RE: Form 5500 and Related Materials

Dear Ms. Rae:

ASR Health Benefits is sending you information to assist you in completing the Annual Report (Form 5500), Insurance Information (Schedule A), and Service Provider Information (Schedule C) for your health and welfare plan(s). You must file a Form 5500 for each employer health and welfare plan funded with 100 or more participating employees at the beginning of a plan year. Also, if the plan is funded through a trust, a Form 5500 is required regardless of the number of participating employees.

If the plan provides one or more fully insured benefits, you must include a Schedule A from each insurer. Formerly, for self-funded health and welfare plans, a Schedule C was required with respect to each service provider who was paid $5000 or more during the plan year. The new 5500 instructions now limit the Schedule C requirement to self-funded plans with a trust. Therefore, self-funded health and welfare plans funded through the employer's general assets no longer must complete a Schedule C with respect to service provider fees. If a plan is fully insured, is self-funded without a trust, or is a combination of these two, and has fewer than 100 participating employees at the beginning of a plan year, the plan is exempt from the Form 5500 requirement. If this exemption does not apply and a Form 5500 is required, you must file it within seven months after the plan year ends. However, you can file for a two-and-one-half-month extension of the filing deadline.

As a reminder, if you file a Form 5500 with respect to a health and welfare plan, you are also required to provide participants with a Summary Annual Report (SAR) regarding the plan (The SAR is a fill-in-the-blank summary of the plan's financial condition. A copy of a standard SAR is enclosed.). However, self-funded health and welfare plans with no trust are exempt from the SAR requirement, regardless of the number of participating employees. If an SAR is required, you must distribute it to participants no later than nine months after the plan year ends or two months after the end of the extension period if you filed for an extension with regard to the Form 5500.

If you have any questions, please contact Susie Bessey at (616) 957-1751, extension 3066.

Sincerely,

Susie Bessey

RE: EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974 (ERISA)

- (1) ANNUAL REPORT OF WELFARE BENEFIT PLAN - FORM 5500
- (2) SUMMARY ANNUAL REPORT

- (1) Section 104 of ERISA requires that each Plan Administrator who maintains a welfare benefit Plan subject to ERISA having 100 or more participants at any time during the plan year must file an annual report with the Department of Labor. The report must be filed within 7 months of the end of the plan year. Certain failures are provided for failure to comply.

As it appears your plan is subject to the Act, the data on the enclosed form is provided for your assistance in completing your annual report. By supplying this information it is not our intent to advise you as to your legal obligations under the act, nor do we wish to imply that this information constitutes all of the data to be included in our annual report.

If you expect to file an annual report, you would normally receive a complete copy of form 5500 and Schedule A from the Department of Labor, with all necessary instructions, prior to the filing date. Follow the instructions carefully. If you or your legal counsel have questions, please contact The Labor-Management Services Administration Office at the Department of Labor.

- (2) Section 104(B) of ERISA requires a plan administrator who must file an annual report to also furnish a Summary Annual Report to each plan participant and beneficiary within 9 months of the end of your plan year and without charge.

The Summary Annual Report should include the following information:

1. The name of the plan as determined by your Plan Document and, if different, the name by which the plan is commonly known to its participants and beneficiaries; and
2. The name and business address (do not use P.O. Box number) of the Plan Sponsor (usually the employer to whom the policy was issued). However, if different, show:
  - a. The name and address of any employer having employees covered by the plan; or
  - b. The name and address of any labor organization maintaining the plan; or
  - c. In case of a plan established or maintained by two or more employers or by one or more employers and one or more employee organizations, the name and address of the association, committee, joint board of trustees, parent, or most significant employer of a group of employees contributing to the same plan; and
3. The name, business address, (do not use P.O. Box number) and business telephone number of the Plan Administrator; and
4. A statement of assets and liabilities stated at current value; and
5. Separate or combined statements of income and expenses and changes in net assets; and
6. Such other materials as are necessary to fairly summarize the Annual Report.
7. A notice which says, for example: Plan participants and beneficiaries may obtain copies of the Annual Report filed with the Department of Labor by making a written request to the Plan Administrator. A reasonable charge will be made; or you may inspect the report without charge at the office of (give name and address, usually the Plan Administrators; or if the plan covers participants at various locations, you may be required to have a copy available at each location. If so, list the locations).

The above information with respect to the contents of the Summary Annual Report is based on our interpretation of the Act. It is not our intention to advise you as to your obligations regarding compliance under the Act. We suggest that you consult with your own legal counsel and discuss the requirements before any action is taken.

TO OUR GROUP POLICYHOLDERS WITH 100 OR MORE PLAN PARTICIPANTS

RE: EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974 (ERISA)

- (1) ANNUAL REPORT OF WELFARE BENEFIT PLAN - FORM 5500
- (2) SUMMARY ANNUAL REPORT

- (1) Section 104 of ERISA requires that each Plan Administrator who maintains a welfare benefit Plan subject to ERISA having 100 or more participants at any time during the plan year must file an annual report with the Department of Labor. The report must be filed within 7 months of the end of the plan year. Certain failures are provided for failure to comply.

