REPORT OF INDEPENDENT CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Plan Administrator
Wolters Kluwer CCH, Springhouse and Waverly Pension Plan

Scope and nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit

We have performed audits of the financial statements of Wolters Kluwer CCH, Springhouse and Waverly Pension Plan (the "Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit). The financial statements comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the statement of accumulated Plan benefits as of December 31, 2022 and related statement of changes in accumulated Plan benefits for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management, having determined it is permissible in the circumstances, has elected to have the audits of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audits need not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, provided that the statements or information regarding assets so held are prepared and certified to by the bank or similar institution or insurance carrier in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA (qualified institution).

Management has obtained certifications from qualified institutions as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and for the years then ended, stating that the certified investment information, as described in Note I to the financial statements, is complete and accurate.

Opinion

In our opinion, based on our audits and on the procedures performed as described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section

- The amounts and disclosures in the accompanying financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- The information in the accompanying financial statements related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (US GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit opinion.

Responsibilities of management for the financial statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. Management's election of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit does not affect management's responsibility for the financial statements.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan, and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Except as described in the Scope and Nature of the ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) Audit section of our report, our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with US GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with US GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Our audits did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other matter – supplemental schedules required by ERISA

The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2023 and schedule of reportable transactions for the year ended December 31, 2023 are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements but are supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such supplementary information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information included in the supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures. These additional procedures included comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with US GAAS. For information included in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, we compared such information to the related certified investment information.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedules, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedules, other than the information agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion

- The form and content of the supplemental schedules, other than the information in the supplemental schedules that agreed to or is derived from the certified investment information, are presented, in all material respects, in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- The information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

December 31, 2023 and 2022

NOTE A - DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

The following description of the Wolters Kluwer CCH, Springhouse and Waverly Pension Plan (the Plan) is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan document for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a non-contributory defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all employees hired prior to December 31, 1995, of CCH, Inc. and certain wholly owned subsidiaries, including CT Corporation System, CCH Legal Information Services, Inc. and its subsidiaries, CCH Computax, Inc. and former eligible employees of certain divested businesses, except for those employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement that does not provide for participation in the Plan. The Plan also covers substantially all full-time employees hired prior to July 1, 1999, of Springhouse Corporation and substantially all full-time employees hired prior to January 1, 1997, of Waverly, Inc. Collectively, the companies listed here are referred to as the Company.

Effective December 31, 1996, the Plan was amended to freeze benefit accruals and participation to employees participating in the former CCH Consolidated Pension Plan. No employee hired after December 31, 1995, may participate in the former plan, and existing participants did not accrue additional benefits after December 31, 1996. Effective December 31, 2000, the Plan was amended to freeze benefit accruals and participation to employees participating in the former Springhouse Corporation Pension Plan and former Waverly, Inc. Pension Plan. No credited service after December 31, 2000, is included in calculating benefit accruals.

Effective as of the close of business on December 31, 2004, the Springhouse Corporation Pension Plan and the Waverly, Inc. Pension Plan were merged into the Plan, at the time known as the CCH Consolidated Pension Plan. Effective January 1, 2006, the Plan was amended and restated, and renamed the Wolters Kluwer CCH, Springhouse and Waverly Pension Plan. The respective benefit formulas and accumulated service of the former plans continue under the Plan for the former participants of the merged plans.

The board of directors of Wolters Kluwer U.S. Corporation controls and manages the operation and administration of the Plan. Effective March 1, 2006, The Northern Trust Company (Northern Trust) was appointed sole trustee of the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

In April 2022, the Plan purchased a group annuity separate account contract from Pacific Life Insurance Company (Pacific Life) for approximately $96,000,000. In September 2022, the Plan received a refund of $1,565,500, which is shown as Other income in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. This transaction represents an annuity buy-in under which the Plan retains both the fair value of the annuity contract (within plan assets) and the pension benefit obligations related to its participants. Through the contract, Pacific Life provides a commitment to fund future pension payments until all plan obligations have been satisfied. This is a single premium, nonparticipating contract.

Pension Benefits

Participants with five years of credited service, as defined by the Plan, are entitled to pension benefits upon retirement. Pension benefits are provided to participants under several types of options based on credited service and age. Retirement benefits are paid to pensioners or beneficiaries in various forms of joint and survivor annuities, including a lump-sum payment option.

