To Plan Trustees
Creative Options, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Creative Options, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan (the Plan) an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered Creative Options, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Reliance Trust Company that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be significant deficiencies.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiencies in

Creative Options, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan's internal control to be significant deficiencies:

Investment Committee

We noted that the Plan has not adopted a formal investment committee to periodically review the performance of the funds offered in the plan or their related expense ratios. In order to ensure that Plan assets are prudently and effectively managed, we recommend that the Plan create a formal investment committee to periodically review the investments in the Plan as well as their related performance.

Internal Review

During the documentation of internal controls, it was noted that there is no process in place for reviewing investment statements internally. We recommend that someone within management be reviewing investment statements on a periodic basis. This will help to ensure that the Plan's goals are being met and that investments and earnings are reasonable.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management of Creative Options, Inc. 401(k) Retirement Plan, and others within the plan, and the Department of Labor and Internal Revenue Service, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Very truly yours,

Fitzpatrick, Leary, Szarko, LLC
