Re: Rice Companies, Inc. Information for 5500 Preparation

Dear Benefits Manager:

HealthPartners is providing 5500 information on broker service fees, bonus payments and miscellaneous promotions compensation. The information is for you to prepare and file your IRS Form 5500 for your group health plan.

The service fees paid by HealthPartners to your broker are shown below. HealthPartners may pay one or more bonuses to Brokerage Firms that meet certain performance criteria. Payment of a bonus may be based upon one or more factors including the size of a Brokerage Firm's book of business with HealthPartners, the net growth of that book of business or facilitation of collaborative partnership activities with the group or other similar metrics.

When a bonus is paid for overall sales performance across a Brokerage Firm's entire book of business with HealthPartners, the amount attributed to any one group is based upon the total value of that Firm's bonus divided by the total number of contracts associated with that firm to arrive at a per contract allocation. That amount is then multiplied by the number of contracts in each respective group – capped in accordance with the program parameters. Other programs are based solely on the sales and service activities associated with a specific account. The same approach is used to allocate the miscellaneous promotions field of small non-material items that are given at broker training events and gatherings.

As applicable, manufacturer revenue including pharmacy rebates (RX), durable medical equipment rebates (DME) and medical injectable rebates are disclosed on your attached Information for 5500 Preparation in the Manufacturer Revenue section. Your plan receives the manufacturer revenue as either an upfront guaranteed credit of 75% of expected book of business Manufacture Revenue to administrative fees, a credit and settlement to 100% of actual rebates or 100% pass through of earned and paid rebates. Please contact your Account manager for additional details if necessary.

Claims Shared Savings Fees (CSSF's) are not included in the attached 5500 reporting, reference your Self Insured Billing Statement (SIBS).

This information covers the time period January 1, 2024 – December 31, 2024.

Please see the attachments for details and certification.
