Reasonable Cause Letter

October 7, 2024

Re: 47 1602085

To Whom it may concern,

Above employer request a waiver of all penalties for late filing of Form 5500 SF. Employer believes there is reasonable cause for this late filing.

Taxpayer established a 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan on January 1, 2020. Since the time of establishment, no contributions by employees or employer have ever been made to the plan. There has never been any participants or assets for the plan. The Employer considered the Plan to be inactive.

The Employer was not aware that the payroll company that established the plan in 2020 was filing Form 5500 SF for 2020 and 2021. Employer switched payroll provider in 2022 and was not aware of the need to file Form 5500 SF for the 2022 because they considered the Plan to be inactive.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. Please contact me with any questions regarding this matter.