December 31, 2023 and 2022

NOTE B - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires Plan management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and changes therein, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan utilizes various investment securities. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate risk, credit risk and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Plan contributions are made, and the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, inflation rates and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimations and assumptions process, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near term would be material to the financial statements.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note C for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses of the Plan are paid by the Plan as provided in the Plan document.

Benefit Payments

Benefit payments to participants are recorded upon distribution.

Under the provisions of the contract with Pacific Life, they will make payments to the Plan each month to fund the monthly benefits for participants covered by the contract. This amount is sent to the Plan's trust account at Northern Trust, and then is paid from the trust account to the participants.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made to prior year amounts to conform to the current year presentation. The reclassifications had no impact on previously reported net assets available for benefits.

NOTE C - FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels as follows:

- Level 1 - Inputs are quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access.
- Level 2 - Inputs (other than quoted prices included within Level 1) that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3 - Inputs are unobservable inputs for the asset or liability and rely on management's own assumptions about the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. (The unobservable inputs should be developed based on the best information available in the circumstances and may include the Company's own data.)

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

However, the determination of what constitutes observable requires judgment by the Plan's management. Plan management considers observable data to be market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by multiple independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market. The categorization of an investment within the fair value hierarchy is based on the pricing transparency of the investment and does not necessarily correspond to Plan management's perceived risk of that investment.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Collective trust fund - Valued at the quoted net asset value (NAV) of shares held by the Plan at year end, which is obtained from the Trustee.

Group annuity contract - Valued at the aggregate discounted cash flows of all expected payments. The discount rate utilized is a mix of market rates and a rate defined in the contract. Expected payments takes into consideration all applicable information provided on an on-going basis regarding participant data and other demographic assumptions as reasonably determined by Pacific Life, that are relevant to the contract value. Pacific Life maintains a separate account in connection with this contract.

The methodologies described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Total investments, at fair value	$ 2,063,438	$ -	$ 75,341,638	$ 77,405,076

There were no assets measured on a nonrecurring basis as of December 31, 2023 or 2022.

Changes in Fair Value of Level 3 Asset

The availability of observable market data is monitored to assess the appropriate classification of financial instruments within the fair value hierarchy. Changes in economic conditions or model-based valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value level to another. There were no transfers of investments in or out of Level 3 during the years ended December 31, 2023 or 2022.

Quantitative Information about Significant Unobservable Inputs Used in Level 3 Fair Value Measurements

The following table summarizes quantitative information about significant unobservable inputs used to determine the fair value on a recurring basis of the Level 3 investment as of December 31:

Principal Valuation Technique	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Significant Input Values
Discounted cash flow	Discount rate	2023 - 4.81%
		2022 - 5.30%

December 31, 2023 and 2022

NOTE D - FUNDING POLICY

Contributions to provide benefits under the Plan are made solely by the Company. The Company's funding policy is to make cash contributions to the Plan in the amounts as determined by the Plan's independent actuary. The Company met the minimum funding requirements of ERISA for the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

NOTE E - ACCUMULATED PLAN BENEFITS

Accumulated plan benefits are those future periodic payments, including lump-sum distributions that are attributable under the Plan's provisions to service rendered by employees as of the valuation date. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to (1) retired or terminated employees or their beneficiaries, (2) beneficiaries of employees who have died, and (3) present employees or their beneficiaries. The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is determined by an independent actuary, Aon, and is that amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to adjust the accumulated plan benefits to reflect the time value of money (through discounts for interest) and the probability of payment (by means of decrements such as for death, disability, withdrawal or retirement) between the valuation date and the expected date of payment. The effect of Plan amendments is recognized during the year in which such amendments become effective.

Given terms and conditions of the group annuity separate account contract purchased from Pacific Life, as disclosed in Note A, the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits as of December 31, 2022 was calculated to be equal to the group annuity contract value, plus an expense load for expenses to be paid by the Plan. Management intends to pay for Plan expenses from the trust with the intention of exhausting the remaining value of the collective trust fund investment. After this investment is depleted, expenses are expected to be paid directly by the Plan Sponsor. Therefore, the administrative expense load is set equal to the excess of the Plan's assets over the group annuity contract value as of the valuation date. The expected return on plan assets (4.80% as of December 31, 2022) is determined by matching the present value of the Plan's cash flows to the group annuity contract value.

