Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Trustees
SEIU Healthcare Pennsylvania
Training and Education Fund
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of SEIU Healthcare Pennsylvania Training and Education Fund (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2023 and 2022 and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023 and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2023, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Plan and to meet our other ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for one year from issuance.

Management is also responsible for maintaining a current plan instrument, including all plan amendments, administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are presented and disclosed in the financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants, to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not absolute assurance; and therefore, is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.

Misstatements are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Plan's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings and certain internal control-related matters that we identified during the audit.

Other Matter—Supplemental Schedule Required by ERISA

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets held at end of year is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with GAAS.

In forming our opinion on the supplemental schedule, we evaluated whether the supplemental schedule, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

In our opinion, the information in the accompanying schedule is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole, and the form and content are presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

1. Plan description and summary of significant accounting policies:

Description:

The SEIU Healthcare Pennsylvania Training and Education Fund (the Plan) is an employee benefit plan covering members of SEIU Healthcare Pennsylvania (the Union). The Union is a related party to the Plan. The Plan provides training and education programs and tuition assistance for participants.

Basis of accounting:

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and present the net assets available for benefits and changes in those net assets.

Employer contributions and receivables:

Contributions are recorded during the period in which benefit coverages are earned. Contributions are made on a monthly basis and are based on participants' earnings. Participants become eligible for benefits after they meet the initial waiting period. Contributions are net of contribution reduction adjustments which offset certain costs to the covered employers incurred in paying wages. These adjustments reduce employer contributions. Contributions receivable are stated at the amount management expects to collect from balances outstanding at year end. Historically, the Plan has not incurred significant bad debts, and therefore, no allowance for credit losses related to contributions receivable is included in the accompanying financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Revenue concentrations:

Four employers accounted for approximately 60% of total contributions in 2023. Four employers accounted for approximately 61% of total contributions in 2022.

Grant revenue:

Grant revenue is recognized as earned in accordance with eligible expenses being incurred.

Expenses:

Expenses are presented according to training program type:

Adult education: This category includes career and educational counseling, tuition assistance and adult education classes, including basic computer skills, to help participants continue their formal education or prepare for career advancement.

Skill enhancement: This category includes courses conducted by the Plan for participants to refresh and enhance their skills in their current positions, advance up the career ladder, take a greater role in promoting quality and improve job satisfaction.

Administrative expenses:

All expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid from the Plan's assets.

SEIU HEALTHCARE PENNSYLVANIA
TRAINING AND EDUCATION FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

1. Plan description and summary of significant accounting policies (continued):

Plan benefits:

The Plan provides various continuing education and skill enhancement classes for qualified participants. The Plan also provides tuition assistance to participants enrolled in certain classes at educational institutions.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts of assets, liabilities and changes therein and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Cash:

The Plan places its cash in a bank account which, at times, may exceed the federally insured limit. The account was interest bearing for a majority of 2023 and 2022. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, the balance exceeded the federally insured limit by approximately $1,025,000 and $387,000, respectively.

3. Income tax status:

The Plan is intended to qualify pursuant to Section 501(c)(9), a voluntary employee's beneficiary association, of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and accordingly, the Plan's net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter dated February 7, 2008 from the Internal Revenue Service, and the Plan administrator believes that the Plan, as amended, continues to qualify and to operate in accordance with applicable provisions of the IRC. Therefore, the Board of Trustees and Plan administrator believe that the Plan is qualified and the trust is tax exempt.

4. Plan termination provisions:

The Plan may be terminated by the Board of Trustees, by agreement of the Union and all covered employers or by any other event which may, by law, require termination.

In the event of termination, all assets which shall remain after the payment of legal obligations must be expended and applied in a manner that will inure to the exclusive benefit of the participants in accordance with the purpose of the Plan and the requirements of law.

5. Commitments and contingency:

The Plan leases training space from an unrelated party under a lease, which required monthly payments of $2,769, through December 31, 2023. Subsequent to that date the monthly payments will increase annually at 3% until the expiration date of June 30, 2024. Future minimum payments under this lease are as follows:

------	-------------------------

TRAINING AND EDUCATION FUND

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2023 AND 2022

6. Related party transactions:

The Plan maintains an administrative services agreement with The Training and Education Fund (the Nonprofit), a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation established to work in a complementary fashion with the Plan to provide educational opportunities to the broader community and, to the extent feasible, for the benefit of the Plan's participants. Under this agreement, employees of the Plan became employees of the Nonprofit, and the Plan reimburses the Nonprofit at a predetermined base fee for services rendered to the Plan by such employees. The Plan incurred expense of approximately $765,000 and $691,000 in 2023 and 2022, respectively, under this agreement. These transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

7. Risks and uncertainties:

The unprecedented nature of the COVID-19 pandemic has adversely impacted the global economy. Whereas most state and local governments have eased restrictions on commercial activity, it is possible that a resurgence in COVID-19 cases could prompt a return to tighter restrictions in the healthcare industry. Therefore, the severity of the impact on the Plan will depend on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the duration and severity of the pandemic, the extent and severity of the impact on the Plan's members and the Union's ability maintain members, all of which are uncertain and cannot be predicted.

8. Subsequent events:

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through October 15, 2024, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.
