SPECIAL NOTICE

TOP HEAVY PLANS

When Key Employee accounts are over 60% of the total plan assets, a plan is considered Top-Heavy. As a result, minimum employer contributions and accelerated vesting requirements are required. Key Employees are defined as: Sole Proprietors, Partners, an officer/director of the employer with annual compensation over $220,000 for 2024 and $215,000 for 2023, a 5% shareholder of the employer (includes spouses and lineal ascendants or descendants), or a 1% shareholder of the employer with annual compensation over $155,000. Note, if the plan is close to becoming Top-Heavy, and does not provide safe harbor match or non-elective contributions, it is recommended the Key Employees stop deferring and contact our office immediately to discuss plan design and testing.

_____ Initial here

ALL PLANS

Participant Count: The IRS requires an audit be attached to the Form 5500 if you have a large plan. A large plan exists if a plan has more than 100 eligible participants with a balance (including terminated participants with a balance remaining in the plan). Please contact your plan administrator as soon as possible to discuss the requirements and scheduling of a possible plan audit.

PROHIBITED TRANSACTIONS (PT)

Prohibited Transactions (PT) can subject the employer and owners to substantial excise taxes and penalties. PTs generally include the following transactions: A disqualified person's transfer of plan income or assets to him/her directly or indirectly, or use of them by or for his or her benefit. A disqualified person is generally a plan fiduciary and his/her family members. A fiduciary's act by which he or she deals with plan income or assets in his or her own interest (which could benefit him or her outside of the plan itself). A fiduciary's receipt of consideration for his or her own account in a transaction that involves plan income or assets from any other party dealing with the plan may also be a PT. Any of the following acts between the plan and a disqualified person may also be a PT: Selling, exchanging, or leasing property to/from the Plan directly or indirectly, lending money or extending credit to/from the Plan directly or indirectly, furnishing goods, services or facilities to/from the plan, directly or indirectly. PT's or transactions that appear to be PT's, should be reviewed by an ERISA attorney.

IMPORTANT TIMING OF EMPLOYEE DEPOSITS

The Department of Labor is aggressively enforcing ERISA guidelines regarding timely deposits of 401(k), Roth contributions and loan payments into retirement plans. When an employer withholds salary deferrals and/or loan payments from the employee's pay, ERISA regulations specify when these amounts must be deposited into the plan. Department of Labor final regulations amended the participant contribution rules to create a "safe harbor timeline". Under the safe harbor timeline all payments withheld from the employee's pay will be when administratively feasible but no later 7 business days for small plans and 3 business days for large. Should you make a deposit earlier, you will set a precedence requiring an earlier submission. The employers who fail to transmit participant contributions or loan payments promptly to their retirement plan will violate the requirement that plan assets be held in trust. It is our experience that the Department of Labor is strictly enforcing these regulations. Correction for failure to make timely deposits is lost earnings on the deposit and you must file Form 5330 with the IRS which could result in interest charges and a 10% penalty on the lost earnings. Failure to file Form 5330 could result in additional penalties.

On an annual basis, we will be asking you to verify all deposits that have been made to your plan and this information will be reported on the IRS Form 5500. We strongly recommend you review your payroll procedures to ensure timely deposits of 401(k), Roth contributions and loan payments to your plan.

Should you have any questions regarding the information in this notice, please be sure to contact your plan administrator.