The significant actuarial assumptions used in the December 31, 2021 valuation were as follows:

Mortality	RP-2006 projected generationally from 2012 using Scale MP-2021
Retirement age	Age based retirement rates between age 55 and 70
Interest rate	3.60%

The foregoing actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. If the Plan were to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits. The computations of the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits were made as of January 1, 2023 and 2022. Had the valuation been performed as of December 31, there would be no material differences.

NOTE F - RELATED-PARTY AND PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are shares of funds managed by Northern Trust. Northern Trust is the trustee as defined by the Plan. Mercer Investments is the investment advisor for the Plan. Transactions with these service providers qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions.

December 31, 2023 and 2022

Wolters Kluwer U.S. Corporation provides certain accounting and administrative services to the Plan for which it receives no compensation.

NOTE G - TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined and informed the Company by a letter dated June 16, 2017, that the Plan and the related trust were designed in accordance with applicable IRC requirements. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter; however, the Company and the Plan administrator believe that the Plan is currently designed and being operated, in all material respects, in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC, and that the Plan is tax exempt. No provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

U.S. GAAP requires Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS or other applicable taxing authorities. The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions.

NOTE H - PLAN TERMINATION

As described in Note A, the Plan is frozen. The Company has the right under the Plan, in certain circumstances, to discontinue its contributions and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions set forth in ERISA. In the event that the Plan is terminated, the net assets of the Plan will be allocated for payment of Plan benefits to the participants in an order of priority determined in accordance with ERISA, applicable regulations thereunder and the Plan document.

Certain benefits under the Plan are insured by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) if the Plan terminates. Generally, the PBGC guarantees most vested normal age retirement benefits, early retirement benefits, and certain disability and survivor's pensions; however, the PBGC does not guarantee all types of benefits under the Plan and the amount of benefit protection is subject to certain limitations. Vested benefits under the Plan are guaranteed at the level in effect on the date of the Plan's termination, subject to a statutory ceiling on the amount of an individual's monthly benefit.

Whether all participants receive their benefits should the Plan be terminated at some future time will depend on the sufficiency, at that time, of the Plan's net assets to provide those benefits, the priority of those benefits to be paid, and the level and type of benefits guaranteed by the PBGC at that time. Some benefits may be fully or partially provided for by the then-existing assets and the PBGC guaranty, while other benefits may not be provided for at all.

NOTE I - INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE CUSTODIANS

The Plan administrator has elected the method of annual reporting compliance permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, Northern Trust, the trustee of the Plan, and Pacific Life have certified that the following data included in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedules is complete and accurate:

- Investments, at fair value, and other receivable, net as shown in the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Employee Contributions

Prior to January 1, 1978, participants were required to contribute to the plan in order to receive benefit accruals. These contributions are credited with interest each year. Each participant who made contributions is entitled to the benefit resulting from the contributions plus interest, as he is always vested in that amount.

Plan Changes Since the Prior Year

Other Information to Fully and Fairly Disclose the Actuarial Position of the Plan

Due to software limitations with the electronic filing process, information filed electronically cannot be controlled by the Enrolled Actuary. The values on the signed Schedule SB will govern to the extent there are any differences in the entries filed electronically and the actual data contained on the signed Schedule SB.

Schedule SB, line 24—Change in Actuarial Assumptions

The funding valuation reflects the following assumption changes:

- A change in the unlimited expected rate of return on plan assets from 2.50% to 5.30%
- Retroactive annuity interest crediting rate was updated to 3.99% (the average 30-Year Treasury Securities Interest Rate for a month of November 2022).

Since the change in the non-prescribed assumptions has not decreased the funding shortfall, the approval of the commissioner is not required.

The rationales for selecting each of the prescribed assumptions used in the funding valuation and for the assumption changes summarized above are to comply with regulatory requirements and to best reflect future anticipated plan experience.

Schedule SB, line 24—Change in Actuarial Assumptions

The funding valuation reflects the following assumption changes:

- A change in the unlimited expected rate of return on plan assets from 2.50% to 5.30%
- Retroactive annuity interest crediting rate was updated to 3.99% (the average 30-Year Treasury Securities Interest Rate for a month of November 2022).

Since the change in the non-prescribed assumptions has not decreased the funding shortfall, the approval of the commissioner is not required.

The rationales for selecting each of the prescribed assumptions used in the funding valuation and for the assumption changes summarized above are to comply with regulatory requirements and to best reflect future anticipated plan experience.
