Subject: Reasonable Cause for Late Filing – Form 5500-SF

Plan Year: 2022

EIN: 82-2209306

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to provide a reasonable cause explanation for the late filing of Form 5500-SF for the 2022 plan year. Unfortunately, the form was not filed as required, and I would like to explain the circumstances surrounding the oversight and respectfully request that no penalties be assessed.

My company's retirement plan was originally established and administered through Paychex, who also handled our payroll and benefits filings. Paychex successfully filed Form 5500-SF for the 2021 plan year, and based on that, I was under the good faith assumption that they would continue managing these filings, or would notify me if anything changed.

However, for reasons unknown to me, Paychex did not file the 2022 Form 5500-SF, and never informed me that I would be responsible for filing once the retirement account was closed. I had no knowledge that the 2022 filing was missed until I received a letter from the IRS dated March 17, 2025, which I received in the mail on April 6, 2025. Upon learning of the missed filing, I took immediate action to submit the necessary form through the EFAST2 system.

This was a good-faith error caused by my reliance on a professional service provider. I respectfully request that the Department of Labor not impose any penalties in this case, as the failure to file was neither intentional nor due to neglect, but rather a result of being misinformed and not properly advised of my ongoing responsibilities.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let me know if any additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Samile Sunun
