This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of the The Athletic Media Company 401(k) Plan (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits in liquidation as of December 29, 2023 and December 31, 2022, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period from January 1, 2023 through ended December 29, 2023, and the related notes to the financial statements (collectively, the financial statements).

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised, and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5, and that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with GAAP and that the information regarding assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

If you believe there are parties of which we are not aware, please identify them to us before signing the management representation letter.

Please note – any parties-in-interest are required to be disclosed in the Plan's financial statements, and as such any newly identified parties may cause delays in our issuance and a new representation letter may need to be obtained.

Section 3(14) of ERISA defines a party in interest to include, among others:

- fiduciaries or employees of the Plan,
- any person who provides services to the Plan,
- an employer whose employees are covered by the Plan,
- an employee organization whose members are covered by the Plan,
- a person who owns 50 percent or more of such an employer or employee organization,
- or relatives of such persons just mentioned.

Parties-in-interest include:

- The Athletic Media Company and The New York Times, as the Plan sponsor/company
- Frank, Rimerman, as an auditor/service provider
- Reliance, as the Plan's trustee and custodian
- ADP, as the Plan's record keeper

All parties-in-interest to the Plan have been disclosed.

Addendum to the Management Representation Letter

Subsequent Events

You confirm that for the employee benefit Plan for which you are signing the attached management representation letter that all subsequent events have been brought to Frank, Rimerman's attention through the date of the financial statements (today). If you believe there are subsequent events of which we are not aware, please identify the events to us before signing the management representation letter.

Please note – we are required to test any subsequent events which require disclosure, and as such any new identified subsequent events may cause delays in our issuance and a new representation letter may need to be obtained.

“Subsequent event” refers to events which occurred between the date of the financial statements (December 29, 2023) and the date of the auditor's report which either: provide evidence of conditions that existed at the date of the financial statements, or provide evidence of conditions that arose after the date of the financial statements.

Such events include, but are not limited to:

- amendments to the Plan document and/or adoption agreement,
- plans to terminate or partially terminate the Plan,
- planned/implemented Plan mergers, acquisitions, spinoffs,
- moving the Plan to a different recordkeeper/trustee/custodian,
- pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments,
- events that are relevant to the measurement of estimates made in the financial statements,
- any unusual accounting adjustments that have been made or are contemplated,
- events that have occurred or are likely to occur that will bring into question the appropriateness of accounting policies used in the financial statements, for example, if such events call into question the validity of the going concern assumption.

All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements (December 29, 2023) through today have been properly disclosed.

Addendum to the Management Representation Letter

Going Concern

You confirm that the employee benefit Plan for which you are signing the attached management representation letter is able to continue as a going concern. This means there are no intentions to terminate or liquidate the Plan for at least 12 months from the date of the financial statements (today).

Please note – any going concern issues are required to be disclosed in the Plan's financial statements, and as such any going concern issues may cause delays in our issuance and a new representation letter may need to be obtained.

Examples of going concern conditions or events particularly relevant to an employee benefit plan include:

- Need to obtain an extraordinary contribution from the Plan sponsor,
- Need to dispose of substantial assets outside the ordinary course of operations,
- Inability to make benefit payments when due,
- Default on loan or similar agreements,
- Restructuring of debt,
- Legal proceedings, legislation, or similar matters, for example, determination that the Plan is no longer a qualified plan, that might jeopardize a plan's ability to operate,
- The Plan's merger or consolidation with another plan or its transfer of assets or liabilities to another plan,
- The Plan's adoption of an amendment that reduces the benefit payable from employer contributions,
- The bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, dissolution, or similar settlement of the Plan sponsor or of employers participating in a multiemployer plan.

The Plan is able to continue as a going concern and none of the above has occurred or affected the Plan.

Addendum to the Management Representation Letter

Going concern official guidance from the FASB (Financial Accounting Standards Board): FASB ASC 205-40, Presentation of Financial Statements—Going Concern, provides guidance about management's responsibility to evaluate whether there is substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to provide related disclosures. The key features of FASB ASC 205-40 are as follows:

- Defines the term substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern (substantial doubt). Under FASB ASC 205-40, substantial doubt about an entity's ability to continue as a going concern is deemed to exist when aggregate conditions and events indicate that it is probable that the entity will be unable to meet its obligations when they become due within one year after the date the financial statements are available to be issued. The term probable means the future event or events are likely to occur; the same as it does in FASB ASC 450, Contingencies.
- Requires management to evaluate whether conditions and events raise substantial doubt at both interim and annual period ends.
- Requires management's evaluation to be based on an assessment of the effect of known and reasonably knowable conditions and events at the date the financial statements are available to be issued for a period one year after that date.
- Identifies principles for considering whether management's plans mitigate the substantial doubt.
- Requires certain disclosures when consideration of management's plans alleviates substantial doubt.
- Requires an explicit statement by management that there is substantial doubt as well as other disclosures when substantial doubt is not alleviated.

FASB ASC 205-40 states that an entity's continuation as a going concern is presumed as the basis for financial reporting unless and until liquidation of the entity becomes imminent. That presumption is commonly referred to as the going concern basis of accounting.

For employee benefit plans, information that significantly contradicts the going concern assumption typically relates to the plan's inability to continue to meet its obligations as they become due without an extraordinary contribution by the sponsor or substantial disposition of assets outside the ordinary course of operations, externally forced revision of its operations, or similar actions.
