Statement of reasonable cause for late filing of 5500-SF

Sir or Madam,

My name is Geraldine Vassalotti and I am the owner of Hair With Flair, Inc. as well as the point person on the Hair With Flair, Inc. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan and Trust.

I am writing to explain the reason for late filing of Form 5500-SF for the year ended 12/31/22.

The plan was administered by my former payroll provider, Paychex, who was responsible for filing of 5500-SF. The plan was opened in 2021 and Paychex did indeed file for the 12/31/21 tax year in a timely fashion. During 2022, I determined that the 401(k) plan no longer fit my needs (I was the sole employee and participant) so I decided to close out the plan in October of 2022 at which point I transferred the funds to an IRA I held personally and terminated the plan. I was under the impression based on conversations with Paychex that they would handle the final 5500-SF for 2022, however it appears that once I ended my relationship with them they failed to file this report.

Upon learning of this from a letter I received from IRS in September of 2024 I immediately engaged my CPA, Erik C. Thomas, to prepare and file the final 5500-SF which I am attaching this statement to.

It is my hope that you will grant me a waiver of penalties assessed and accept this final 5500-SF without penalty, needless to say a penalty of thousands of dollars would have quite detrimental effect on both myself and my company, and I do feel I made every good faith effort to file in a timely manner.

Thanks very much,

Geraldine Vassalotti
