Re: Bell Law Firm PC

I am writing this letter requesting no penalty be assessed for this filing. I am filing late because our business closed its doors due to a very slow recovery from the pandemic, extensive travel to another state to care for ailing parents, their death, and handling of their estate, and new job. Because of extensive travel, business closing, moving records to storage, mail and documents were misplaced and lost.

Now I am trying to get things done in proper order. I have recently filed 2022, 2023 and now am filing 2024. I will file a final report in 2025 as the assets were distributed then.

The only two participants for the 401k were my husband and myself. We had no employees that participated.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.
