October 11, 2024

To Michelle Shi and management of the Celestica 401(k) Retirement Plan:

We have audited the financial statements of the Celestica 401(k) Retirement Plan ("the Plan"), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), as permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) ("ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit") for the year ended December 31, 2023, and we will issue our report thereon dated October 11, 2024. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan ("investment information") by Reliance Trust Company, the trustee, which is a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of GAAP. Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated November 14, 2023. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Matters

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note B to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted, and the application of existing policies was not changed during the year. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. There were no sensitive accounting estimates used in the Plan's financial statements.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Form 5500 Procedures

We are required to obtain and read a substantially complete draft of the Form 5500 prior to dating our auditor's report. The purpose of this procedure is to identify any material inconsistencies between the draft Form 5500 and the Plan's financial statements. We identified no material inconsistencies in performing and completing our audit.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. No such misstatements were noted.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a disagreement on a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated October 11, 2024.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

Our responsibility for the ERISA-required supplemental schedules accompanying the financial statements is to perform adequate procedures to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, is presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and whether the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

Reportable Findings and Internal Control Matters

We are required to communicate to you, in writing and in a timely manner, all reportable findings, significant deficiencies, and material weaknesses that have been identified in the Plan's internal control. The definitions of a reportable finding, deficiency, significant deficiency, and material weakness are as follows:

Reportable Finding

For purposes of this letter, a reportable finding is a matter that includes one or more of the following: (1) an identified instance of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations, (2) a finding arising from the audit that in our professional judgment is significant and relevant to you regarding your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process, and (3) an indication of internal control deficiencies identified during the audit that have not been previously communicated to you by other parties and that in our professional judgment are sufficiently important to merit your attention.

Deficiency

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis.

Significant Deficiency

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Material Weakness

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

A reportable finding may also be considered a deficiency, significant deficiency, or a material weakness.

In accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting ("internal control") as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. In accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5, our audit did not extend to the certified investment information and as such internal control relating to the certified investment information was not considered.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses, significant deficiencies, or reportable findings and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

We identified, as a result of our audit, the following deficiencies in the Plan's internal control related to relevant plan provisions which were also considered to be reportable findings. We did not consider these to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies:

Forfeiture Account:

During our testing, we noted a portion of funds held in the forfeiture account at the beginning of the year were not used in 2023, and the account has grown in excess of $84,000 at year-end. We recommend that plan management use the remaining forfeiture balance to reduce the employer contribution and/or pay plan administrative expenses, as specified by the plan document.

Missing Hardship Documentation:

During our testing, we noted an instance in which a participant received a hardship withdrawal, but management did not obtain appropriate evidence supporting the hardship. Hardship withdrawals may be made on account of an immediate and heavy financial need to the employee and the amount must be necessary to satisfy the financial need. We recommend the plan administrator review all hardship requests prior to distribution to ensure the amount requested is in line with the amount of the financial need and for an eligible reason.

Missing Death Distribution Documentation:

During our testing, we noted one instance in which a participant's beneficiary received a death withdrawal, but management did not obtain appropriate evidence supporting the distribution. We recommend the plan administrator review all death withdrawal requests prior to distribution to ensure that there is documentation supporting the death and beneficiary information moving forward.

Deferral Election Not Implemented Timely:

During our testing, we noted one individual made a deferral election through ADP online that was not implemented timely into payroll, therefore, causing the participant to miss out on deferrals and employer match from the date of the election until the eventual implementation. Management determined the issue impacted 38 participants after working with their ADP representative. However, the total impact on the Plan is immaterial. We recommend management fund a correction of 50% of missed deferrals and 100% of missed matching contributions, plus lost earnings, for the impacted participants. Further, we recommend management review processes to ensure all participant deferral elections are implemented timely.

Automatic Enrollment Error:

During our testing, we noted one instance where a participant was not automatically enrolled in a timely manner, resulting in missed deferrals and matching contributions. Management reviewed the population and determined the incident to be isolated. We recommend management review procedures surrounding automatic enrollment to ensure participants are timely enrolled. We further recommend management remit 50% of the missed deferrals and 100% of missed matching contributions, plus lost earnings, and notify the participant of the correction in writing within 45 days.

As noted above certain errors identified are operational failures which require correction under the IRS Employee Plans Compliance Resolution System ("EPCRS"), which is outlined in Revenue Procedure 2021-30 ("Rev. Proc. 2021-30"). The Company elected to correct the failure through the Self-Correction Program ("SCP") available under EPCRS. In accordance with the requirements of Rev. Proc. 2021-30, the correction method above has put the affected participants in the position they would have been in had the failure not occurred. In order to correct failures using SCP, the Company must have established practices and procedures reasonably designed to prevent such failures. As a best practice we recommend that the Company document this correction and the related controls in place when the failure occurred. Providing such documentation may reduce or eliminate potential sanctions in the event that the IRS selects the plan for examination and identifies the failure.

We identified, as a result of our audit, the following reportable findings that we did not consider to be material weaknesses, significant deficiencies, or other control deficiencies related to relevant plan provisions:

Documentation of SOC 1 Review:

During our audit, it was noted that plan management does not document its review of the SOC 1 reports of its third-party service providers on an annual basis. The SOC 1 outlines controls in place at the service provider as well as certain controls that should be in place at the plan sponsor ("user controls") in order to rely on the vendor's controls. We recommend that management obtain and review a copy of the SOC 1 reports on an annual basis to ensure establishment of all required user controls, and adequately document the review in the minutes or otherwise.

This information is intended solely for the use of Michelle Shi and management of the Plan and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

Very truly yours,
