INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Administrator of the Savings and Profit Sharing Plan
and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit

We have performed audits of the accompanying financial statements of the Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and December 31, 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the year ended December 31, 2023, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion on the Financial Statements

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section—

- the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- the information in the financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for Opinion on the Financial Statements

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments; administering the Plan; and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of the Financial Statements section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental Schedule H, Line 4i Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year) for the year ended December 31, 2023 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedule that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including the form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion—

- the form and content of the supplemental schedule, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, is presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

1. Plan Description

The following description of the Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company (the "Plan") is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan established by Alfa Mutual Insurance Company's (the "Company") Board of Directors, under the provisions of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"), which includes a qualified cash or deferred compensation arrangement as described in Section 401(k) of the IRC, for the benefit of eligible employees of the Company, Alfa Services, Inc. and Creative Consultants, Inc. The Plan is funded by voluntary employee and discretionary employer contributions.

Participation in the Plan is available to all eligible employees of the Company and its affiliates (hereinafter referred to as "Employer"). The Plan is subject to certain provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). Employees are eligible to participate in the Plan upon completing one hour of service and attaining the age of twenty-one.

The Plan accepts direct cash rollovers from other qualified plan accounts of eligible employees whether they are Plan participants or not.

Contributions

Contributions to the Plan are made by both participants and the Employer. Participants may elect to contribute a whole percentage of their gross payroll, which is not less than 1% and not greater than 50%, subject to regulatory limitations. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions.

For 2023, the maximum participant contribution allowable by the IRC, excluding catch-up contribution provisions, was $22,500. The maximum catch-up contribution for 2023 was $7,500.

The Employer discontinued matching participant contributions in 2010. As of January 1, 2010, the Employer instituted a discretionary and nonelective contribution for employees hired or rehired after December 31, 2009 and employees hired on or prior to December 31, 2009 who did not satisfy eligibility requirements to participate in the Company's Pension Plan prior to January 1, 2011. During the year ended December 31, 2023, the Employer made discretionary contributions to the Plan and the accounts of plan participants in the amount of $4,574,702.

Participant Accounts

An account is maintained for each participant in the Plan. The participants' accounts are credited with the participants' contributions, their allocated portion of the Employer contributions, and investment earnings, which are allocated based on investments held. Distributions, withdrawals, investment losses and allocated expenses are subtracted from the account balances. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

Forfeited Accounts

At December 31, 2023 and 2022, forfeited nonvested accounts totaled $205,796 and $655,917, respectively. These accounts will be used to reduce future employer contributions. In 2023 and 2022, employer contributions were reduced by $984,273 and $96,819, respectively, from forfeited nonvested accounts.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their contribution. Vesting terms of employer contributions is as follows:

Years of Service	Vested Interest
Less than 2	0 %
2	20 %
3	40 %
4	60 %
5	80 %
6	100 %

Payment of Benefits

Participants may receive a distribution equal to the vested value of their account upon death, disability, retirement, or termination of either the participant's employment or the Plan. Participants with a vested account balance greater than $5,000 can elect to have distributions made in the form of a lump-sum cash payment, partial lump-sum payment and installment payments, or installment payments over a specified period of time. All benefit payments for participants with vested balances less than $5,000 will be made in the form of a lump sum cash payment.

If a distribution in excess of $1,000 is made, and the participant (or designated beneficiary) does not elect to (i) receive the distribution directly or (ii) make an election to roll over the amount to an eligible retirement plan, the Plan administrator must transfer the distribution to an individual retirement plan of a designated trustee or issuer and must notify the participant (or beneficiary) in writing that the distribution may be transferred to another individual retirement plan.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may borrow funds from their accounts in the Plan subject to limitations set forth in the Plan agreement. A loan may not be for less than $1,000 and not more than the lesser of either one-half of the participant's vested account balance or $50,000, reduced by the highest outstanding loan balance during the one-year period preceding the loan date. Generally, the maximum repayment term of a participant loan is five years. However, if the loan is for the purchase of a principal residence, the Company may permit a longer repayment term. A loan will be considered in default if any scheduled loan repayment is not made by the end of the calendar quarter following the calendar quarter in which the missed payment was due. Failure to repay a loan reduces the benefit the Participant would otherwise be entitled to from the Plan. Loan transactions are treated as transfers between the respective investment fund and the participant loan fund. The loans are collateralized by the balance in the participant's account and principal and interest is paid ratably through payroll deductions. Interest rates are determined by the Plan using the prime rate plus one percentage point at the time the loan is requested. The interest rates on the loans outstanding ranged from 4.25% to 9.50% at both December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

Effective February 1, 2022, the Plan was amended to allow direct rollovers of participant loans. A rollover contribution may include a direct rollover of an outstanding loan balance that is not in default for a participant impacted by a business event in accordance with nondiscriminatory procedures set up by the loan administrator. For this purpose, a business event means an acquisition, merger, or similar transaction involving a change in the employer of the employees of a trade or business. Direct rollovers of participant loans totaled $0 and $129,096 in 2023 and 2022, respectively.

