INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Plan Administrator
Lee University Defined Contribution Retirement Plan

Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audits

We were engaged to perform audits of the financial statements of the Lee University Defined Contribution Retirement Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from a qualified institution as of and for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note 3 to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

We do not express an opinion on the accompanying financial statements of the Plan. Because of the significance of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion section of our report, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on the financial statements.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the inadequacies in the Plan's records relating to certain annuity contracts and custodial accounts issued to current and former employees for the period prior to January 1, 2009, we were unable to perform auditing procedures with respect to individual participant account balances accumulated from the inception of the Plan, or to satisfy ourselves as to the basis on which the participants' equity is stated as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, or the propriety of the distributions to participants who terminated and withdrew during the years then ended.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"), and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued or are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the Plan, and determining that the Plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the Plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audits of the Financial Statements

Our responsibility is to conduct an audit of the Plan's financial statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and to issue an auditors' report. However, because of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion section of our report, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion on these financial statements.

We are required to be independent of the Plan, and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits.

Other Matter - Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2023, is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matters described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion section of our report, it is inappropriate to and we do not express an opinion on this supplemental schedule.

Disclaimer of Opinion on Unaudited Other Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic financial statements as a whole. The unaudited schedule of Lee University Employees' Participation in the Retirement Plan of the Church of God Benefits Board, Inc., which is the responsibility of management, is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has not been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements, and accordingly, we do not express an opinion or provide any assurances on it.

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

(1) Description of plan

The following description of the Lee University Defined Contribution Retirement Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The Plan is a participant-directed defined contribution plan which was adopted on July 1, 1971, to provide retirement benefits for employees of Lee University (the "University" or "Plan Sponsor"). The Plan is a 403(b) plan covering all eligible employees of the University on their date of hire (participants). However, the participants cannot receive employer contributions until they reach age 21 and complete one year of service. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

(b) Contributions

Participants may voluntarily make qualified retirement contributions to the Plan which are deductible by the participants for federal income tax purposes under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or defined contribution plans. The University matches an amount equal to 100% of each participant's contributions up to 5% of each participant's compensation after a year of service. The matching contribution was suspended effective July 1, 2022. During 2023, the University elected to retroactively contribute the suspended 2022 employer matching contributions and the suspended matching contributions through June 30, 2023, to active employees. The University may make non-elective contributions for each eligible participant that enrolls in the Plan, even for eligible participants electing a zero percent deferral. There were no non-elective contributions made by the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022. Participants may direct these contributions to a variety of investment options offered by Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association of America (TIAA) and College Retirement Equities Fund (CREF).

(c) Participant accounts

Each participant's account is credited (charged) with the participant's contributions, Plan Sponsor contributions, allocations of investment earnings (losses), and administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant account balances as defined in the plan agreement. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

(d) Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their elective salary deferral and Plan Sponsor matching and non-elective contributions plus actual earnings (losses) thereon.

LEE UNIVERSITY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

(e) Participant notes receivable

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance. The loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account and bear interest at fixed rates ranging from 4.25% to 9.25%, which are commensurate with local prevailing rates as determined quarterly by the plan administrator. Principal and interest are paid ratably through payroll deductions.

(f) Payment of benefits

On termination of service due to death, permanent disability, or retirement, a participant (or his or her beneficiaries) may elect to receive either a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's interest in his or her account, or in monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual installments over a period not to exceed the participant's (or beneficiaries') life expectancy or a joint and survivor annuity. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant may receive the value of the interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution.

(g) Hardship withdrawals

The Plan permits distributions in the event of a hardship, as defined in the plan agreement. These distributions are taxable and subject to a tax penalty equal to 10% of the hardship distribution amount if the participant is younger than age 59½. Hardship withdrawals are limited to the participant's elective account balance.

(h) Administrative expenses

Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Plan Sponsor and are excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to recordkeeping, advisory, and certain other expenses are included in administrative expenses and allocated among the participant accounts. Investment related expenses are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments.

(i) Plan termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Plan Sponsor has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

(2) Summary of significant accounting policies

(a) Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting.

LEE UNIVERSITY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

(b) Participant notes receivable

Participant notes receivable are measured at their unpaid principal balances plus accrued but unpaid interest. Delinquent participant notes are reclassified as distributions based upon the terms of the plan document.

