INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Trustees
Not-For-Profit Insurance Consortium

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Not-For-Profit Insurance Consortium (the Consortium), which comprise the statement of net assets in liquidation (liquidation basis) as of December 31, 2023, the related statements of changes in net assets in liquidation (liquidation basis) for the period from December 13, 2023 through December 31, 2023 (liquidation basis), revenue and expense and changes in net assets and cash flows for the period January 1, 2023 through December 12, 2023 (going concern basis); and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Consortium as of December 31, 2023, the changes in its net assets in liquidation for the period from December 13, 2023 through December 31, 2023, the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from January 1, 2023 through December 12, 2023 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America applied in the bases described in Note 2 to the financial statements.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Company and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, the Board of Trustees approved a plan of liquidation on December 13, 2023, and the Consortium commenced liquidation shortly thereafter. As a result, the Consortium has changed its basis of accounting from the going-concern basis to a liquidation basis effective December 13, 2023. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Consortium's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Description of the Consortium

The following description of the Not-For-Profit Insurance Consortium (the Consortium) provides only general information. Participating employers should refer to the Group Insurance Trust Agreement (the Agreement) for a complete description of the Agreement's provisions.

The Consortium was established on January 1, 2012 as a group purchasing organization through which unrelated participating employers purchase certain health insurance benefits which they make available to eligible individuals. The Consortium established a Group Insurance Trust (the Trust) to collect premiums from members and remit payments to insurers. The Trust holds the policies under which benefits are administered and paid, and serves as the conduit for the payment of premiums to insurers. The Trust does not sponsor a group health plan and is not the sponsor of any participating employer plans.

Each participating employer sponsors a fully-insured group health plan for the benefit of its eligible employees and their dependents. Each participating employer serves as the administrator with respect to its own plan including eligibility determinations and enrollment, and the type and amount of benefits to which participants are entitled.

To be eligible for admission as a participating employer, an employer must be a not-for-profit organization and meet certain requirements as defined in the Agreement, including executing a membership agreement.

Participating employer contributions to the Trust:

Premium payments:

Each participating employer contributes to the Trust the premiums established by the insurer for coverage provided to individuals enrolled by the participating employers for coverage under the insurance policy, as defined. Upon receipt by the Trust, and as soon as administratively practicable, premiums paid by the participating employer will be remitted to the insurer for payment of premiums established by the insurer on behalf of the participating employer.

Member assessments:

Each participating employer contributes to the Trust such other amounts as the Trustees may from time to time determine for the payment of expenses of administering the affairs of the Trust.

Benefits under the Trust:

The Trust serves as a conduit for payment of policy premiums. The medical insurance coverage available to eligible employees of the participating employers is provided on a fully-insured basis pursuant to a group insurance contract issued by Univera Healthcare.

Tax status:

The Plan Administrator believes the Trust is designed and is being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.

It is highly certain that some positions taken for income tax purposes would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The Trust is not aware of any uncertain tax positions as of December 31, 2023 or 2022.

The tax returns for the years ended December 31, 2020 through 2023 remain subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service for U.S. Federal tax purposes and also by New York State for state tax purposes.

Administration of the Trust:

The Board of Trustees has responsibility for administering the Trust. Each participating employer may appoint two Trustees.

Trust termination:

The Trust may be terminated by a majority of the Trustees, as defined in the Agreement. On December 13, 2023, the Board of Trustees ratified a motion to terminate the Trust and seek insurance coverage as individual entities.

As a result of this action, the Consortium adopted the liquidation basis of accounting effective December 13, 2023. Prior to adopting the liquidation basis of accounting, the financial statements were prepared on the going concern basis of accounting which contemplated the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Consortium's insurance contract with Univera Healthcare expired December 31, 2023. All premium payments under this contract were received from members and paid to Univera prior to December 13, 2023. The Trustees expect to finalize liquidation of the Trust in 2024 and to incur certain administrative costs associated with the liquidation.

Note 2. Significant Accounting Policies

Liquidation basis of accounting:

The Consortium adopted the liquidation basis of accounting on December 13, 2023.

The liquidation basis of accounting is appropriate when the liquidation of an entity appears imminent. Under the liquidation basis of accounting, assets are recorded at their estimated net realizable value and liabilities are recorded at their estimated settlement amounts and estimated costs through the expected liquidation date and provided to the extent reasonably determinable. The Consortium regularly evaluates the estimates and assumptions used to determine the net realizable value of assets and the settlement amount of liabilities. The actual amounts may differ from these estimates which could change the Consortium's net assets in liquidation.

The following accounting policy was modified to apply the liquidation basis of accounting:

Accrued estimated administrative costs:

The Consortium's plan for liquidation includes administrative costs necessary to finalize its operations, including audit, insurance, and other miscellaneous expenses.

Cash:

The Consortium maintains its cash in bank accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Consortium has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Consortium believes it is not exposed to any significant risk with respect to its cash.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts and disclosures. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Going concern basis:

The Consortium accounted for activities on the going concern basis prior to its adoption of the liquidation basis of accounting on December 13, 2023. Other than the accrual of estimated administrative costs, as described above, the accounting policies herein are applicable to the periods accounted for under the going concern basis.

Subsequent events:

Subsequent events have been evaluated through October 15, 2024, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