Participant loans, including loans in default, are reflected as notes receivable from participants in the accompanying Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Investment Options

Participants may direct their contributions and any related earnings or losses thereon into various investment options including self-directed brokerage accounts, mutual funds and common/collective trust funds. The underlying assets of self-directed brokerage accounts consist of, but are not limited to, money market funds, common stock, mutual funds and unit investment trusts. The underlying assets of mutual funds and the common/collective trust funds are invested in publicly traded debt, equity and other securities options.

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements of the Plan have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) using the accrual method of accounting.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments are stated at fair value. Investments in securities traded on a national exchange are valued at the last reported sales price on the last business day of the Plan year; securities traded in the over-the-counter market and listed securities for which no sale was reported on that date are valued at the mean between the last reported bid and asked prices. Shares of mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices. See Note 4 for further information about the determination of fair value for Plan investments.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Gain or loss on sales of securities is based on the specific identification method. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date and interest is recorded when earned. The Plan presents in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits the net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of its investments, which consists of the realized gains and losses and the unrealized gains and losses on those investments.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and changes therein and the accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Benefit Payments

Benefit payments are recognized when paid.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

Expenses

Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company and are excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants are charged directly to the participant's account and are included in the notes receivable from participants balance. Trustee and investment fees are paid by the Plan and are shown as administrative expenses on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

All applicable pronouncements have been adopted by the Plan.

3. Information Certified by the Trustee

All investment and notes receivable from participants information disclosed in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule, including investments held at December 31, 2023 and 2022 and net appreciation in the fair value of investments, interest, dividends and interest from notes receivable from participants for the year ended December 31, 2023, was obtained or derived from information provided to the Plan administrator and certified as complete and accurate by the trustee of the Plan, Principal Trust Company ("Trustee").

Net appreciation in fair value of investments	$ 32,064,093

4. Fair Value Measurements

ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides a definition of fair value that focuses on an exit price rather than an entry price, establishes a framework for measuring fair value which emphasizes that fair value is a market-based measurement and not an entity-specific measurement, and requires expanded disclosures about fair value measurements. In accordance with the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic, the Plan may use valuation techniques consistent with the market, income and cost approaches to measure fair value.

To increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurement and related disclosures, the Plan utilizes the fair value hierarchy required by the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures

Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

Topic, which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical debt and equity securities.
- Level 2 Prices determined using significant observable inputs that other market participants would use in pricing a security, including quoted price for similar securities.
- Level 3 Prices determined using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs reflect the Plan's own assumptions about the factors that other market participants would use in pricing an investment that would be based on the best information available in the circumstances.

The fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. There have been no changes in the valuation methodologies used at December 31, 2023 and 2022 to determine the Plan's assets at fair value.

The following is a description of the methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Common/Collective Trust Funds

Valued at the Net Asset Value (NAV) of units of a collective investment trust. The NAV, as provided by the trustee, is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The NAV is based on the fair value of the underlying investments held by the fund less its liabilities.

Mutual Funds

Valued at the NAV of shares held by the Plan at year end, which is published daily by the funds and is the basis on which fund shares are traded.

Self-Directed Brokerage Accounts

The self-directed brokerage accounts consist of money market funds, common stock, mutual funds and unit investment trusts. The money market funds are valued at the closing price reported by the fund sponsor from an actively traded exchange. The common stocks are valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded. The mutual funds are valued at the NAV of shares held by the Plan at year end. The unit investment trusts are valued at the reported NAV based on the fair value of the underlying investments.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement as of the reporting date.

5. Related Party Transactions

The Plan makes loans to participants from their accounts subject to limitations set forth in the Plan agreement. The amounts of loans outstanding were $3,896,960 and $3,596,853 at December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The Plan also received interest on these loans of $169,777 and $172,058 for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively.

6. Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") has determined and informed the Company by a determination letter dated June 30, 2020, that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable

Savings and Profit Sharing Plan and Trust Agreement of Alfa Mutual Insurance Company

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

sections of the IRC. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter. However, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's accompanying financial statements.

GAAP requires Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that as of December 31, 2023, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan administrator believes the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2021.

7. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan provides for investments in various investment securities that, in general, are exposed to various risks such as interest rate risk, credit risk and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits and the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.
