To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this statement of reasonable cause for the Russell Electric 401(k) Plan due to the late filing of Form 5500. The filing was late was due to the impacts of Hurricane Helene. As record keeper for the retirement plan, we were unable to file the 5500 before the due date due the storm. Based on Hurricane Helene being a federally declared disaster and relief being granted to businesses and the record keepers that are responsible for making sure that all filings are completed in a timely manner, we ask that all fines and penalties be waived.

The IRS released guidance on the late filings of form 5500 due to the effects of Hurricane Helene in publication " IRS announces tax relief for victims of Hurricane Helene; various deadlines postponed to May 1, 2025" dated 10/01/2024. In the publication, the following section is included in regards to late filings of form 5500. See pages 2-4 for the full publication:

Taxpayers considered to be affected taxpayers eligible for the postponement of time to file returns, pay taxes and perform other time-sensitive acts are those taxpayers listed in Treas. Reg. § 301.7508A-1(d)(1), and include individuals who live, and businesses (including tax-exempt organizations) whose principal place of business is located, in the covered disaster area. Taxpayers not in the covered disaster area, but whose records necessary to meet a deadline listed in Treas. Reg. § 301.7508A-1(c) are in the covered disaster area, are also entitled to relief. In addition, all relief workers affiliated with a recognized government or philanthropic organization assisting in the relief activities in the covered disaster area and any individual visiting the covered disaster area who was killed or injured as a result of the disaster are entitled to relief.

Under section 7508A, the IRS gives affected taxpayers until May 1, 2025, to file most tax returns (including individual, corporate, and estate and trust income tax returns; partnership returns, S corporation returns, and trust returns; estate, gift, and generation-skipping transfer tax returns; annual information returns of tax-exempt organizations; and employment and certain excise tax returns), that have either an original or extended due date occurring on or after Sept. 23, 2024, and before May 1, 2025, are granted additional time to file through May 1, 2025.

Affected taxpayers that have an estimated income tax payment originally due on or after Sept. 23, 2024, are postponed through May 1, 2025, will not be subject to penalties for failure to pay estimated tax installments as long as such payments are paid on or before May 1, 2025.

The IRS also gives affected taxpayers until May 1, 2025, to perform other time-sensitive actions described in Treas. Reg. § 301.7508A-1(c)(1) and Rev. Proc. 2018-58, 2018-50 IRB 990 (December 10, 2018), that are due to be performed on or after September 23, 2024, and before May 1, 2025, are granted additional time to file through May 1, 2025.

This relief also includes the filing of Form 5500 series returns that were required to be filed on or after Sept. 23, 2024, and before May 1, 2025, are postponed through May 1, 2025, in the manner described in section 8 of Rev. Proc. 2018-58. The relief described in section 17 of Rev. Proc. 2018-58, pertaining to like-kind exchanges of property, also applies to certain taxpayers who are not otherwise affected taxpayers and may include acts required to be performed before or after the period above.

Thank you for your time in this matter. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 850-763-4451

Sincerely,

Blake Corley
