.

Notes to Financial Statements

Revenue sharing – The Plan shares in management fee revenues generated within certain mutual fund investments. The shared revenues are maintained in a separate credit account and are used to pay qualified plan expenses. During the year ended December 31, 2023, shared revenues totaling $193,711 were received by the Plan and are reported as other income.

Notes receivable from participants – Notes from participants are measured at unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recognized on an accrual basis as earned. Delinquent notes receivable are reclassified as distributions upon the occurrence of a distributable event based on the terms of the Plan Document. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Expenses – Certain administrative expenses related to operating and maintaining the Plan are paid by the Company. Certain investment and transaction fees are paid by participants in the Plan. Expenses are netted with revenue sharing and are included in other income on the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Payment of benefits – Benefits are recorded when paid.

Use of estimates – The preparation of financial statements requires the Plan's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities. In addition, estimates and assumptions are utilized in determining disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and uncertainties – Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in circumstances in the near term would materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Subsequent events – Subsequent events are events or transactions that occur after the statement of net assets available for benefits date but before the financial statements are issued. The Plan recognizes in the financial statements the effects of all subsequent events that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing the financial statements. The Plan's financial statements do not recognize subsequent events that provide evidence about conditions that did not exist at the date of the statement of net assets available for benefits but arose after the statement of net assets available for benefits date and before the financial statements are issued.

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through October 2, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were issued.

CoreLogic, Inc. 401(k) Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Note 3 – Fair Value Measurements

When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities required to be recorded at fair value, the Plan considers the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions, and risk of nonperformance.

A fair value hierarchy requires the Plan to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurement). Level 2 measurements utilize observable inputs in active markets for similar assets and liabilities, or quoted prices in markets that are not active.

The methods described below may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Registered investment companies (mutual funds)— Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Collective trusts – Units held in collective trusts (CTs) are valued using the net asset value practical expedient (NAV practical expedient) of the CTs as reported by the CT managers. The NAV practical expedient is based on the fair value of the underlying assets owned by the CTs, minus its liabilities, and then divided by the number of units outstanding. The Great Gray collective trusts are valued using NAV practical expedient. The Great Gray collective trusts can be redeemed daily and require an advance written notice of 5 days for withdrawals that exceed $1,000,000.

The NAV practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the fund will sell the investment for an amount different than the NAV practical expedient. The Small Cap Value Fund II Fee Class I1 collective trust held by the Plan is classified as an actively traded investment, thereby qualifying it as a Level 1 investment.

Plan expenses, including expenses of the Plan's administrative committee and the Plan's trustee, to the extent not paid by the Plan, are paid by the Company.
