To Those Charged with Governance and Management of Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan
675 Silver Spring Road
Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania

We have conducted an Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of the financial statements of Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the Plan) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023 and have issued our report thereon dated October 8, 2024. Professional standards require that we advise you of the following information related to our audit.

Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit

As communicated in our engagement letter for the audit of the financial statements mentioned above, our responsibility, as described by professional standards, is to conduct our audit in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Therefore, as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), the audit need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution). For an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit, the audit will not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirement of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Accordingly, the objective of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP.

We are also responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures for the purpose of identifying other matters to communicate to you.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We conducted our audit consistent with the planned scope and timing we previously communicated to you.

Compliance with All Ethics Requirements Regarding Independence

The engagement team has complied with all relevant ethical requirements regarding independence.

In the normal course of our professional association with Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan, we generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, significant events or transactions that occurred during the year, business conditions affecting the Plan and business plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement. None of the matters discussed resulted in a condition to our retention as Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's auditor.

Qualitative Aspects of the Plan's Significant Accounting Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

Management has the responsibility to select and use appropriate accounting policies. A summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan is included in Note 1 to the financial statements. There have been no initial selection of accounting policies and no changes in significant accounting policies or their application during 2023. No matters have come to our attention that would require us, under professional standards, to inform you about (1) the methods used to account for significant unusual transactions and (2) the effect of significant accounting policies in controversial or emerging areas for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's current judgments. Those judgments are normally based on knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ markedly from management's current judgments. The most sensitive accounting estimates affecting the financial statements are:

Management's estimate of the fair value of investments is described in Note 3 to the financial statements. We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the fair value of investments and determined that it is reasonable in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

Fair value measurements disclosure note describes the valuation methodologies used to estimate the fair value of investments.

Significant Unusual Transactions

We encountered no significant unusual transactions during the performance of the audit.

Significant Difficulties Encountered during the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management relating to the performance of the audit.

Uncorrected and Corrected Misstatements

For purposes of this communication, professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that we believe are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Further, professional standards require us to also communicate the effect of uncorrected misstatements related to prior periods on the relevant classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures and the financial statements as a whole. There were no such uncorrected identified misstatements.

In addition, professional standards require us to communicate to you all material, corrected misstatements that were brought to the attention of management as a result of our audit procedures. There were no misstatements identified by us as a result of our audit procedures and corrected by management that were material, either individually or in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, concerning a financial accounting, reporting or auditing matter, which could be significant to Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan's financial statements or the auditor's report. No such disagreements arose during the course of the audit.

Representations Requested from Management

We have requested certain written representations from management, which are included in the management representation letter dated October 8, 2024.

Management's Consultations with Other Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters. Management informed us that, and to our knowledge, there were no consultations with other accountants regarding auditing and accounting matters.

Internal Control Matters

Except as discussed in the Our Responsibility in Relation to the Financial Statement Audit paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Plan in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal controls and considered their nature as follows:

- A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis.
- A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.
- A control deficiency exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis.

We identified the following deficiency in the Plan's internal control, which was also considered to be reportable finding:

Control Deficiency – Correction of 2023 Plan Year Reportable Audit Findings: Contribution Deferrals

Matters Identified: During our audit in 2022, we noted that one participant was eligible for and elected to enroll in 2022 but was not enrolled until 2023. This resulted in missed contributions to this participant's account. During our audit in 2023, we noted that the reported findings from the 2022 audit were not corrected by management.

We recommend management take the necessary actions to correct the late enrollment for one participant that was eligible to enroll in 2022 but was not enrolled until 2023.

Control deficiency – Incorrect Deferral Changes

Matters Identified: During our audit, we noted one participant with deferral changes that were entered incorrectly by management.

We recommend establishing internal controls to ensure manual errors are prevented or caught in a timely manner, such as comparing the rates in Ascensus to the rates the Plan Sponsor has in FMS and their files monthly.

Control deficiency – Documentation for deferral changes and communication with Ascensus

Matters Identified: During our audit, we noted one participant that did not have documentation to support Roth deferrals stopping during the year. When Brown Plus contacted this participant to confirm their intended deferral rate changes, the participant was unable to confirm whether the changes were correct and was unsure how to navigate the website and needed assistance.

It was also discovered during our audit that the Ascensus website did not allow Plan management to decipher between Roth and pretax deferrals. Due to our audit finding, Ascensus performed an IT update that ensured management and participants can see both Roth and pretax deferral options going forward. It cannot be confirmed whether participants could see both deferral options prior to the IT update.

We recommend Plan management communicate timely with Ascensus when issues with the website arise, and ensure all participants have resources that allow them to navigate the Ascensus website. We also recommend Plan management confirm with all participants that had both Roth and pretax deferrals and who had made deferral changes on the website, and ensure their deferrals were accurate. The Plan should work with its recordkeeper to then determine with any QNEC is necessary.

Other Matters

The ERISA-required supplemental schedule, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, were subjected to the audit procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS).

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information which we believe is a material misstatement of fact. We obtained and read a substantially complete draft of the Form 5500 prior to the dating of our auditor's report. Material inconsistencies with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements are included in the financial statement footnote Reconciliation to Form 5500, if any. Our procedures are not sufficient, nor are they intended, to determine that the Form 5500 is completely and accurately prepared.

SECURE 2.0

In December 2022, Securing a Strong Retirement Act (SECURE 2.0) was signed into law. The provisions of SECURE 2.0 continue the themes and reforms that began with the 2019 CARES Act. SECURE 2.0 will require several changes for retirement plans and contains provisions with a variety of effective dates effective in 2023 and beyond. Plan amendments required by SECURE 2.0 generally will need to be made by the first plan year beginning on or after January 1, 2025; however, plans must be operated in accordance with the effective date of each new provision. Certain provisions of SECURE 2.0 will require further regulatory guidance to implement; therefore, plan sponsors will need to closely monitor and work with their third-party administrators to carry out provisions of SECURE 2.0 in an operationally compliant manner. Various articles and resources are publicly available that summarize the key provisions of SECURE 2.0, including key effective dates to be aware of.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of those charged with governance and management of Karns Prime & Fancy Food, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Very truly yours,

Brown Plus