(c) Investment valuation and income recognition

Investments are stated at fair value (except for the benefit-responsive fixed annuity contract, which is reported at contract value). Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's Investment Oversight Committee determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisers and TIAA and CREF. See Notes 4 and 5 for further discussion of valuation measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

(d) Payment of benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

(e) Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of net assets available for benefits and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Events occurring after reporting date

The Plan's management has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between December 31, 2023, and October 11, 2024, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, for possible recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

LEE UNIVERSITY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

(3) Certified information

Certain information related to investments and participant notes receivable reported and disclosed in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year), including the fair value and contract value of investments and participant notes receivable held at December 31, 2023 and 2022, and net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments, interest income, dividends, and interest income from participant notes receivable for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, was obtained or derived from information supplied to the plan administrator and certified as complete and accurate by TIAA and CREF.

(4) Fair value measurements

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities (Level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

- (i) Registered investment company shares: Valued at the net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Plan at year-end in an active market.

LEE UNIVERSITY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

- (ii) Non benefit-responsive fixed annuity contracts: Valued at fair value based on the amount the Plan Sponsor would receive if the contracts were terminated at the reporting date, which is book value determined by the insurance company. See Note 5 for additional provisions of the fixed annuity contracts.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan's management believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2023 and 2022:

(5) Fixed annuity contracts with insurance company

The Plan holds fixed annuity contracts that are guaranteed and backed by the claims-paying ability of life insurance company, TIAA. The Plan's ability to receive amounts due is dependent on the issuer's ability to meet its financial obligations. The issuer's ability to meet its contractual obligations may be affected by future economic and regulatory developments.

LEE UNIVERSITY DEFINED CONTRIBUTION RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to the Financial Statements

December 31, 2023 and 2022

The TIAA traditional non benefit-responsive contracts are included in the financial statements at fair value, which approximates contract value as reported to the Plan by TIAA. Contract value represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The fair/contract value of the non benefit-responsive contracts were $13,558,884 and $13,816,023 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The crediting interest rate is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer, but may not be less than 1%. Such interest rates are reviewed on a quarterly basis for resetting.

The TIAA traditional benefit-responsive contract meets the fully benefit-responsive investment contract criteria and therefore is reported at contract value. Contract value is the relevant measure for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because this is the amount received by participants if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. Contract value, as reported to the Plan by TIAA, represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value. The contract value of the benefit-responsive contract was $1,268,533 and $1,298,637 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. The crediting interest rate is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer, but may not be less than 1%. The crediting rate is reviewed on a quarterly basis for resetting.

The fixed annuity contracts with TIAA are offered through a variety of sub-contracts which determine the applicability of certain account features, such as the degree of liquidity of the participant's account and the options for receiving income upon retirement. Among the various sub-contracts, the sub-contract, Retirement Annuity (RA), does not allow lump-sum cash withdrawals from the fixed annuity contract and transfers must be spread over a period of 10 annual installments. The sub-contract, Retirement Choice (RC), permits lump-sum withdrawals only within 120 days after termination of employment and is subject to a surrender charge. All other withdrawals and transfers from the RA or RC fixed annuity contracts to other investment options available to the Plan must be spread over a period of 10 and 7 annual installments, respectively (or five annual installments for withdrawals after termination of employment).

Purchases and sales of non-benefit responsive fixed annuity contracts for 2023 and 2022 were as follows:

	2023	2022
Purchases	$ 1,581,455	$ 2,448,257
Sales	$ 2,311,857	$ 2,345,496

December 31, 2023 and 2022

(6) Plan loans

Under the terms of the Plan, participants can borrow amounts directly from TIAA and CREF in amounts ranging from $1,000 up to the lesser of 50% of their account balance in the Plan or $50,000. Adequate security is required and a portion of the participant's account is held in the TIAA Traditional Annuity account as collateral in case of default. Collateral held in the Plan was $38,432 and $69,081 as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, respectively. Principal payments increase the amount of funds available for the participant's use. A fixed or variable interest rate is charged to each participant with an outstanding loan. A portion of that interest is paid directly to TIAA and CREF, and the remaining interest is credited to the participant's account.

(7) Income tax status

The Plan Sponsor adopted a volume submitter 403(b) plan document. The Plan Sponsor received an opinion letter dated August 7, 2017, from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) stating that the Plan was designed in accordance with the applicable sections of the IRC. The Plan itself has not received a determination letter. The Plan has been amended since receiving the opinion letter. However, the Plan Sponsor believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

(8) Related party and party-in-interest transactions

Certain plan investments are shares of registered investment companies, managed by TIAA and CREF. Other investments are fixed annuity contracts and a pooled separate account, which are managed by TIAA. These transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. As described in Note 1, the Plan paid expenses to various service providers and holds participant notes receivable, which also qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

(9) Risks and uncertainties

The Plan utilizes various investment instruments. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.
