To the 401k Committee and Management of the Pahlisch Homes, Inc. Savings and Retirement Plan

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Pahlisch Homes, Inc. Savings and Retirement Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS), we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements and supplemental schedules, but not for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL's) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by Ascensus Trust Company that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit also did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the investment information.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies, and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that have not been identified. In addition, because of inherent limitations in internal control – including the possibility of management override of controls – misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected by such controls. However, as discussed below, we identified certain deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management of the Plan (Management) or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the following deficiencies in the Plan's internal control to be material weaknesses:

Fiduciary oversight and responsibility for the Plan

Administering an employee benefit plan (EBP) and managing its assets imposes specific fiduciary responsibilities on employers and certain employees who perform functions related to the EBP. Accordingly, ERISA sets standards of conduct for those fiduciaries. Not only does a fiduciary have an ethical obligation to an EBP's participants, but under ERISA, a fiduciary is personally liable to an EBP for losses resulting from a breach of his or her fiduciary responsibility. In addition, in such a situation, the fiduciary must restore to the EBP any profits lost from the misuse of the EBP's assets, if this were to occur.

We noted the following instances of a lack of fiduciary oversight and responsibility for the Plan during our audit:

- Several participants were entered into the Plan late.
- Several participants received employer matching contributions prior to meeting the required service requirement of one year.
- Employee deferrals withheld from certain participants were never remitted into the Plan or credited to their participant account.
- In two instances, an employee's deferral was allocated to the wrong participant's account within the Plan.
- A participant's elected deferral rate change was not properly updated within the payroll system, resulting in incorrect employee deferrals.
- Employee deferrals were withheld from compensation that a participant elected not to defer on.
- Multiple remittances of employee deferrals were delinquent, as they were remitted later than the 15th business day following the month in which the deferrals were withheld from employees. Furthermore, there was a lack of consistency throughout the year in the number of days taken by Management to remit employee deferrals each pay period.
- During the change in payroll providers, a single earnings code was incorrectly excluded from eligible compensation, resulting in missed deferrals and potential lost earnings.
- For each payroll remittance, Management manually fills out and uploads contribution files to the third-party administrator. In one instance, a mistake in a file upload resulted in participants receiving the incorrect employee and employer contribution for that pay period.
- Employer match contributions listed on payroll reports were incorrectly summarized.
- The census data was inaccurate due to an employee being listed twice on the census report with incorrect wages.

We understand that Management has limited resources available; however, we strongly recommend that Management implement stronger procedures and controls to ensure that the above errors are fully corrected (including contributing lost earnings, when required, to impacted participants) and prevented in future periods.

In addition, during our audit, we became aware of the following matters that are opportunities for strengthening the Plan's internal control and/or operating efficiency:

- Certain personnel documents, such as I9s, were not retained by Management. We recommend Management establish policies to ensure participant documentation and support are retained and available.
- We noted that formal declination forms or opt-out forms are not maintained when a participant declines participation in the Plan. While this is not a requirement, we recommend Management establish procedures to help support lack of participation by employees.

Communication with those charged with governance

We have audited the financial statements of the Plan in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) (ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit) as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023, and we will issue our report thereon dated October 15, 2024. As permitted by ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C), our audit did not extend to any statements or investment information certified by Ascensus Trust Company, the custodian, which is a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, that prepared and certified the statements or information regarding assets so held in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5. Our audit did not extend to the certified investment information, except for obtaining and reading the certification, comparing the certified investment information with the related information presented and disclosed in the financial statements and ERISA-required supplemental schedules, and reading the disclosures relating to the certified investment information to assess whether they are in accordance with the presentation and disclosure requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Accordingly, the objective of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is not to express an opinion about whether the financial statements as a whole are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under GAAS, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our engagement letter to you dated April 22, 2024. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit:

Qualitative aspects of accounting practices: Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted, and the application of existing policies was not changed, during the year ended December 31, 2023. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year ended December 31, 2023 for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by Management and are based on Management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and supplemental schedules and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. We noted no significant estimates that affected the Plan's financial statements as of and for the year ended December 31, 2023.

Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosures affecting the financial statements were those describing the Plan's provisions and the supplemental schedule of delinquent participant contributions.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Form 5500 procedures: We are required to obtain and read a substantially complete draft of Form 5500 prior to dating our auditors' report. The purpose of this procedure is to identify any material inconsistencies between the draft Form 5500 and the Plan's financial statements. We identified no material inconsistencies in performing and completing our audit.

Difficulties encountered in performing the audit: We encountered no difficulties in dealing with Management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and uncorrected misstatements: Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of Management. The attached schedule of unrecorded proposed journal entries summarizes uncorrected misstatements of the financial statements. The effects of the uncorrected misstatements have been determined by Management to be immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the Plan's financial statements taken as a whole. In addition, certain misstatements of the financial statements, as reflected in the attached schedule of adjusting journal entries, were detected as a result of audit procedures and were corrected by Management.

Reportable findings: For purposes of this letter, a reportable finding is a matter that includes one or more of the following: (1) noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations, (2) a finding that in our professional judgment is significant and relevant to you regarding your responsibility to oversee the financial reporting process, and (3) an indication of internal control deficiencies identified during the audit that have not been previously communicated to Management by other parties and that we determined are sufficiently important to merit Management's attention.

We identified the following reportable finding which was also considered to be a material weakness as discussed above: Fiduciary oversight and responsibility for the Plan.

Disagreements with Management: For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with Management is a disagreement on a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or auditors' report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management representations: We have requested certain representations from Management that are included in the attached management representation letter dated October 15, 2024.

Management consultations with other independent accountants: In some cases, Management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves the application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all of the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other audit findings or issues: We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with Management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship, and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other matters: Our responsibility for the ERISA-required supplemental schedules accompanying the financial statements is to perform adequate procedures to evaluate whether the form and content of the ERISA-required supplemental schedules, other than that agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, is presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and whether the information in the supplemental schedules related to assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the information prepared and certified by an institution that Management determined meets the requirements of ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C).

* * * * *

This information is intended solely for the use of the 401k Committee and Management and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

We would be pleased to discuss the above matters or to respond to any questions, at your convenience.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Ms. Sandy Stephenson and the various other personnel of Pahlisch Homes, Inc., for the assistance that they gave us throughout the course of the audit.