As it appears your plan is subject to the Act, the data on the enclosed form is provided for your assistance in completing your annual report. By supplying this information it is not our intent to advise you as to your legal obligations under the act, nor do we wish to imply that this information constitutes all of the data to be included in our annual report.

If you expect to file an annual report, you would normally receive a complete copy of form 5500 and Schedule A from the Department of Labor, with all necessary instructions, prior to the filing date. Follow the instructions carefully. If you or your legal counsel have questions, please contact The Labor-Management Services Administration Office at the Department of Labor.

- (2) Section 104(B) of ERISA requires a plan administrator who must file an annual report to also furnish a Summary Annual Report to each plan participant and beneficiary within 9 months of the end of your plan year and without charge.

The Summary Annual Report should include the following information:

1. The name of the plan as determined by your Plan Document and, if different, the name by which the plan is commonly known to its participants and beneficiaries; and
2. The name and business address (do not use P.O. Box number) of the Plan Sponsor (usually the employer to whom the policy was issued). However, if different, show:
  - a. The name and address of any employer having employees covered by the plan; or
  - b. The name and address of any labor organization maintaining the plan; or
  - c. In case of a plan established or maintained by two or more employers or by one or more employers and one or more employee organizations, the name and address of the association, committee, joint board of trustees, parent, or most significant employer of a group of employees contributing to the same plan; and
3. The name, business address, (do not use P.O. Box number) and business telephone number of the Plan Administrator; and
4. A statement of assets and liabilities stated at current value; and
5. Separate or combined statements of income and expenses and changes in net assets; and
6. Such other materials as are necessary to fairly summarize the Annual Report.
7. A notice which says, for example: Plan participants and beneficiaries may obtain copies of the Annual Report filed with the Department of Labor by making a written request to the Plan Administrator. A reasonable charge will be made; or you may inspect the report without charge at the office of (give name and address, usually the Plan Administrators; or if the plan covers participants at various locations, you may be required to have a copy available at each location. If so, list the locations).

The above information with respect to the contents of the Summary Annual Report is based on our interpretation of the Act. It is not our intention to advise you as to your obligations regarding compliance under the Act. We suggest that you consult with your own legal counsel and discuss the requirements before any action is taken.

TO OUR GROUP POLICYHOLDERS WITH 100 OR MORE PLAN PARTICIPANTS

RE: EMPLOYEE RETIREMENT INCOME SECURITY ACT OF 1974 (ERISA)

- (1) ANNUAL REPORT OF WELFARE BENEFIT PLAN - FORM 5500
- (2) SUMMARY ANNUAL REPORT

- (1) Section 104 of ERISA requires that each Plan Administrator who maintains a welfare benefit Plan subject to ERISA having 100 or more participants at any time during the plan year must file an annual report with the Department of Labor. The report must be filed within 7 months of the end of the plan year. Certain failures are provided for failure to comply.

As it appears your plan is subject to the Act, the data on the enclosed form is provided for your assistance in completing your annual report. By supplying this information it is not our intent to advise you as to your legal obligations under the act, nor do we wish to imply that this information constitutes all of the data to be included in our annual report.

If you expect to file an annual report, you would normally receive a complete copy of form 5500 and Schedule A from the Department of Labor, with all necessary instructions, prior to the filing date. Follow the instructions carefully. If you or your legal counsel have questions, please contact The Labor-Management Services Administration Office at the Department of Labor.

- (2) Section 104(B) of ERISA requires a plan administrator who must file an annual report to also furnish a Summary Annual Report to each plan participant and beneficiary within 9 months of the end of your plan year and without charge.

The Summary Annual Report should include the following information:

1. The name of the plan as determined by your Plan Document and, if different, the name by which the plan is commonly known to its participants and beneficiaries; and
2. The name and business address (do not use P.O. Box number) of the Plan Sponsor (usually the employer to whom the policy was issued). However, if different, show:
  - a. The name and address of any employer having employees covered by the plan; or
  - b. The name and address of any labor organization maintaining the plan; or
  - c. In case of a plan established or maintained by two or more employers or by one or more employers and one or more employee organizations, the name and address of the association, committee, joint board of trustees, parent, or most significant employer of a group of employees contributing to the same plan; and
3. The name, business address, (do not use P.O. Box number) and business telephone number of the Plan Administrator; and
4. A statement of assets and liabilities stated at current value; and
5. Separate or combined statements of income and expenses and changes in net assets; and
6. Such other materials as are necessary to fairly summarize the Annual Report.
7. A notice which says, for example: Plan participants and beneficiaries may obtain copies of the Annual Report filed with the Department of Labor by making a written request to the Plan Administrator. A reasonable charge will be made; or you may inspect the report without charge at the office of (give name and address, usually the Plan Administrators; or if the plan covers participants at various locations, you may be required to have a copy available at each location. If so, list the locations).

The above information with respect to the contents of the Summary Annual Report is based on our interpretation of the Act. It is not our intention to advise you as to your obligations regarding compliance under the Act. We suggest that you consult with your own legal counsel and discuss the requirements before any action is taken.
