INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of FBG Holding, Inc.
The Contractors Plan Trust New York
Austin, Texas

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of The Contractors Plan Trust New York (the "Trust"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits - modified cash basis of The Contractors Plan Trust New York as of December 31, 2023 and 2022, and the changes in net assets for benefits - modified cash basis for the years then ended, in accordance with the basis of accounting the Trust uses for modified cash purposes as described in Note 2.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of The Contractors Plan Trust New York and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes determining the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of The Contractors Plan Trust New York's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about The Contractors Plan Trust New York's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

The Contractors Plan Trust New York
Notes to Financial Statements
Modified Cash Basis
December 31, 2023 and 2022

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS

The Contractors Plan Trust New York (the "Trust") was established, effective January 1, 2012, for the purpose of providing fully insured health and welfare benefits for the employees of participating employers subject to the Service Contract Act, the Davis-Bacon Act, and other similar statutes. At December 31, 2023, the Trust had fully insured health benefit options available.

Erisa Smart, Inc. (the "Trustee") is the Trust's trustee. The Trustee's responsibilities include establishing an account to hold the assets of the Trust, to provide for safekeeping and custody of the Trust assets, and to perform the functions and duties assigned to it under the Trust Agreement. The Trustee also provides consent for making available benefit coverage with various insurance carriers. Fringe Benefit Group, Inc. is the master plan sponsor and recordkeeper under the terms of the plan and trust agreement and is responsible for plan maintenance, trust recordkeeping, customer service, and renewals.

In the event the Trust is terminated, the assets of the Trust, after payment of all expenses and liabilities, will first be used to continue insurance coverage on all employees and the families of such employees, as applicable, under existing policies to the extent possible; and apply any remaining balance for the benefit of such employees and their families as to best carry out the purpose for which the Trust was created.

As of December 31, 2023, the Trust was terminated. All remaining cash was used to pay trust expenses in 2023. As of December 31, 2023, no assets available for benefits remained in the Trust.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of accounting and use of estimates

As allowed by the Department of Labor, contributions and distributions are recognized on the modified cash basis of accounting. Therefore, the financial statements of the Trust do not purport to represent the net assets available for benefits or the changes in net assets available for benefits of the Trust in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Contributions

Participating employers make contributions to the Trust to cover the cost of group insurance programs selected by the employer and the cost of administering the Trust. Employer contributions for covered employees may be determined on the basis of the actual monthly premium or credited hours of service. Contributions are determined based on the contract rates charged by the insurance carriers for selected coverage plus an additional charge for sales compensation and administrative fees. For the year ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, there were no participating employers making contributions to the Trust.

December 31, 2023 and 2022

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Concentration of credit risk

The Trust's cash is maintained in federally insured domestic banking institutions to minimize credit risk. The Trust, from time to time, maintains cash on deposit in excess of federally insured limits. The Trust has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant risk.

Income taxes

The Trust is a welfare benefit fund as defined in Section 419 of the Internal Revenue Code. As such, contributions to this welfare benefit fund by the various participating employers are subjected to certain limitations. The Trust is subject to federal income tax on unrelated income. For the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022, the Trust paid no income taxes because there was no unrelated income earned by the Trust. At December 31, 2023 and 2022, no uncertain tax positions have been identified. If applicable, interest and penalties related to uncertain tax positions will be recognized in income tax expense, as incurred. No such amounts were recognized during the years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022.

Subsequent events

The Trust has evaluated subsequent events for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements through October 15, 2024, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and determined that no events have been occurred that would require adjustment to our disclosures in the financial statements.

3. INSURANCE CONTRACTS

All benefits made available to participating employers and their employees are fully insured through insurance contracts with various insurance carriers. All premiums are paid by the Trust to the insurer who services and pays all claims. The Trust's liability is limited to the contributions received and premiums remitted to the insurers.
